We would like to thank our community for once again voting The City Farm Venue and Events the wedding venue of the year. Your support means so much to our little family owned and operated business! We feel blessed to have been a small part of so many wonderful life celebrations and you have been an amazing support and we are so grateful! Also we'd like to take this opportunity to remind everyone of our newest adventure happening at The City Farm, our annual Spring and Christmas barn sales held the last Saturday in April and the first Saturday in December. Once again many thanks to our community and we look forward to spending time with you at The City Farm!
