~UNFORTUNATELY~

Jesus Himself declared that everybody who does not repent is doomed for God's judgement if they refused to repent.

Jesus explicitly instructed His disciples that He, Jesus, is both judge and Savior. Today's societies with full medical care and multiple retirement funds many do not think they need to be saved and feel they are better off without the limitations of old-fashioned religion.

Unfortunately, many believers also have forgotten that Jesus came to not only give us a more joyful and meaningful life but save us from the wrath to come.

They have forgotten that without Jesus a person does not just lack the comfort and peace found in Him but the wrath of God remains on them. God judged His own chosen nation, Israel, so He will judge this nation as well.

America is in more trouble than what most Americans realize. Judgement is at the door and far too few see the handwriting on the wall. Even some Christians believe this troubling time will pass and our nation will return to better days. Sin has consequences and it has been building in this country and the world for years. But we are the ones who live in this land and sin has grown into evil and must be addressed by a Holy and Just God.

The only hope for us as a people is complete surrender to Jesus Christ and give Him the reins to lead us through the approaching days.

CLASSIFIED QUICK TIPS

Prepare. Know what is important to readers shopping in your classified category.

Make Your Copy Complete.

Use ad copy effectively to thoroughly communicate to potential buyer(s). Organize the ad carefully. Space and punctuate, so that the reader can follow the ad and understand its content.

Be Creative Descriptive.

List major selling points (price, color, size, features or options).

Be Factual. Be Helpful.

Include hours of operation, best days and times in which to make contact as well as area code on phone numbers.

Make Your Ad Easily

Recognizable. Choose a main benefit of your merchandise and feature it in a headline.

Use art, large type sizes, bolding and best of all, use white space to make your ad visually attractive and so powerful, it's jumping off the page.

Maximize The Amount Of Prospective Buyers/Readers.

Multiply insertions help prospective buyers/readers REMEMBER the ad because of repetition. Take advantage of discounted rates available for multiple insertions.

Urge The Reader To Act Now!

Every ad should include a strong bid for action. Stimulate prompt action by using such phrases as "Call Now", "Available Immediately" or "Won't Last".

The Big Nickel hopes these tips will help you, please call 417-624-4100 and our telephone sales representatives will be happy to assist you.

ASK THE MOTOR MEDICS®

Automotive Advice from the Under The Hood® Show

Dear Motor Medics,

We have a new driver in the family, our teenage daughter. She will start driving on her own in a few weeks and we have spent many hours with her teaching the skills of driving. We feel that she is very responsible for her age and will be a responsible driver but we would like your advice on how we can teach her to deal with a few common emergencies that a teenager might face when starting out on the road alone for the first time.

Thank you,
Shelby in Carroll Iowa

Dear Shelby,

There are many things about common vehicle emergencies that a new driver and even a well-seasoned one can benefit from knowing. Some problems can be prevented with focused driving. A driver who is aware of their surroundings can avoid many common problems. First off, many teens I speak to don't know what to do about a flat tire. This is one of the easiest things to take care of but without proper knowledge can be very intimidating and even dangerous. Go over the procedures for installing a spare and don't forget safety first like making sure the car is in a safe location before attempting a change. Six inches from the edge of a busy highway is not safe. In general, think of all the issues you have dealt with in your daily driving and teach them before it happens. Dead battery, out of gas, locked out of car, etc.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I get pulled over often by the police and although a lot of the time I either get no ticket or just a warning I just don't understand why they seem to target me. I drive a Honda Accord Sedan that's silver so it's not flashy and I rarely speed. Are there certain things that trigger getting pulled over more than others?

Thank you,
Dan in Colorado

Dear Jesse,

You just must have one of those magnetic attractions, one that attracts officers. You could take a cab, or you could avoid some common mistakes. If you are getting pulled over often you must be doing something to attract attention to yourself. Here are just a few things that will draw attention. Being the only car on the road, this puts all eyes on you. Passing too quickly, by darting out, around, and back in quickly, it looks like you are traveling faster than you may be. If you are traveling too fast, slow down. Loud music and dark tinted windows, and loud exhaust never help either. In general, you want to be as incognito as possible. Don't draw unneeded attention to yourself.

If you do get pulled over the number one way to avoid that ticket is to be polite. The officers are doing their jobs and will be making the choice of ticket or not. Being rude is a surefire way of making sure they do their job as thoroughly as possible.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I recently had to have a suspension part replaced on my vehicle and I went the cheap route and found one on the internet at half of the price that my local store was offering and at that cost I could not pass it up. Being so cheap and with the free shipping I figured it made sense. The warranty was six months, but I figured they would not sell them if they all went bad and at that price I could buy another one if it failed. I installed it myself and 1000 miles later was left stranded missing a wheel. The car was towed, and they found the part I had was very cheaply produced. I tried to call the company, but they have no phone and do not respond to my emails. Is there any way to know how good a part is when purchasing one from a source other than the vehicle manufacturer?

Thank you,
Bart in Wray Colorado

Dear Bart,

There are some great deals out there but also some very poor-quality parts that can fail and compromise your safety. How can you be sure you are getting good quality parts? Buy locally. You will have a real building you can walk into and real people who will help you if you have a failure. The store will also have the backing of the reputable companies that supply their parts, and you will be supporting your local economy.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I took a trip overseas and rented a small car with a gas engine. It looked just like the Ford Focus I own here in the states but had more zip and the fuel economy was much better than what I get at home. I noticed two things when I refueled the car. One the very high cost as compared to ours and two the very high-octane content. I typically use 87-90 octane at home but the lowest available overseas was 95 and with 5% ethanol it was 99. This seems really high. Does this have something to do with the better mileage and power and if so, why don't we have it here in the states?

Thank you,
Martin in Shelton Washington

Dear Martin,

Most people would not have noticed the octane rating, good eye. You are correct about the octanes effect on fuel economy and power. With higher octane fuel the engines can run higher compression and more timing without detonation equaling more power and efficiency. Therefore, a car with the same cubic inch engine overseas could get better mileage than its counterpart in the states. I can only speculate on the reasons we don't see it here but would guess the price of the higher-octane fuel combined with emissions regulations probably play a part in it. Manufactures are continuously working on ways to increase power while using the same size engine and octane fuel available at American pumps today.

Take care,
the Motor Medics
