~ All or None ~

The Christians have an opportunity to touch America for Christ, if they will seize and run the race Christ has laid out. They have a golden opportunity to change this society for good if they are willing to do it.

Open your heart to God and He will use you. Be strong and of good courage. Though the night be dark, you will always walk in light when bearing His torch. Christians are the hope of more people than you know.

Submit yourself to God as a willing servant. Commit yourself to make a difference. Never settle for anything second-best. God is the best, and He expects His followers to be the same. God will be with you always if you walk with Him every day, every step of the way.

The scripture says in Jeremiah 29: "Pray to Me, and I will hear your voice and listen. Seek Me as a vital necessity, and you will find Me when you search for Me with all your heart." Does that describe you? I have a deep concern for people that call themselves Christians but may be fooling themselves. Today, holiness is frowned upon. Sinful living is not talked about. Obeying the Word of God is somehow negotiable.

But being a half-Christian is not being a Christian at all.

ASK THE MOTORMEDICS®

Automotive Advice from the Under The Hood® Show

Dear Motor Medics,

My Ford Explorer has been acting up ever since it froze to the ground. I parked it in some deep slush and the next day I couldn't get it to budge like it was bolted down. At first, I thought it was the transmission, then the brakes, but then my wife who told me not to park in the slush set me straight. When I come to a stop, just a couple feet short of a complete stop the ABS brakes activate causing the pedal to sink and I don't have control. What's up?

Thank you,
Scott in Parachute Colorado

Dear Scott,

You're not the first one to get a vehicle to freeze to the ground. It happens more than you think. It usually just takes a good thaw but sometimes a little too much action trying to get it loose will cause some damage. In your case we don't think that this freeze was the lone cause but won't rule it out. If you have made it a habit of parking or driving in areas of deep water or snow it may now be taking its toll over time though. The ABS (Anti-Lock-Brake) system uses a sensor on each of the front wheels that reads near the hub and if it becomes corroded due to moisture it can't read at low speeds and will falsely activate. This is just one possibility. Have it checked and avoid parking in deep water and snow.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

My 2004 Chevy Tahoe has had a knock when cold since it was a couple years old and the dealership where I bought it always told me it was normal, and it wouldn't hurt anything, and I did hear it in others so I wasn't too alarmed but now it's knocking all the time and slightly worse. I've got 250k miles on it and I'm hoping to get at least another 50k out of her.

Thank you,
Terry in Valentine Nebraska

Dear Terry,

We've been listening to the dreaded Chevy 5.3 knock for years and sometimes we wonder if we have become numb to it. It's so common that we don't usually think twice about it. The engines have some piston slap noise that is worse when cold but once parts warm and expand they take up the slack and stop knocking. The dealer was right in saying that if this is the sound you have it won't cause harm but now, you're reaching the engine's mature stage and those noises may have nothing to do with the inherent noise of the 5.3. At 250k it could be a normal loose engine, or it could be getting ready to fail. Either way it's been a long life for it and that's good miles for a 5.3 even though some go longer. Have your local shop take a look and hopefully they will surprise you and say it's still good to go for awhile.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

There are so many new things on cars today. How do you keep up with them all? I just bought a new car to me; a 2011 Ford Focus and it has a ton of new stuff on it that I have never heard of, being that I just got out of a much older vehicle. This car has no gas cap on it. I mean it's not supposed to, but I have a message on the dash that says "Check gas cap" so now what?

Thank you,
Seth in Vandalia Missouri

Dear Seth,

Ok Seth, now were on question overload, but we can handle it. 1st, we don't know how we keep up with it all, we just do. That's our number one asked question on our radio show Under The Hood. We have great memories and see a lot of vehicles in our shop which helps. As for the new features, they are coming out of the woodwork for sure. Your car is one of those with the new no fuel cap feature. At least you can't lose the fuel cap. The filler tube now just has a valve and spring to seal the filler neck and if it gets dirty and damaged it can trip the light you have on now. It is very important to keep the area clean, we use a damp cloth, not soaking wet, to clean the area on a regular basis. Good luck with the new car.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I have a question about your radio show. You have helped me with car repairs on four different occasions and I was able to fix it myself 3 times and saved money and the 4th time you were talking about a recall I didn't even know existed and I was able to have my problem at no charge at my local dealership. I want to know how you know so much about cars and how you guys started doing the show and this column.

Thank you,
Mark in Inwood Iowa

Dear Mark,

We're happy to help and it gives us great pleasure to know we are helping others save money and keep their automotive stress levels down. Mark, we work on cars every day in our own repair shop doing everything you hear on the show and that is a great learning center for us. Russ also has a crazy memory that never lets anything go so he keeps all that knowledge and passes it on to our listeners. Neither Russ nor Shannon uses a computer to answer the questions on the air. We started the show back in 1990 as a half-hour show, never dreaming, we would have a worldwide audience 33 years later. At one point we were answering over 300 emails a day with many being similar, so we started this column to help multiple folks at once with one answer. We are blessed to have such great folks listening.

Take care,
the Motor Medics
