Fun By The Numbers
Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the puzzle. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the boxes!

~ The Choice You Make ~

The choice you make to place your life into the care of Jesus Christ is the very best choice you will ever make. You will find that Jesus is like no other friend you could ever have. He's always near you. He never leaves you. God gave your life for a purpose all your own and His. God is the Father that will help you succeed in His plans for you here on earth. When a person truly repents of their sinful ways and asks God to change them, Jesus enters in and will be there for you by giving His Holy Spirit presence to help you complete life as it was intended for you. Surrender your life to Jesus Christ, God's Son, who is His representative to humanity and who proved that you can live a changed life.

Every provision has been made for you to make it. Lean on the Lord; learn the words of the Bible daily. This is so important. Speak with God. He will show you how to pray and pray about everything. It is the path to leading you through life. God's love for you is enough to see you all the way through life.

The greatest opportunities await you when you choose to serve Jesus and put aside the things of this earth that have little-to-no eternal value. Make your life count in God's plans for you. It will, for sure, be worth it.

ASK THE MOTOR MEDICS®

Automotive Advice from the Under The Hood® Show

Dear Motor Medics,

I have a 2021 Ram 1500 with a V6 engine that has a on-going coolant leak. The leak is small and coming from the thermostat housing area. I have had the truck repair several times with both the thermostat, water pump, and then thermostat housing being replaced. The leak consumes about a pint of coolant a month. Can I use one of those cooling system sealers to fix it? I don't want to clog up the system trying to stop a leak. If I use it, how long does it last?

Thank you,
Gary in Litchfield Minnesota

Dear Gary,

We have seen this leak on multiple ram trucks in the past few years. There have been upgraded thermostat housings and thermostat covers which should fix this issue but in the colder climates we have seen multiple repeat failures. If it is still under warranty take it back to the shop that serviced it. If it is out of warranty, or you performed the work yourself and are tired of trying to seal up that small remaining leak then a sealer may be the ticket. We have had great success with a permanent leak sealer called KSeal. KSeal does not clog the system and is meant to be a permanent repair that you add to the system and leave in. Don't use it with other sealers and don't flush it out. Follow directions and if you have the results that we have seen it should stop the leak.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I'm rolling in my 2019 Toyota Corolla with custom aftermarket wheels and tires and custom vehicle wrap. Can you picture it? This thing is hot! Well, as hot as a Corolla can get. This is what I could afford as a new car when I purchased it right out of college, but it beats huge payments and I like it a lot. I have been having tire Pressure Monitor issues and the tire stores say its my car. The issue started a year after the new wheels and tires were installed and they have replaced all the sensors and can't get the system to work. Do you have any ideas?

Thank you,
Kenedy in Omaha Nebraska

Dear Kenedy,

Another Corolla with TPMS issues. This does not surprise us much. Usually, tire pressure monitor issues are a straight-forward repair. We scan the system to see which tire does not communicate with the receiver or which one is showing a fault then replace that sensor in the tire with a new one, program it, and its good to go. With the Toyotas and Lexus vehicles we have not been that lucky at our shop. We have tried several brands of aftermarket sensors and even used 4 new Toyota sensors and have had a very hard time programing them. For these vehicles use only Toyota OEM sensors and we suggest the dealership for programing. This has been the most successful for us.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I have a 1994 Stealth RT without the turbocharged engine. I have gone through 2 new batteries in a short period of time. Is it possible that a failing alternator can ruin a battery? If so, I would like to know if there is a way to check if the alternator has actually failed. Are there specific testing methods that can be used to narrow the cause down? I listen to your show faithfully. Thanks for your time.

Thank you,
, Karen in Fargo

Dear Karen,

A failing alternator can ruin a battery in a short period of time. If it's overcharging or is draining current when off it will discharge the battery after it sits for extended periods. Even if it does not sit long enough to run completely down it can cause the battery to fail due to its heavy discharge/charge cycles.

To check the alternator, you need to have a charging system analysis done with a charging system tester. This will show the internal operation of the alternator, diodes, field, and ability to charge at idle and at higher rpm but will not show a drain. To find a drain they will need to perform is a current drain test. Most shops with this type of tool will also have an electronic battery testing tool. It is possible that you have had a run of bad luck with two bad batteries. It has happened to us in our shop before.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I drive a Ford F150 which I bought new in 2004. I have been hearing some news from other Ford owners in my area who have had some issues with cam phasers failing in their engines. My question is what should I be doing to give me the best chance of preventing this from happening to my engine? I drive the truck only a few miles to work every day and change the oil about every four months.

Thank you,
Dean in Moberly Missouri

Dear Dean,

The 5.4 has been used is hundreds of thousands of Fords without issue but a few have been known to develop issues with the cam phasers or lose just a bit of oil pressure which keeps the phasers from operating properly. Repairs involve phaser replacement or sometimes an entire engine. The best way to prevent this from happening is with routine oil changes. Ford recommends using their factory specified oil or something of better ratings and a Ford genuine filter. There are copies of this filter on the market so make sure you are getting the genuine Ford product. As for time intervals we would suggest changing the oil at three months. The short trips are harder on the oil and engine as the engine does not get up to operating temperature for a long enough period to completely burn off all traces of moisture in the oil which can result in sludge in the engine.

Take care,
the Motor Medics
