~ Voices ~

The prophet Jeremiah had been prophesying for more than 20 years about the peoples' condition and the judgement that was coming.

The people had every opportunity to hear the truth and repent. But they continued on in their sinful behavior. The Lord uses people like Jeremiah to accomplish His purposes one way or the other. Who are these voices today?

The battle with sin again shows us today that history repeats itself. But this time is the final judgement of the end times that the entire earth will experience.

The theme is the same: the people would not listen and turn from their wicked ways. So finally, judgement has to be initiated to save the good of the remnant.

Most always an angry or negative response to the preaching and declaring of God's word is a reflection of a guilty conscience, of a hardened heart toward God.

God has always sent His prophets to execute His warnings. God always has His voices for every generation. Are you listening and heeding what God is saying today?

ASK THE MOTOR MEDICS®

Automotive Advice from the Under The Hood® Show

Dear Motor Medics,

I purchased a 2016 Buick Lacross a couple years back with 30k miles on it. The car was out of warranty and was a low mileage used car purchase with a 100-point pre purchase inspection. Starting just 3 days after we purchased the car, multiple dash warning lights have appeared. ABS, Trac, Check engine, Air bag and more. We have taken the car back 8 times for different electrical repairs and are wondering about two things. First, could it be a flood car? It was purchased just after a hurricane in the area we bought it and two is there a lemon law that covers so many repairs?

Thank you,
Denver in Kilgore Texas

Dear Denver,

Flood damage can happen, but it is rarer than you think. We have not seen a car in our shop that has had signs of flood damage in more than ten years, and we specialize in weird electrical issues so we would be likely to see them if they were out in the market. You can check for water damage by pulling up the carpet and looking in hidden areas for rusting and dirty water stains. No, about lemon laws. Each state either has them or not but they are likely not what you think. Investigate your Texas laws to see what they may cover and make sure you have every receipt for repairs detailing exactly what was done and how many times. You may just have multiple issues caused by one common item.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

Winter is coming and I'm new to a car with anti-lock brakes. We purchased a 2020 Chevy Equinox as a replacement of our 1990 Chevy we bought new and wore out. There are so many confusing things about anti-lock brakes we want to make sure we know what to do.

Thank you,
Barbera in Sioux City Iowa

Dear Barbera,

Anti-lock brakes are great but with all safety items if not used properly they can cause things to be less safe. For instance, never pump the brakes when you have anti-lock brakes. The brakes are computerized and controlled by the module and pumping the brakes causes improper operation. When you are on a low traction surface and apply the brakes, you will hear the pump run and the pedal will pulsate. This is normal. Hold steady pressure on the pedal while slowing down until you reach your desired speed. The anti-lock brakes can also help you steer through an obstacle if they are used properly. We strongly suggest that you take the vehicle to a wide-open parking lot when it is icy where you won't hit anything and practice driving and using anti-lock brakes. Get some cones and set them out and try to steer around them with the anti-lock brakes applied. With some practice you should start to feel more comfortable with them but remember you still need to make all safety decisions.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I have a 2021 Ram 1500 with a V6 engine that has a ongoing coolant leak. The leak is small and coming from the thermostat housing area. I have had the truck repair several times with both the thermostat, water pump, and then thermostat housing being replaced. The leak consumes about a pint of coolant a month. Can I use one of those cooling system sealers to fix it? I don't want to clog up the system trying to stop a leak. If I use it, how long does it last?

Thank you,
Gary in Litchfield Minnesota

Dear Gary,

We have seen this leak on multiple ram trucks in the past few years. There have been upgraded thermostat housings and thermostat covers which should fix this issue but in the colder climates we have seen multiple repeat failures. If it is still under warranty take it back to the shop that serviced it. If it is out of warranty, or you performed the work yourself and are tired of trying to seal up that small remaining leak then a sealer may be the ticket. We have had great success with a permanent leak sealer called KSeal. KSeal does not clog the system and is meant to be a permanent repair that you add to the system and leave in. Don't use it with other sealers and don't flush it out. Follow directions and if you have the results that we have seen it should stop the leak.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I'm rolling in my 2019 Toyota Corolla with custom aftermarket wheels and tires and custom vehicle wrap. Can you picture it? This thing is hot! Well, as hot as a Corolla can get. This is what I could afford as a new car when I purchased it right out of college, but it beats huge payments and I like it a lot. I have been having tire Pressure Monitor issues and the tire stores say its my car. The issue started a year after the new wheels and tires were installed and they have replaced all the sensors and can't get the system to work. Do you have any ideas?

Thank you,
Kenedy in Omaha Nebraska

Dear Kenedy,

Another Corolla with TPMS issues. This does not surprise us much. Usually, tire pressure monitor issues are a straight-forward repair. We scan the system to see which tire does not communicate with the receiver or which one is showing a fault then replace that sensor in the tire with a new one, program it, and its good to go. With the Toyotas and Lexus vehicles we have not been that lucky at our shop. We have tried several brands of aftermarket sensors and even used 4 new Toyota sensors and have had a very hard time programing them. For these vehicles use only Toyota OEM sensors and we suggest the dealership for programing. This has been the most successful for us.

Take care,
the Motor Medics
