~ In the Blink of an Eye ~

Today across the world and now in this nation, there are growing signs of persecution of the Christian faith. The once greatly revered Christianity in America has now become a great annoyance to many who have different ideas about how the country should be run. There is a growing number that desire to see the Christians quieted.

There is pressure building on the true church to become more and more marginalized, that its standards be devalued and more aligned with humanistic beliefs and opportunities, that Christianity's restraints and barriers be done away with- so that new world order of ideas and lifestyles can have the real freedom to evolve in the people.

Very soon this opinion is going to get its wish, its dream is going to come true and be tested by an event that has been building for many years and now is sitting on the world's doorstep and at any moment is going to ring the doorbell that will be heard around the world as the Christians leave this earth.

ASK THE MOTORMEDICS[®]

Automotive Advice from the Under The Hood[®] Show

Dear Motor Medics,

I need to know about difficult to diagnose auto repairs. I have a 2020 Jeep Renegade that has a electrical issue that is not always there. It comes and goes every few days and results in a dead battery. I have taken it into three different shops where they spent a couple days each on it but none of them were able to fix it. One did not make any repairs but charged me over 300.00 for looking at it and the other two said they "had it fixed" and gave me a list of what they did but it still does it. Can I be charged for repairs even though they didn't fix it and why can't they get it figured out?

Thank you,
Clarence in Newark

Dear Clarence,

You will have to figure out the charges part for yourself as we are not that shop. When you have an electrical issues which we see often in our shop, it can be a nightmare. First, the problem must exist as the vehicle is being repaired and it must stay active the entire time. Then, during the repairs each circuit must be isolated one at a time to check for drawing, then once reactivated the car must sit until it goes to sleep. This process is standard and can take hours and if the problem goes away during the test then a shop will charge you even though it did not get fixed.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

Hi guys, my 2010 Ford F250 Diesel truck has a door ding sound and a door ajar light that comes on and goes off as I drive. When I hit bumps and more so on cold days it seems to be present more often. Sometimes I can always have the light on for several days in a row while on a really hot day it may never come on. My mechanic does not do this kind of work anymore and does not have any advice for me other than to take it to another shop. What kind of things could it be.

Thank you,
John, in Indiana

Dear John,

The door ajar and warning bell are both functions of the door switches but those switches on your truck also communicate with a module. There can be a problem with the switch, the module or the wiring and any one of these can cause your problem. Modules are sometimes affected by temperatures but more often the door switch which is part of the door latch is the issue. When the latch switch starts to fail it gets sticky and won't shut off the warning. Spraying the door latch sometimes offers a temporary fix but accelerates the failure because it makes it attract dirt and makes it worse. If they find that the switch is faulty it is best to replace it instead of trying to lubricate it for a temporary fix.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I own a 2005 Chevrolet Impala that I bought used in March of 2006 with 8,000 miles. The vehicle now has 182,000 miles so it does not sit still very often. I have been having problems with the speedometer and other instrument cluster gauges not working correctly. Sometimes the speedometer will stick on 60 and not drop down until I shut off and restart the car. Is this a common problem with this type of vehicle and if so, how do I fix it?

Thank you,
Doug in Minneapolis

Dear Doug,

We have repaired several of these, but many are still ticking with well over 200,000 miles on them. A general repair shop should be able to diagnose the issue and if they find that it is within the speedometer, they can replace the unit with a rebuilt unit that is available from most auto parts stores. The units come pre-programed for easy installation. When they order the unit, it can take a couple of weeks or so as they need to send your vehicle information like mileage and identification number to the manufacturer of the unit so that they can enter it into the replacement. Once it arrives your shop can install the unit and they will have you sign a mileage affidavit stating that the mileage you gave them to enter the replacement was correct. They will then box up the old unit and send it back as a core.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

Dear Motor Medics,

I have a 2005 Dodge Caravan SE that we bought used, and it was not equipped with power windows, door locks, or power sliding doors. We would really like to add these features and keyless entry. Can this be done for a reasonable price and where do we go to get it done?

Thank you,
Dan in Colorado

Dear Janet,

Power features have become standard on vehicles or at least it seems that way. More and more vehicles, especially ones that are used for hauling the family like a van seem to almost always have full power in them. It is a rarity for one to come into our shop that does not have at least power windows and locks, but they are out there. The cost of the accessories will be dependent on the shop and the quality. As for adding them to the front doors, that should not be that big of an issue. Many companies offer aftermarket power windows and lock kits, and remotes can be added easily as well. The power sliding doors are another story, and I have not seen anyone who makes an aftermarket unit for those, but they may be out there. Power slides can be very difficult to work on and I have fought with my share. Check around with local vehicle accessory shops that install cruise controls, air conditioning, remote starts, etc. These types of shops often install power accessories like this as well.

Take care,
the Motor Medics

QUICK TIPS

Prepare. Know what is important to readers shopping in your classified category.

Make Your Copy Complete. Use ad copy effectively to thoroughly communicate to potential buyer(s). Organize the ad carefully. Space and punctuate, so that the reader can follow the ad and understand its content.

Be Creative Descriptive. List major selling points (price, color, size, features or options).

Be Factual. Be Helpful. Include hours of operation, best days and times in which to make contact as well as area code on phone numbers.

Make Your Ad Easily Recognizable. Choose a main benefit of your merchandise and feature it in a headline. Use art, large type sizes, bolding and best of all, use white space to make your ad visually attractive and so powerful, it's jumping off the page.

Maximize The Amount Of Prospective Buyers/Readers. Multiply insertions help prospective buyers/readers REMEMBER the ad because of repetition. Take advantage of discounted rates available for multiple insertions.

Urge The Reader To Act Now! Every ad should include a strong bid for action. Stimulate prompt action by using such phrases as "Call Now", "Available Immediately" or "Won't Last".

The Big Nickel hopes these tips will help you, please call 417-624-4100 and our telephone sales representatives will be happy to assist you.
