Berry attends conference

Gatesville Intermediate School's music teacher. Vicki Cribbs Berry, had a lucky day earlier this week while attending the Texas Kickoff in Dallas with QuaverMusic. Not only did she get to meet and hang with Quaver Ed (Graham Hepburn) himself, she also won a door prize with an approximate retail value of $340. The prize consists of various musical instruments that the Intermediate students will have the opportunity to interact with and use in the upcoming school year.

QuaverMusic is taught in more than 18,000 schools worldwide, with almost four million students engaged in music education. The program leads students through different musical concepts in each episode.
