Publisher's Note

Mark Twain is said to have noted, "A man who carries a cat by the tail learns a lesson he can learn in no other way." Though I have indicated to the editorial staff of Holler Media that carrying an Opinion page always poses an asymmetric risk profile (the potential cost is high, while the marginal benefit is low), perhaps I have not been strong enough in my condemnation of carrying an Opinion page. Last week we ran a submission laying out its contributor's thoughts on the events at the US Capitol, and we received a range of responses, from approbation to livid indignation.

I do not apologize for the opinion piece we ran, but I believe our Editor's experience served as a lesson learned in a way my admonition against carrying an Opinion page could not: she had to carry Mark Twain's cat by the tail.

This newspaper does not have a political or ideological agenda. The agenda of this newspaper is much simpler and far more transparent: To document life in Jackson County. While we will continue to seek ways to improve the Jackson County Sentinel, an Opinion page will not be a focus of these efforts.

Sheriff Marty Hinson thanks the Ashville North Carolina Police Department for their dedication in apprehending this individual.

Elijah Foster is facing criminal charges in Ashville and will go through the extradition process back to Jackson County for charges resulting from a shooting in the Pine Lick area of Jackson County.

Senator Bailey
Reappointed To Board

State Senator Paul Bailey (R-Sparta) has been reappointed chairman of the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee. The announcement was made Wednesday, Jan. 13 by Lt. Governor Randy McNally during the organizational session on the Senate floor.

"Paul Bailey is a business owner and a conservative," said Lt. Governor McNally of Bailey's appointment. "He intimately understands the needs of entrepreneurs and employers as well as workers and wage earners. He has done an excellent job as chairman and I am proud to reappoint him."

The Commerce and Labor Committee hears legislation dealing with economic development, banking, business, insurance, communications, consumer affairs, occupational licensing and employment matters. Due to the scope of legislation considered there, it is considered one of the most powerful committees in the General Assembly.

"I am very honored to have been selected as the chairman of this committee," said Senator Bailey. "It is important that Tennessee continues to have a pro-business climate that is attractive for bringing new jobs to the state. Even in the face of a global pandemic, Tennessee saw many new businesses relocate to the state or expand their existing operations, and that is because of our commitment to being business-friendly. I am dedicated to ensuring Tennessee remains a great state to do business, and look forward to continuing in this role."

Bailey was also reappointed to serve on the Senate Transportation and Safety Committee, which he previously chaired.

Senator Bailey represents Senate District 15 comprised of Cumberland, Jackson, Overton, Bledsoe, Putnam and White Counties.

Man Sentenced To Life For Murder

MEGAN REAGAN
Editor

A local man was tried and found guilty on the charges of first-degree murder, aggravated arson, theft over $1,000 and two counts of tampering with evidence, ultimately receiving a lifetime sentence on Dec. 17.

Kevin Meadows, 37, of Gainesboro was indicted on the charges of first-degree murder, aggravated arson, theft over $1,000 and two counts of tampering with evidence after a murder took place in Jackson County in May of 2018.

As previously reported by The Jackson County

Sentinel, an investigation by Special Agents with the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation and deputies with the Jackson County Sheriff's Office resulted in the arrest of Meadows, who faced murder and other charges, stemming from a homicide in 2018 and was found guilty after a four-day trial that took place late last month.

At the request of the 15th District Attorney General Tommy Thompson, on May 11, 2018 TBI Agents joined investigators with the Jackson County Sheriff's Office in investigating the homicide of Solomon Minder, 71, of Gainesboro. The victim was found deceased in his McCoinsville Road residence in Gainesboro. The investigation revealed evidence that a fire had been set inside the home. During the course of the investigation, agents and investigators developed information that identified Meadows, an acquaintance of the victim, as the individual responsible for Minder's death.

After the guilty verdict, Meadows is facing sentences for first-degree murder, aggravated arson, theft over $1,000, and two counts of tampering with evidence, which could result in a life sentence plus up to an additional 39 years.

Prosecutors were Jason Lawson and Ian Bratton.

Defending attorneys were Tom Bilbrey and Jo McLerran.

Judge Brody Kane presided over case.

"Mr. Minder received justice in this case due to the outstanding work of the Jackson County Sheriff's Department and the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation. Their investigative efforts, led by Captain Dennis Thrasher of the Sheriff's Department and Special Agent Bobby Simmons of the TBI, were a shining example of what a professional, thorough, complete investigation should look like. They really left no stone unturned in their pursuit for truth, and because of those efforts the prosecution was able to clearly show the jury what exactly happened on the night of Mr. Minder's death. The family of Mr. Minder is grateful to all of the officers involved, and to the jurors who had the courage to serve and return a just verdict," Lawson said.

Meadows will not be eligible for a parole hearing until he completes 51 years of the sentence.

Tennessee Receives $1.3 Million In Grant Money

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) will invest more than $46 million this year through the Joint Chiefs' Landscape Restoration Partnership for projects that mitigate wildfire risk, improve water quality, and restore healthy forest ecosystems on public and private lands. Tennessee will receive $1.3 million to improve wildlife habitat for at-risk species.

Funding for 37 projects includes $13 million for eight new projects and $33.3 million to complete work on 29 projects previously selected in 2019 and 2020. Through the projects, USDA's Forest Service (FS) and Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) are working hand-in-hand with agricultural producers, forest landowners, and National Forest System lands to improve forest health using available Farm Bill conservation programs and other authorities.

"These Joint Chiefs projects are proof positive of what can be achieved when there is collaboration at all levels – federal, state, and local," said Sheldon Hightower, NRCS State Conservationist in Tennessee. "We're proud to help continue these conservation partnerships and successes with these next eight projects, including the project here in Tennessee."

"The Joint Chiefs' Landscape Restoration Partnership continues to provide an excellent example of the shared stewardship model," said Forest Service Chief Vicki Christiansen. "The program enables federal, state, and local partners to work across boundaries and jurisdictions to accomplish joint management goals at a much larger scale."

The Joint Chiefs' Landscape Restoration Partnership enables NRCS and FS to collaborate with agricultural producers and forest landowners to invest in conservation and restoration at a big enough scale to make a difference. Working in partnership, and at this scale, helps reduce wildfire threats, protect water quality and supply, and improve wildlife habitat for at-risk species.

The East Tennessee Aquatic Habitat for At Risk Species is one of eight new projects. NRCS and the USFS will invest more than $1.3 million to apply multiple small-scale restorations strategically to achieve landscape scale conservation. It will do this by focusing efforts on 34 high priority catchments within the Cherokee National Forest and adjacent areas within 3 miles of the National Forest boundary.

Applying restorations in those areas substantially improves habitat and restored reaches are connected directly to at-risk source populations. Priority streams occur in both the North and South zones of Cherokee National Forest. The project aims to support Brook Trout, hellbenders, Tennessee Dace, and other at-risk aquatic species.

The other seven projects are:

Alabama and Florida

Sustaining Gains in Longleaf Pine Restoration Through Coordinated Cogongrass Control.

- Alaska
- Prince of Wales Landscape Restoration Partnership
- Idaho
- North Fork Hazardous Fuels Reduction Project
- New Mexico
- Sierra Blanca Restoration Partnership
- Oregon
- Buttes to Basins - All Lands Forest Resiliency Project
- Oregon
- Lake County All Lands Restoration Initiative
- Puerto Rico
- Ecosystem Resilience Through Conservation Practices.

Through the new three-year projects, landowners will work with local USDA experts and partners to apply targeted forestry management practices on their land, such as thinning, hazardous fuel treatments, fire breaks, and other systems to meet unique forestry challenges in their area.

For full project descriptions and information on completed projects, visit the Joint Chiefs' Landscape Restoration Partnership website.

New Year's Resolutions

Sponsored By: Burrirstown • Cubb Creek • Flynn's Creek • Shiloh • New Salem • McCoinsville • North Spring • Richmond Chapel • Zion • Bagdad • Hurricane • Union Hill • Stone Church of Christ

There seems to be something almost magical about the end of one year and the beginning of a new year. It is so magical that many folks often make a New Year's Resolutions"—this is going to be the time that I start something new or this is going to be the time that I stop that particular habit. And so, we wait. Something that we ought to be doing "today" is put off until that future day when the year changes. Or, with a year like this one, we put our hopes in the major difference that leaving one year and entering another year will supposedly bring.

But, what is the big deal about the first day of January? Why is that "the day" that seems to be the difference-maker? If there is something that is worth doing and will make a significant difference in our lives, why wait for another day beyond TODAY? Or, if there is something that is detrimental to my life and needs to be discontinued to get on a better path, why wait for another day beyond TODAY?

Aren't you glad that God doesn't wait for New Years Day? In the Old Testament, the Jews celebrated the Day of Atonement once every year. On that one day every year, the high priest would enter into the Most Holy Place with the blood of a bull and then he would lay his hands on the scapegoat, and the sins of the people would be remembered and then sent away into the wilderness on that day every year (Heb. 10:3; 9:7; Lev. 16:1-34). Not so today! An alien sinner's sins are removed at the point of baptism (Acts 2:38; 22:16), never to be remembered again (Heb. 9:12). A child of God's sins are removed continually during his faithful walk and confession of sins (1 John 1:7, 9)), never to be remembered again (Heb. 10:17). God doesn't wait until a "move convenient season" to forgive! He forgives immediately! "The Lord is not slack" (2 Pet. 3:9)! If God doesn't wait, why do you?

So, if there is something that you need to change in your life, in order to be right with God, don't wait until New Year's Day. Don't wait until you "get everything worked out." Don't wait until a more convenient season (Acts 24:25). Don't wait!

God told Ananias to say to Saul, "Why are you waiting?" (Acts 22:16). God told Paul to say to the Corinthians, "Behold, now is the accepted time" (2 Cor: 6:2). God told the Hebrew writer to quote from Psalm 95:7 three times, emphasizing the word "Today" five times (Heb. 3:7, 13, 15; 4:7). If something is the "right" thing to do, then it is right to do it "right now!" With God, every day is a "new day" (cf. Lam. 3:23). Make TODAY (not some day in the future) THE DAY that you take the necessary steps to get right with God!

Techniques To Revitalize A Lawn After A Long Winter

Pristine, snow-covered landscapes can be wonders to behold. While that blanket of white is idyllic, a lawn's delicate blades may be paying a hefty price beneath the cold, heavy piles of snow.

Snow plows push salt and sand up on the grass while subterranean animals like mice and moles dig burrows beneath piles of snow as they try to find food and stay warm. Such conditions are not favorable for thriving landscapes. When the spring thaw arrives, lawns may be in dire need of some TLC. The following techniques can mitigate winter-related lawn damage.

Clear Out Debris
Remove any scattered leaves, branches and other debris that has been strewn across the property due to storms or snow-laden trees. This will give you a clean canvas to work on.

Dry Out Snow Mold
The Family Handyman says snow mold is a cold-season fungus that causes gray-colored circles or patches on the lawn where there has been snow. To alleviate snow mold, rake the lawn to loosen matted grass and facilitate the drying-out process.

De-Thatch The Lawn
Heavy snow can compress the grass and cause some of it to die off. De-thatching helps to remove dead grass blades and separate any matting. This enables water, nutrients and air to reach the lawn's roots more effectively. Thinning out old organic matter also helps encourage new growth.

Aerate The Soil
Coupled with dethatching, aeration involves loosening the soil or poking holes to allow nutrients to move freely to the roots.

Kill Weeds Before They Spread
Weeds may be the first to start growing when the weather begins to warm. Address them promptly by manually pulling them or applying an herbicide.

Overseed The Lawn
Chances are there are some bare spots that have formed over the winter. Overseeding can help to fill in the lawn. Make sure that frosts are largely a thing of the past and soil temperature is around 50 F to 60 F before seeding. Water daily until grass fills in.

Apply Nutrients
Fertilizer and compost can restore nutrients to the lawn that may have been used up over winter. A soil test at a nearby horticultural center can tell you which nutrients are needed, according to the Chemistry Cachet, a guide to using chemistry secrets for healthy living, beauty, cleaning, and gardening.

Lawns can be restored to their pre-winter glory after some sweat equity and about five to six weeks of consistent sunshine and warm weather.

Lawn Care – Remove any debris from the lawn after snow thaws to see what you're working with.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI
Copyright© John A. Lehti, Distributor Linage-Plus, Middletown, NY NATIONAL REPRESENTATIVE: Dail Advertising Services, P.O. Box 10278, Goldsboro, NC 27532

WHEN THE ISRAELITES FIRST ASKED FOR A KING TO LEAD THEM AGAINST THEIR ENEMIES, SAMUEL, THE PROPHET, WHO WAS THE LAST OF A LONG LINE OF JUDGES, (SPIRITUAL LEADERS OF THE TRIBES) CAUTIONED THE PEOPLE (CIRCA B.C.1000) HE EXPLAINED TO THEM ALL THE LIBERTIES, WHICH THEY ENJOYED, THAT THEY WOULD BE GIVING UP—ONCE THEY HAD A KING!
(1 SAMUEL 8:10-19)

AND NEVER DID A PROPHET PREDICT MORE TRULY! FOR IN THE FIVE HUNDRED YEARS THAT KINGS RULED OVER ISRAEL NEVER WERE THE PEOPLE FREE FROM BONDAGE. EACH MAN HAD TO WORK ONE MONTH OUT OF A YEAR FOR THE KING, TEN PERCENT OF ALL HIS CROPS AND CATTLE WENT TO THE THRONE, HIS BEST LANDS INVARIABLY WERE USED BY THE KING, HIS HEALTHIEST CHILDREN PUT TO WORK IN THE PALACES, AND EVEN WHEN HE WENT TO PRAY IN THE TEMPLE HE WAS TAXED! EVERYTHING SAMUEL HAD PREDICTED CAME TO HAPPEN!

Even Exchange

by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an I, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Points Of View

Rose Votes No On Impeachment

U.S. Representative John Rose (TN-6) voted against impeachment Wednesday.

“Some votes are difficult or a close call. This was not one of those votes,” said Rep. Rose. “At home, many Tennesseans are anxiously awaiting the COVID-19 vaccination, they are eager to get their businesses running at full speed, and above all, they are ready to get back to life before this virus.”

“Throughout the first 231 years of the republic, impeachment has been rare; I fear it will now be rare that a president is not impeached,” Rose said. “The impeachment was approved without investigation, hearings, presentation of evidence or deliberation.”

“Despite the fact that today’s impeachment cannot possibly result in the president’s expulsion by the Senate before he leaves office and despite the fact that the president has repeatedly committed to a peaceful transition of power, Democrat leaders still pursued this politically motivated, fundamentally flawed, and abusive exercise in futility,” said Rose.

“Tennesseans are sick and tired of this nonsense,” said Rose. “I refuse to fall into the tone-deaf Washington routine of giving priority to political games that fan the flames of division over working to restore the American people’s faith in our institutions and addressing the real issues affecting our nation.”

U.S. Representative John Rose is currently serving his second term representing Tennessee’s Sixth Congressional District and resides in Cookeville with his wife, Chelsea, and their son, Guy. The Sixth District includes Cannon, Clay, Coffee, Cumberland, DeKalb, Fentress, Jackson, Macon, Overton, Pickett, Putnam, Robertson, Smith, Sumner, Trousdale, White, and Wilson counties as well as portions of Cheatham and Van Buren counties. Representative Rose is an eighth-generation farmer, small business owner, and currently serves on the Financial Services Committee.

Hagerty Brings Permanent Senate Office To Cookeville

United States Senator Bill Hagerty (R-TN) has opened an office in Cookeville, marking the first time in the state’s history that the region will have a permanent Senate office and staff to assist citizens.

“Ensuring that those who live in the Upper Cumberland region have a U.S. Senate office on a permanent basis was a top priority of mine as I took office,” said Hagerty. “This region, which has its own distinct personality, needs, and opportunities will now have dedicated staff members from my office to assist them with constituent services – not just in Cookeville but across this beautiful area of our state.”

“Establishing the first ever U.S. Senate office in the Upper Cumberland shows how committed Senator Hagerty is to serving every Tennessean,” said Putnam County Mayor Randy Porter. “Having an office in Putnam County can only benefit our community as we continue to grow.”

Hagerty has appointed the following to his Cookeville office:

Tanner Cox will serve as a Field Representative. He was most recently Campaign Manager for Congressman John Rose’s campaign. Previously, he was a Regional Field Director for Hagerty. He is a graduate of Tennessee Tech University. Cox is originally from Fentress County and lives in Cookeville.

Bonny Warren will serve as a Constituent Services Representative. Warren has 10 years of constituent service experience with the U.S. House of Representatives. Having previously worked in Tennessee state government, Warren has a background serving constituents. Warren lives in Cookeville with her husband and enjoys her large family.

The Blue Devils basketball teams of Jackson County High School (JCHS) took the court to face Trousdale County, on Friday, Jan 15.

The Lady Blue Devils beat the Lady Yellow Jackets 57-49. Leading in score for the lady Blue Devils was Riley Thomas with 17.

Scoring for the girls against Van Buren County were: Ericka Davidson with two, Niki Ragland with nine, Jacklyn Agee with nine, Lilly Chaffin with 14, Emma Chaffin with three, Emma Crockett with one, and Emma Stepp with two.

“It was good to get a district win on the road. Riley Thomas and Nikki Ragland had a good first half shooting the ball and helped give us the lead. We had to endure some adversity in the second half with Ericka Davidson getting injured and Nikki Ragland fouling out. We did just enough with a young team in the floor to hang on for the win,” Coach Jim Brown said.

The JCHS Blue Devils lost to the Trousdale County Yellow Jackets

58-46. Leading in score for the Blue Devils was Ramon Cuevas with 18 points.

Scoring for the boys against Trousdale County were: Jordan Arroyo with seven, Eli Burris with 12 and Chris Pigg with nine.

“A tale of two halves for us tonight. First half we made some shots but turned the ball over some that could have made a difference in the score. We were up 26-19 but should have scored probably 10 more points. Second half we didn’t make but five goals for the entire half and turned the ball way to much, which led to them outscored us 39 to 20,” Coach Kevin Thomas said.

Following the game against Trousdale County was a game against Clarkrange on Saturday, Jan. 16.

The Lady Blue Devils lost to the Lady Buffaloes 78-40. Leading in score for the Lady Blue Devils was Jacklyn Agee with eight points.

Scoring for the girls against Clarkrange were: Riley Thomas with five, Rachel Harris with six, Rebecca Harris with two, Lilly Chaffin with four, Emma Chaffin with five, Emma Crockett with two,

Erin Davidson with three and Emma Stepp with five.

“Clarkrange just overpowered us. We had a hard time with their pressure. I thought it was good for some of our younger players to get in the game and get some playing time. Hopefully, we learned something from it that will make us better,” Coach Brown said.

The JCHS Blue Devils won against the Buffaloes 68-58. Leading in score for the Blue Devils was Ramon Cuevas and Eli Burris with 18 points.

Scoring for the boys against Clarkrange was:

Hayden Stacy with seven, Jordan Arroyo with six, Chris Pigg with 10, Kendrick Brown with four, Drew Clinard with four and Braden Jones with one.

“It was great to get a win on a Saturday afternoon. The boys played hard today. We had some guys come off the bench today and score the basketball. That really helped us offensively,” Coach Thomas said.

The Blue Devils will take the court again Tuesday, Jan. 19 against Gordonsville, Friday, Jan 22 against Clarkrange.

Game times are 6 p.m.

Bank Offers Time and Temperature

Paul Birdwell, president of Jackson County Bank announced that effective immediately a new Time 'n Temperature service is available to telephone subscribers throughout the area. "By simply dialing 268-0271," he said, "the correct time and temperature will be given within seconds and, of course, without charge."

This new community service is being provided by Jackson Bank as part of its policy to continually add to its list of services to the area.

Farm Program Explained at County Meetings

"Due to the new farm programs passed by Congress, the Secretary of Agriculture is of the opinion that all people who are connected with farming should be given all information available," announced Louis F. Parker, CED, Jackson County ASCS Committee. "This same thinking is shared by all who help administer these programs from Washington through the county level," Parker continued.

"The County Committee has scheduled a series of five meetings to be held in the county as follows: Monday, January 18, at 6:30 p.m. at Whitcher's Store in the Gladdice community; Thursday, January 21, at 6:30 p.m. at Granville School; Monday, January 25, at 6:30 p.m. at North Springs School; and Thursday, January 28, at 6:30 p.m. at the Jackson County Courthouse in Gainesboro.

Mail Users To Pay

Higher PO Rates in 1971

Business and industry mail users are bracing themselves for the first round of anticipated rate increases by the newly established U.S. Postal Service.

The recent appointment of the new rate-making commission and the nine-man board of governors, which will review the former's decisions, set the stage for the expected upward rate adjustments. However, Capitol Hill observers generally feel it will be early 1971 before any postal rate boosts become effective because of the time involved in the new rate-setting process.

Gainesboro Cagers Down Hermitage Springs

On Saturday night, the 9th day of the New Year, the Wildcats from Hermitage Springs traveled to Gainesboro to suffer a hard-to-take defeat.

From the first, everyone knew it was going to be one of your more exciting games.

At one time the Big Blue was down by 12 points with five minutes left in the game, but this small margin didn't stop the dynamic Devils. They were on the move and shortly closed the gap.
