Unemployment Numbers Increase

The latest jobless numbers show unemployment increased in each of Tennessee's counties during December 2020, according to new data released by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development (TDLWD).

There were six counties with an unemployment rate of less than 5% in December, 88 counties had rates greater than or equal to 5%, and one county had a rate higher than 10%.

Williamson County recorded December's lowest unemployment rate among Tennessee's 95 counties. The rate did increase 0.9 of a percentage point during the month to 4.2%. One year ago, Williamson County's jobless rate was 2.1%.

Lake County had the state's highest unemployment rate for the month. At 10.6%, the county's rate increased by 2.5 percentage points in December. The new rate is 5.5 percentage points higher than it was in December 2019.

In the Upper Cumberland Region, Clay County has the highest jobless rate at 8.2%, a 2.1 percentage point increase from the previous month.

Jackson County's jobless number also increase by 2.1 percentage points, bringing the rate to 7.5%.

Overton County, with the lowest rate in the region, also increased by 1.4 percentage points, bringing the number to 5.6%.

Statewide, unemployment increased in December. The preliminary, seasonally adjusted rate for December came in at 6.4%, an increase of 1.2 percentage points from November's revised rate of 5.2%.

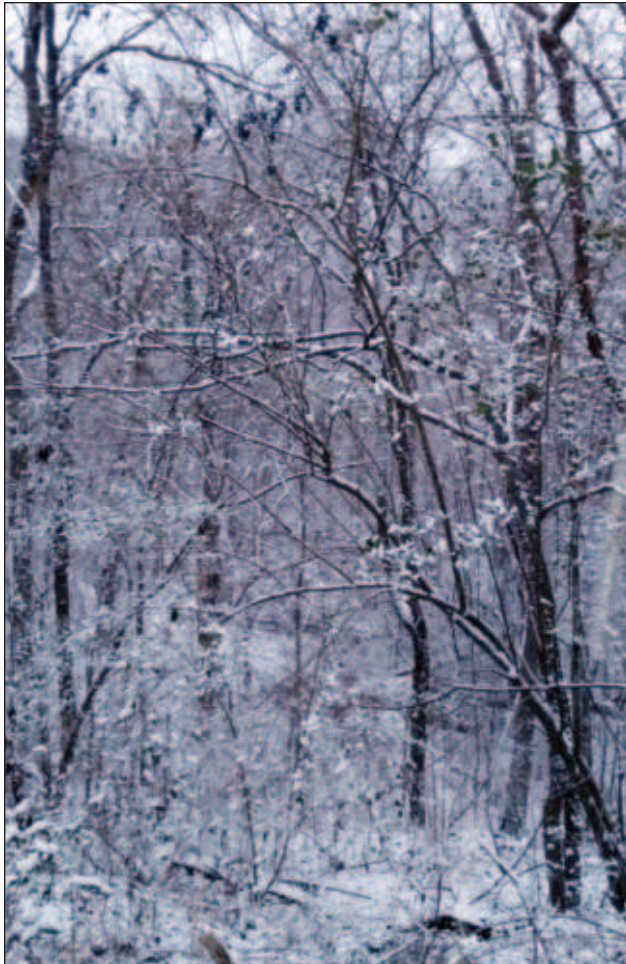

Nationally, unemployment held steady between November and December at 6.7%.

Tennessee employers are searching for employees to keep their businesses moving forward as the state's economy continues to rebound. There are currently more than 230,000 open positions posted on the state's workforce development website, Jobs4TN.gov.

TDLWD also offers the Tennessee Virtual American Job Center (VAJC). The new website located at www.TNVirtualAJC.com allows Tennesseans to research different programs, from different state agencies, that can help them remove barriers to employment so they can move back into the workforce.

The state of Tennessee will release the statewide unemployment rate for January 2021 on March 11 at 1:30 p.m.

Teachers Will Receive One-Time Bonus

MEGAN REAGAN
Editor

The Jackson County Board of Education met in regular session last Thursday and discussed a one-time bonus for teachers.

Director of Schools Kristy Brown said it was necessary to give something to teachers after last year's raise was cut from the state budget.

Although there was legislation passed recently that would possibly give teachers a 2% raise, Brown stated she did not feel as though it was significant enough.

"It's not looking like 2% for sure," Brown said. "I'm glad they were able to do something. Although, I don't think it's near significant enough."

A proposal was made for a $500 one-time bonus for the educational staff, which would be paid out through reimbursed funds.

The vote passed unanimously at Thursday's meeting.

In other business, the board approved an extension of the benefits that were provided in the Families First Coronavirus Relief Act (FFCRA).

The FFCRA requires certain employers to provide their employees with paid sick leave or expanded family and medical leave for specified reasons related to COVID-19.

It originally expired Dec. 31.

The board also approved a bid on two steamers for the cafeteria.

Fundraisers for the Jackson County Middle School Softball team were also approved.

The approved fundraisers include a Sky High Sports Event and Easter Pictures.

With no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned.

Poll Workers To Receive Hazard Pay

MEGAN REAGAN
Editor

Jackson County Commissioners met in a regularly scheduled meeting last Monday and informed that a canopy is now up at the Jackson County Health Department.

County Mayor Randy Heady informed the commission that the canopy is now in place at the Jackson County Health Department, which will allow those administering tests and vaccines to keep them out of the elements.

"One thing we have learned from the pandemic is that there is more than one way to administer tests and vaccines," Heady said. "I'd say that is one of the things that they have done that will stay here with us."

According to Heady, it is a 24x41 drive-thru canopy that was paid for out of the General Purpose fund in the amount of $6,175.

Jackson County Election Administrator Clay Thaxton informed that an amendment needed to be made to his budget because of money received through grant funding.

"We got COVID money again and I wasn't sure what I could use the money for and not use the money for," Thaxton said. "So we just set up a budget line of estimates of what we could use it for; however, I later found out I could use it as hazard pay for my poll workers."

He went on to explain that it also could have been used for personal protective equipment; however, the state supplied the Elections Office with more than enough equipment—making it unnecessary to purchase.

The money from the grant funds is being reallocated to the salary line to pay for hazard pay for the office's poll workers.

The commission also voted to replace an air conditioning unit in the Sheriff's Department office in the amount of $6,100.

In unrelated business, one commissioner raised a concern about lost revenue from law enforcement due to COVID-19, ultimately asking if relief funding would be provided to the agencies who have lost revenue due to limited numbers of inmates.

County Commissioners also approved a series of quarterly reports including: Highway Department, Jackson County Sheriff's Department, Ambulance Services, Mayor's Office and the Jackson County School Board.

"The jail revenue is down, but the good news is that we have other revenues that are up that will cover that," Heady said. "Anything involving the court system, the truth of the matter is that those revenues are down. It doesn't matter if it's fines, forfeitures or state inmates. Those numbers and revenues are down, and that is across the whole state."

Heady explained that it is still unclear if the lost revenue will affect next year's budget at this time.

With no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned.

The Jackson County Commission will meet again Monday, Feb. 22 at 5 p.m.

All members were present for the meeting.

TDOE & T-Mobile To Provide Districts Access

Last week, the Tennessee Department of Education announced a new five-year partnership, T-Mobile Tech for TN Students, to provide school districts across the state with access to over 200,000 student connectivity devices, or mobile Wi-Fi hotspot device, to provide directly to families at no cost to them.

Through T-Mobile's nationwide initiative, Project 10Million, the department will provide participating districts access to student connectivity devices to provide mobile Wi-Fi to households across Tennessee, with more than 40,000 devices available this year. Districts have three tiers of service to choose from, with 100GB of data per device per year available for free.

"As our school districts have navigated through a global health pandemic over the past year, we know access to technology and the internet remains an issue for many students," said Commissioner Penny Schwinn. "We are grateful that T-Mobile launched this nationwide initiative and that we are able to partner to open opportunities for districts to secure free Wi-Fi hotspots for their students and their families to use at home."

Each year over the next five years, more than 40,000 additional devices from T-Mobile will become available statewide and will be distributed directly to districts by T-Mobile according to economic factors including amount of Title I schools, distressed county designations and National School Lunch Program eligibility rates. Districts interested in participating will complete an online application and contract, and student connectivity devices are CIPA (Children's Internet Protection Act) compliant.

Through this partnership, districts that choose to participate have three tiers of service to support virtual instruction and the needs of their families:

Free: Allows for up to 100GB per year per device

$12 per month: Allows for 100GB per month per device

$15 per month: Allows for unlimited data per device

"Over the past several months, COVID-19 has presented significant challenges for families across the state, especially in rural areas where access to quality internet services is lacking. We are grateful to the department for providing access to these critical Wi-Fi devices so our students can continue to learn at home when virtual school is necessary," said Dr. Versie Hamlett, Director of Fayette County Schools. "This program will allow us to bridge the connectivity gap and continue providing essential services to our students."

Additional information on T-Mobile Tech for TN Students, including the online application, FAQ, and more, can be found online.

"Access to the internet means access to opportunity and T-Mobile believes every single child is deserving of that access," said Mike Katz, executive vice president of T-Mobile for Business.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the department has provided multiple districts with additional resources and funding related to technology, including $50 million in device funding grants and $15 million for districts to pursue connectivity options for students.

Project 10Million is a nationwide initiative from T-Mobile with the goal of offering free internet access and mobile hotspots to 10 million eligible households. Learn more about the initiative online.

DIY Vehicle Maintenance Tasks You Need To Know

During the global COVID-19 pandemic, many people looked for ways to save money. One way to live a frugal life is to take on more projects. In addition to lawn and garden upkeep and minor home improvements, a number of people may be able to tackle some auto repair and maintenance jobs themselves. Performing routine vehicle maintenance tasks on one's own is an ideal way to reduce automotive expenditures. The following are several vehicle maintenance jobs skilled DIYers may be able to handle on their own.

Replace The Air Filter

An air filter should be changed annually or more frequently if you reside in a dry, dusty climate. A clogged filter can stress the vehicle's air conditioning system and reduce heat capacity in the winter. Check the location of the air filter in the owner's manual; pay attention to how it is placed before removing. Then replace it with a clean filter that can be purchased for around $15.

Replace The Wiper Blades

When wiper blades are worn out, visibility in rainy or snowy weather is reduced. Choose a quality wiper blade, as they usually are made with high-quality rubber, clean better and have more UV protection than manufacturer-provided blades. Follow the installation instructions on the package, and be sure to refer to the particular manufacturer's buying guide to get the right size for your make and model of vehicle.

Replace Spark Plugs

The money management site Money Crashers says spark plugs need to be replaced after around 30,000 miles or as indicated by your owner's manual. Vehicles will have four, six or eight plugs, depending on how many cylinders the car has. The plugs need to be changed in a certain order, so only remove the first wire and spark plug. Remove and replace plugs one by one with a spark plug socket, wrench or ratchet.

Change The Oil And Oil Filter

Because changing the oil in a vehicle requires jacking up the car or truck and getting a little dirty, some people prefer to leave it to an oil change center. However, at an estimated cost of $20 versus nearly double or more what you'll spend elsewhere, it can save money to do it yourself. Never change the oil while the engine is hot. And remember to lubricate the rubber gasket on the new oil filter and allocate enough oil to fill the filter with about 2/3 of new oil in addition to what is put in the engine.

Replace Headlight Bulbs

Replacing headlight bulbs is a fairly easy project and will only take around 10 minutes to do after you purchase the right bulbs for your vehicle. Each vehicle is different, but many bulbs are housed inside of a bulb holder, which is shaped like a trapezoid with three wires coming out of it, advises U.S. News & World Report.

Remove the old bulb and put in the new. Plug the wires back in and test to see if the headlight works.

The above automotive tasks are just some that people can try themselves to save time and money.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

Copyright © John A. Lehti, Distributor Linage-Plus, Middletown, NY
AND AGAIN I SAY UNTO YOU, IT IS EASIER FOR A CAMEL TO GO THROUGH THE EYE OF A NEEDLE, THAN FOR A RICH MAN TO ENTER INTO THE KINGDOM OF GOD. MATT. 19:24

ROPE OR CAMEL—WHICH DID JESUS REALLY SAY ?

IF YOU HEARD SOMEBODY SAY, "I TORE A LEAF..." YOU COULDN'T BE TOO SURE WHAT WAS MEANT UNTIL THEY FINISHED THE SENTENCE. "I TORE A LEAF...OFF THE TREE!" NOW YOU'D KNOW WHAT WAS MEANT! "I TORE A LEAF...OUT OF THE BOOK!" AGAIN YOU'D KNOW EXACTLY WHAT WAS MEANT—THE SAME WORD BUT WITH TWO ENTIRELY DIFFERENT MEANINGS: ONE, THE FOLIAGE THAT GROWS ON A TREE; TWO, A PIECE OF PAPER THAT'S BOUND IN A BOOK.

IN JUST THE SAME MANNER DOES THE ARAMAIC WORD "GAMLA" MEAN CAMEL ; OR A ROPE; OR A BEAM. WHEN JESUS, SPEAKING IN THE ONLY LANGUAGE HE KNEW, ARAMAIC, SAID, "DADLIL (GAMLA) LMEAL BAKHRORA DANGATA AU ATIRA DNEAOL (LMACOOOHA DALAHA)" HE ACTUALLY SAID "IT IS EASIER FOR A ROPE TO GO THROUGH THE EYE OF A NEEDLE THAN FOR A RICH MAN TO ENTER INTO THE KINGDOM OF GOD." IN FACT, HE WAS ONLY USING A VERY POPULAR EXPRESSION OF THE DAY. EASTERN WOMEN, WHEN SHOPPING FOR THREAD WOULD OFTEN SAY, IF THE THREAD WAS TOO THICK, "IT IS A ROPE, IT WILL NOT GO THROUGH THE EYE OF MY NEEDLE!"

BUT WHEN THE EARLY GREEKS TRANSLATED THE NEW TESTAMENT BOOKS FROM ARAMAIC INTO GREEK, THEY DIDN'T REALIZE THAT, IN ARAMAIC CUSTOM, NEEDLE AND ROPE HAD ANY CONNECTION. ONE OF THEM, OBVIOUSLY, DID KNOW THAT "GAMLA" MEANT CAMEL AND SO TRANSLATED IT THAT WAY — AND, FROM THAT DAY ON, THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS OF PRIESTS, MINISTERS, AND PREACHERS HAVE MISQUOTED JESUS WITHOUT KNOWING THEY WERE DOING SO! THIS DISCREPANCY WAS FINALLY BROUGHT TO LIGHT IN THE 1920'S, IN A SERIES OF LECTURES BY PROF. GEORGE M. LAMSA, EMINENT ETHNOLOGIST AND ARAMAIC LANGUAGE EXPERT — WHICH HAPPENED TO BE HIS OWN MOTHER-TONGUE!

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an L, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

Points Of View

Dear Editor...

Tennessee is trending downward in case reporting because the rate of testing is not keeping pace with the growth of cases. Death rates are rising faster than cases being reported.

Both hospital admissions and coronavirus testing capabilities have reached capacity.

The virus continues to spread.

Deaths to hospitalizations are higher in rural than metro regions.

This can be demonstrated by comparing death to hospitalization ratio statewide, which is now 1:1 to rural Upper Cumberland, which two deaths for each hospitalization per week.

All-cause death rates and out-of-hospital deaths will continue to rise as long as hospital staffing and facilities are at capacity.

The per capita case rate maps and hospital admission rates are no longer reflecting the actual spread because both metrics have reached capacity.

The death to hospitalization ratio will continue to rise and will be propelled further by the more contagious mutants which are now circulating.

I predict that when death rates get high enough, public health advocates and government leaders will mandate that patrons use the same precautions in their grocery store as physicians do in our operating rooms and clinics to protect against spreading of disease to others.

Sarge The Landlord

by Freddy Groves

I poked my head in the coffee shop door, got waved in out of the cold and found the veterans busy at their assigned tasks. One was selling coffee at the carry-out window. One was brewing up a fresh pot. Somebody was banging around in the kitchen. One was sweeping the floor. The rest were arrayed around the room in their lawn chairs, lifting their feet as the broom came by.

Sarge got up from his spot at the counter, cocked a finger at me and led the way around the corner to a dark, narrow staircase. “You’re the only one of the bunch who can climb these,” he said.

At the top of the stairs was ... nothing. Just a large attic space.

“I’ve decided,” he said, flipping on a light, “to turn this into a dormitory for six. What do you think?”

I paced off the space.

“Depends who’s going to live here,” I said.

He looked surprised that I didn’t know. “Well, homeless veterans,” he replied. “There’s a good half dozen in town who avoid government like the plague. They could live up here once it’s finished off, stay warm, if we can keep off the town’s radar.”

I asked a bunch of questions, and clearly Sarge had thought it through.

“They avoid the shelter because they get kicked out at seven in the morning, druggies steal their belongings and start fights. Here they could hang out, fix meals downstairs. Maybe get a couple of them started on jobs around town. They’d sign a lease with me, pay rent, 10 dollars a week, no excuses. No drugs, no women. I’d put in a computer and internet. What do you think?”

I paced off the space again, imagining a completed room.

“What I think,” I replied, “is that this is the best idea I’ve heard in a long, long time.”

Cookeville To Host The 2021 U.S. Kayak Open

Cookeville-Putnam County Visitors' Bureau joined the United States Angling Confederation today to announce their hosting of the 2021 U.S. Kayak Open and the 2022 FIPs Kayak Fishing World Championship.

The U.S. Kayak Open is set for Sept. 9-12, 2021 on Center Hill Lake and area rivers. The event is expected to welcome 150 to 250 attendees along with fans and families. The inaugural world championship competition is scheduled to take place in May 2022 with 100 to 150 anglers accompanied by fans and families for six days of activities.

Cookeville is no stranger to making history in the kayak fishing arena, having successfully hosted the first Pan-American Kayak Bass Championship welcoming some of the world's most elite anglers in 1919.

In recent years, this popular fishing destination has also hosted multiple internationally televised fishing shows on the Outdoor and Sportsman Channels and the World Fishing Network, e.g., Major League Fishing GEICO Select Series, Fishing University, and Kayak Bassin' TV.

"The southern charm of Cookeville and the surrounding area will welcome all attendees and provide many cherished memories," said John Knight, USAC International Organizer. "Based on the location, hospitality, and overall amenities offered, the United States Angling Confederation expects to make the event the best yet in terms of fishing success, guest experience, and the number of event attendees."

"This is a tremendous win for Tennessee, and Cookeville has proven itself a world-class travel destination, especially among fishing and outdoor enthusiasts," said Commissioner Mark Ezell, Tennessee Department of Tourist Development. "During such a challenging time for our industry, what better event to recruit than one that offers solitude and social distancing while showcasing Tennessee's incredible natural resources, including the lakes, rivers and streams."

"Cookeville and Center Hill Lake were a clear choice," said Tony Forte, U.S. Angling founder and USA Bass/USA Kayak Fishing president. "Kayak fishing has exploded worldwide, and Cookeville set the standard for us when hosting the Pan-Am in 2019."

Participants are expected to arrive early for pre-fishing various area waters, e.g., Center Hill, Cordell Hull, Dale Hollow Lake, Caney Fork, Cumberland, Falling Water, and Calfkiller Rivers. Following the competition, they are also anticipated to stay and explore more local attractions, waterfalls, downtown life, etc.

"We have been working since August to recruit this big win for our community," said Molly Brown, executive director for the Cookeville-Putnam County Visitors' Bureau. "As we prepared the official bid-proposal in October, we were optimistic, given our natural resources, past hosting success, and industry partnerships."

The visitors' bureau will look to leverage local, state, and regional partnerships with outdoor enthusiasts, businesses, and industries. The bureau will be working with event organizers, area hospitality partners, as well as the Tennessee Department of Tourist Development, Tennessee Wildlife Resource Agency, and Army Corps of Engineers to ensure these national and international events are executed successfully.

Other destinations considered for hosting privileges included Knoxville, TN and Branson, MO.

For more information about sponsorships or other involvement in these events, inquiries may be directed to: info@visitcookevilletn.com.

U.S. Kayak Open – The U.S. Kayak Open is set for Sept. 9-12, on Center Hill Lake and area rivers.

Program Helps Communities Bounce Back From Pandemic

The Tennessee Department of Human Services (TDHS) is providing another resource to help communities bounce back from the pandemic with the launch of this year's Summer Food Service Program (SFSP). The goal of the Summer Food Service Program is to ensure children 18 and younger, who benefit from meal programs at school, continue to have that same access to nutritious meals outside of school.

Each year TDHS partners with sponsors across the state to provide these meals. The program traditionally runs from the end of May to August when the next school semester begins. This year sponsors will be able to begin serving meals as soon as they're approved, and they'll have the flexibility to provide "grab and go" meals to children along with meal bags containing more than one day's worth of food through the end of June.

"We have forged strong working relationships with our Summer Food Service Program sponsors over the years and those relationships have been even more important during the COVID-19 pandemic," said TDHS Commissioner Clarence H. Carter. "This program provides supports to strengthen families and grow their capacity to bounce back from the challenges of the last year."

This need is especially important in rural counties in Tennessee and those designated as distressed. TDHS is hoping to recruit sponsors willing to serve those counties and additional sponsors for every county in the state to help their communities during this time.

In addition to children of school age, adults 19 and older with a mental or physical disability are eligible to receive free meals if they participate in a school program established for individuals with disabilities during the prior school year.

Applications will be accepted until May 1, 2021. If your organization is interested in becoming a SFSP sponsor or becoming a feeding site under an existing sponsor, please contact the TDHS by e-mail at TNSFSP.DHS@tn.gov. For more information on the Summer Food Service Program, please visit the TDHS website.

In accordance with Tennessee and Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
