IRS Warns Taxpayers About Child Tax Credit Scams

The Internal Revenue Service Criminal Investigation Division is warning taxpayers about Child Tax Credit-related scams, which criminals may use to steal money and personal information.

While millions of American families started receiving the advance Child Tax Credit payments last week, criminals were already looking for innovative tactics to take advantage of unwitting victims. Taxpayers should be on the lookout for a variety of phone, e-mail, text message and social media scams targeting families eligible for the credit. Any communication offering assistance to sign up for the Child Tax Credit or to speed up the monthly payments is likely a scam. When receiving unsolicited calls or messages, taxpayers should not provide personal information, click on links, or open attachments as this may lead to money loss, tax-related fraud, and identity theft.

IRS Criminal Investigation's Acting Special Agent in Charge Mona Passmore of the Charlotte Field Office said "it is true there are criminals already looking for innovative tactics to scam hard-working American parents deserving of this child tax credit but rest assured our special agents will be working diligently to gather the evidence necessary to recommend those criminals be prosecuted".

Although scammers constantly come up with new schemes to try and catch taxpayers off-guard, there are simple ways to identify if it is truly the IRS reaching out.

The IRS does not initiate contact with taxpayers via e-mail, text messages, or social media channels to request personal or financial information, even information related to the Child Tax Credit.

The IRS does not leave pre-recorded, urgent, or threatening messages. Aggressive calls warning taxpayers about a lawsuit or arrest are fake.

The IRS will not call taxpayers asking them to provide or verify financial information so they can obtain the monthly Child Tax Credit payments.

The IRS will not ask for payment via a gift card, wire transfer or cryptocurrency.

If you are eligible for advance payments of the Child Tax Credit, the IRS will use information from your 2020 or 2019 tax return to automatically enroll you for advance payments. Taxpayers do not have to take any additional action. Taxpayers who are not required to file a tax return or who have not provided the IRS their information, may visit IRS.gov/childtaxcredit2021 to provide basic information for the Child Tax Credit.

Jackson County 'Women On Target' Announces First Class

The new Jackson County Women on Target service organization is proud to announce the first in a series of gun safety and expertise classes aimed to assist women.

With the advent of open carry laws in Tennessee, it becomes essential that more training become available to the general public for side-arm safety and precision, as well as self-defense in public environments. As a new group, wish to focus on the women of Jackson County who wish to carry pistols and do so in a safe, accurate and self-assured manner.

As an opening class for a series of learning opportunities, as an organization we are pleased to offer an "active shooter situation" class taught by Major Billy Pierce with the Cookeville office of the Tennessee Highway Patrol. The class will be completely free and will last from two to four hours, depending on the attendees' interaction, questions and desire to learn. The class will cover what to do if you are in a public environment and someone begins randomly shooting. This will help you understand what to do, where to go, how to stay safe (you and any children you may have with you), as well as what not to do.

Class begins at 10 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall (back door) of New Hope Baptist Church on Saturday, July 31. A light lunch will be served. While the class is free, reservations are strongly advised so that adequate lunches may be prepared. Also there will be a cut off due to seating capacity.

For reservations, please call Linda at 678-4752. If no answer, leave message including your name, telephone number and number of people you are reserving for.

Adult women only, no children please. Reservations will be accepted until 7 p.m. on Thursday, July 29. Those attending will be invited to a target practice and gun safety class at a later date. This class will also have the assistance of Tennessee Highway Patrol firearms instructors and will also be free.

Closing For Scheduled Maintenance

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Nashville District announced last week Dale Hollow Dam Road at the dam in Celina would close to all traffic Wednesday, July 21, while personnel perform scheduled maintenance on the unit head gates. Due to the extensive nature of this work, there is no scheduled date for re-opening the roadway; however, the work is expected to take more than a month to complete.

Pedestrians and bicycle traffic are also not allowed across the dam. The closure provides for the safety of employees while making room for the equipment utilized during the maintenance.

The road is barricaded at the intersection of Walker Ridge Road and Will Terry Road near the south end of the dam. A barricade is set up at the Dale Hollow Dam Road/cut through road intersection at the north end of the dam.

Concerns or questions about the road closure can be addressed to the Dale Hollow Dam Powerhouse Office at (931) 243-3135.

Joint Government Operations Committee Chairmen Release Statement On Department Of Health

After the Department returned to answer questions from committee on parental consent for COVID-19 vaccines

Joint Government Operations Committee Chairmen Kerry Roberts (R-Springfield) and John Ragan (R-Oak Ridge) made an announcement last Wednesday in the Rule Review Committee concerning the Department of Health. The announcement is pursuant to the Joint Committee's action at its June 16, 2021 meeting to invite the Department to return to the next committee meeting on July 21, 2021 to address further questions and concerns regarding the administration of COVID-19 vaccines to minors without parental consent.

In the remarks read by Chairman Kerry Roberts he reiterated the main two concerns of some committee members were that the COVID-19 vaccine, was being marketed to minors and administered without parental consent.

"We have not discouraged Tennesseans from being vaccinated nor have we discouraged Tennesseans from having their children vaccinated," Roberts continued. "Further, it has been widely misrepresented that all children's vaccines have come to a halt. To be absolutely clear, Tennessee's efforts on childhood vaccinations are unchanged. The only exception is administering a COVID-19 vaccination without parental consent."

Roberts said that interpreting the concerns of marketing COVID-19 vaccines to children without parental consent as being an anti-vaccine stance is intellectually dishonest and wrong.

"To be clear, the Tennessee Department of Health was not asked to stop vacinating children nor have they stopped vaccinating children for COVID-19 or any other disease," Roberts clarified. "Rather, they were asked to stop vaccinating children for COVID-19 without parental consent and stop marketing to minors."

After the committee meeting on June 16, 2021, Chairman Roberts and Chairman Ragan met with Commissioner Piercey and a member of the Governor's staff.

"During that meeting, Dr. Piercey and the governor's office confirmed that it is not the policy of Tennessee Department of Health, Tennessee Department of Education, or our 89 county health departments to administer the COVID-19 vaccine to children without parental consent," said Roberts. "She further detailed the steps taken to stop any marketing directed at minors."

The full statement of Chairman Kerry Roberts is below:

The Committee for Government Operations legislatively creates, renews, and oversees the 262 entities that comprise Tennessee state government. The Committee also approves rules promulgated by any of the entities with rule-making authority.

The entities include departments (e.g. the departments of health, education, and transportation), commissions, boards, agencies, and councils. The entities also include the University of Tennessee, Tennessee Tech, University of Memphis, and our other state universities.

The Department of Health was created by the General Assembly on behalf of Tennesseans. The Government Operations committee functions like a board of directors while the executive branch, under the leadership of the governor's appointed commissioner, manages the Department. It is not uncommon for a commissioner to appear before the Government Operations committee to answer questions or address issues that are of concern to the committee.

At the June meeting of the Joint Committee for Government Operations, Chairman John Ragan and I, along with other committee members, expressed two concerns to Commissioner Lisa Piercey: administering the Covid-19 vaccine - which the FDA considers an unapproved product under emergency use authorization - without parental consent and marketing to minors instead of to parents.

Although committee members expressed additional concerns, the primary focus was on Covid19 vaccination without parental consent and marketing directly to minors.

Near the conclusion of a rather robust discussion, Rep. Scott Cepicky made a motion to invite the Tennessee Department of Health to the July meeting. The Tennessee Department of Health is represented here today.

After June's meeting, Commissioner Lisa Piercey informed Chairman Ragan and myself of a preexisting conflict and asked to appear at the August meeting.

Before agreeing to a deferral, Chairman Ragan and I requested a meeting with Dr. Piercey and a representative of the governor's office.

During that meeting, Dr. Piercey and the governor's office confirmed that it is not the policy of Tennessee Department of Health, Tennessee Department of Education, or our 89 county health departments to administer the Covid-19 vaccine to children without parental consent. She further detailed the steps taken to stop any marketing directed at minors.

To be clear, the Tennessee Department of Health was not asked to stop vaccinating children nor have they stopped vaccinating children for Covid-19 or any other disease. Rather, they were asked to stop vaccinating children for Covid-19 WITHOUT PARENTAL CONSENT and stop marketing to minors.

At this point, our unified position is no state-related entity should be administering the Covid 19 vaccine (which the FDA considers an unapproved product under emergency use authorization) without parental consent or marketing to minors.

Tennessee is blessed with thousands of dedicated state employees working in our county health departments, local education associations, and universities. Although we, in partnership with Dr. Piercey and the Governor's office, are making it abundantly clear that

by Freddy Groves

The Office of Inspector General for the Department of Veterans Affairs has been busy. Despite COVID, the OIG managed to keep working, and it has checked in with its congressionally required six-month report. The eye automatically zips to the bottom line: The dollar impact from its efforts during the past six months amounts to $1,923,417,054.

You don't need to count the commas; that's 1.9 billion dollars it identified in one way or another. For every dollar in the OIG budget, it got back $21 in return.

During the six months, the OIG made 109 arrests, issued 652 administrative sanctions, put out 124 publications, talked to 14,129 hotline contacts and made 389 recommendations to the VA.

The biggest category in that $1.9 billion is "Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Restitution and Civil Judgments," which brought in a cool $755 million.

The OIG put out some excellent reports during that time as well. Here are two:

The VBA (Veterans Benefits Admin) didn't test the skills of claims processors from 2016 to 2019, even though it's a congressionally mandated requirement. Not only did the VBA not provide additional training to many of those who failed the tests, it didn't even bother to give skills tests to 4,700 of the 10,800 people who are processing claims.

VA health care had no way to track patients who had received various medical implants, such as cornea or dental. That means if there was a problem or a recall, there was no system in place to find those veterans. Of 10,000 purchases of implant material, 2,900 purchases were either miscategorized or not even put in the system, making them impossible to track. For 18 months, 45% weren't tracked and $1.1 million in material (714 items) could not be located. Nearly 300 unrecorded items were found in storage.

Gov. Lee Convenes Law Enforcement Training Advisory Council

Last Thursday, Tennessee Governor Bill Lee convened the Law Enforcement Training Advisory Council to discuss progress on improving information sharing and increasing officer training, amid a national surge in violent crime.

"As we continue to see a wave of violent crime across the country, we are committed to providing law enforcement the tools and resources they need to keep our communities safe," said Gov. Lee. "The policies that are being implemented from this group will ensure our law enforcement officials are effectively protecting and serving all Tennesseans."

The Law Enforcement Training Advisory Council was formed from the Law Enforcement Reform Partnership launched in July 2020 with the purpose of advising on developments in policing needs and training best practices. The council consists of law enforcement agency stakeholders, members of the General Assembly, community leaders, and subject matter experts.

Attendees of the meeting include Carter Lawrence, Commerce & Insurance Commissioner; Jennifer Peck, Commerce & Insurance Chief of Staff; Brian Grisham, Director of TLETA; Colonel Matt Perry, THP; Brad Nealon, Deputy Director of TBI; Donna Turner, Director of Dept of Corrections; Sheriff Floyd Bonner, Jr. of Shelby County; Sheriff Jeff Cassidy of Sullivan County; Chief Steve Isbell of Dyersburg; Chief John Drake of Metro Nashville PD; Chief CJ Davis of Memphis PD; Harold Love, Jr., State Representative, Nashville; Dawn White, State Senator, Murfreesboro; and Dr. Keith Norman, First Baptist Church, Memphis.

"I'm proud to welcome two of our state's new outstanding leaders, Nashville Police chief John Drake and Memphis Police Chief CJ Davis," said Gov. Lee. "This group brings a high level of expertise, and I appreciate receiving an update on public safety at the community level."

Following the initial recommendations made in September 2020, key progress highlights include:

To date, 29 cadets have been trained at the Tennessee Law Enforcement Training Academy at no cost to their departments through a program specifically intended to assist rural and economically impacted communities.

The POST Commission has updated its rules to require that every new officer receive no less than 16 course hours designed to train officers on the important topics of de-escalation, officer's duty to intervene, public assembly interaction, and emphasizing positive community and officer interactions and relationships.

Law enforcement agencies across Tennessee have begun tracking officers' community involvement, and beginning in 2022, officers will receive in-service training credit for positive non-enforcement interaction between law enforcement officers and the communities they serve.

According to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI), in 2020, despite higher-than-average crime rates, both property and violent crime rates fell for the third consecutive year. This group will work to ensure Tennessee continues this progress and keeps our communities safe.

Four Apps That Can Make Driving Safer

Technology has changed the world in ways too numerous to count. Many of those changes have made the world a safer place, but a growing dependence on smartphones, particularly when behind the wheel, continues to put the safety of drivers, their passengers, fellow motorists, and pedestrians in jeopardy.

Data from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration indicates that distracted driving was responsible for the deaths of more than 3,100 people in the United States in 2019. The threat of distracted driving is just as significant beyond U.S. borders as well. That includes Canada, where estimates from Transport Canada's National Collision Database indicate 21 percent of the country's fatal collisions involved distracted drivers.

Though smartphones are not the lone distraction drivers face, they do pose a significant threat. But smartphones also can help drivers be safer behind the wheel. The following are four apps that drivers can install on their smartphones that were designed to make modern driving safer.

SafeDrive

The SafeDrive app can block all the textual apps in a phone, removing a major threat to drivers' ability to concentrate behind the wheel. Drivers who utilize SafeDrive can still make phone calls, but they won't be able to receive or send messages.

LifeSaver

The LifeSaver app

runs silently in the background and then wakes up and locks the phone when a driver begins driving. Parents of young drivers should know that the app's "Family View" feature can enable them to track their children's driving and even see when kids are behind the wheel so parents won't contact them. The app also can alert loved ones when drivers arrive at their destination.

TextDrive

This app sends auto response messages to people who try to call or text drivers while they're behind the wheel. Drivers can reply to messages using voice commands as well.

DriveWell

Drivers who want some insight into their driving habits should consider the DriveWell app. The app is designed to provide drivers with feedback about their driving habits. Drivers can access trip summaries, details on their maneuvers and even track their speeds.

Drivers interested in utilizing technology to become safer drivers can try various apps designed to reduce driver distractions.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

SHAKESPEARE IN THE BIBLE?

IN 1604, KING JAMES GATHERED TOGETHER A GROUP OF LINGUISTS, PREACHERS, PROFESSORS, AND SOME 47 BIBLICAL SCHOLARS TO PRODUCE A GREAT BIBLE! IT WAS DECIDED THAT ALL WHO WORKED ON THIS HOLY CLASSIC SHOULD REMAIN ANONYMOUS, HOWEVER....

...SEVEN YEARS LATER, WHEN THIS GREAT VERSION OF THE BIBLE WAS PUBLISHED (1611), SOME AUTHORITIES INSISTED THAT SHAKESPEARE WAS ONE OF THE UNSUNG WRITERS AND HAD LEFT SOME CLUES TO PROVE THIS VERY FACT!

CLUES
 IN 1605 SHAKESPEARE WAS 46 YEARS OLD. TURN TO PSALM 46. COUNT TO THE 46TH WORD: SHAKE NOW COUNT BACKWARDS FROM THE END OF THE PSALM ANOTHER 46 WORDS: SPEAR PUT THEM TOGETHER: SHAKESPEAR!

WHETHER THIS LEGEND IS TRUE OR FALSE, IT'S NOT TOO HARD TO BELIEVE THAT SHAKESPEARE'S TALENT CONTRIBUTED TO THE RICH POETRY AND PROSE THAT WE FIND IN THE KING JAMES BIBLE!

TWRA Responds To Bird Disease Inquiries

Reports of dead birds have been increasing in Tennessee due to the recent news coverage of a disease affecting birds in several eastern and mid-western states. The disease is reportedly causing eye swelling and crusty discharge from the eyes of birds and may also be associated with neurological symptoms.

A significant number of reports have come from Delaware, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana. Most birds reported exhibiting this condition are young and have included common grackles, European starlings, blue jays, and American robins along with other species of songbirds. There are no confirmed cases of the disease in Tennessee and there have been no reports of the disease occurring in humans, poultry, or livestock.

Disease experts are diligently working to determine the cause of the disease and have not found signs of infection from known illnesses (i.e. Salmonella, avian influenza, West Nile virus, Newcastle disease, herpesviruses, poxviruses, and Trichomonas parasites). TWRA is working closely with regional experts to further explore the cause and to determine if the disease is affecting birds in Tennessee. Please contact TWRA Bird Conservation Coordinator David Hanni at David.Hanni@TN.gov with specific questions or need for additional information.

TWRA Recommendations:

Cease feeding birds and cover bird baths, if dead birds are found, until this wildlife mortality event subsides (food sources are not limited during the summer).

Clean up excess feed that has spilled or was placed onto the ground

Clean feeders and bird baths with a 10 percent bleach solution (one-part bleach mixed with nine parts water), rinse with water, and allow to air dry. Do not replace them.

Avoid handling birds unless necessary. If you do handle them wear disposable gloves. If picking up a dead bird, place an inverted plastic bag over your hand to avoid direct contact with the bird.

Keep pets (including pet birds) away from sick or dead wild birds as a standard precaution.

If you find recently deceased birds exhibiting crustiness or bulging eyes and/or neurological issues, please use your discretion to contact the TWRA at (615) 781-6500.

Civil War Sites Preservation Grant Fund Applications Being Accepted

NASHVILLE - The Tennessee Wars Commission, the Tennessee Historical Commission

Division responsible for preserving the state's significant military history, has announced the August 16, 2021 opening of this year's grant cycle for the Civil War Sites Preservation Fund (TCWSPF). This fund is provided by legislation to the Tennessee Historical Commission who approves and awards TCWSPF grants. The Tennessee Wars Commission administers the application and grant processes.

The Civil War Sites Preservation Fund, begun in 2013, is a key source for matching funds for the acquisition and preservation of properties associated with the 38 most significant Civil War sites in Tennessee. Additionally, grants can assist in funding the acquisition and protection of Underground Railroad sites eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places, or eligible for designation as a National Historic Landmark.

Applicants must be a 501(c)(3) non-profit. This grant will pay a one-to-one, 50 percent match where the grantee provides the match from a non-state source. Applications are scored, rated, and ranked by Tennessee Historical Commission and Tennessee Wars Commission staff members. The board of the Historical Commission has voting approval of eligible grant projects.

"Since its debut in 2013, approximately $5 million in funding from this program has helped save almost one thousand acres of threatened Tennessee battlefield lands," said Tennessee Historical Commission Director Patrick McIntyre. "Last year, over $900,000.00 in TCWSPF grants were used to preserve approximately one hundred and eleven acres of battlefield properties. This year, all 175 acres are located directly in battlefield core areas associated with the battles of Shiloh, of Wauhatchie, and Parkers Crossroads" notes Tennessee Wars Commission Director of Programs, Nina Scall.

The deadline for submissions is October 31, 2021. The grant application process is digital. Create an account and complete the application at <https://tdec.smartsimple.com/s/Login.jsp>.

For questions regarding the grant process or application procedure, contact Nina Scall, Program Director of the Tennessee Wars Commission via email at Nina.Scall@tn.gov.

A Week In Jackson County History

July 29, 1971

State Troopers To Work 5-Day Week
State Troopers will begin a 5-day work week, Aug. 1.

The announcement was made today by Governor Winfield Dunn and State Safety Commissioner Claude Armour, setting a precedent for the Highway Patrol.

Governor Dunn said the decision was made after a lengthy study revealed that with proper control and planning the Highway Patrol would have the same strength in a five-day, 9-hour work week that we now have in a 6-day work week. He said Commissioner Armour would keep a close watch on the Patrol's operation to assure that the present work load and service is maintained and if the new program doesn't work, adjustments will be made.

Murray Street To Be Re-Surfaced

Murray Street, from the traffic light to the Doe Creek bridge, is scheduled to be re-surfaced, according to an announcement Tuesday by Gainesboro Mayor Calvin Roark.

"Mr. Kronk, State Highway Engineer, informed us today that funds for the project have been approved," Roark said.

Approval of the work on Murray Street follows approximately six weeks of discussion between Leon and Haggard Anderson, Mayor Roark, County Highway Commissioner Earl Hix and officials of the State Highway Department.

Local Draft Boards Continue To Register Men

Selective Service System Executive Secretary Mrs. Sarah Forkum, who manages the Jackson County local board, says the current Congressional impasse over extending the induction authority has created great uncertainty among area draft-age men.

Mrs. Forkum continued, "Selective Service Director Curtis Tarr has recently stressed the importance of explaining to our draft-age men the high probability that draft calls will resume in the near future and that the current impasse in the Congress is not likely to affect any registrant's chance of being drafted."

Tennessee Receives National Agricultural Marketing Excellence Award

The Tennessee Department of Agriculture's Business Development Division has won the 2021 Agricultural Marketing Excellence Award from the North American Agricultural Marketing Officials (NAAMO) organization last week during their annual meeting in Starkville, Miss. The purpose of NAAMO is to provide its members with a forum to network, collaborate, and share insights to enhance the development, marketing, and promotion of North American food and agricultural products. The annual award recognizes innovative and effective agricultural marketing projects that have significant impact to the agricultural economy in a state or province. Tennessee's Business Development Division was recognized for their social media strategy to promote Tennessee products during the COVID-19 pandemic. Pick Tennessee Products' social media posts reached more than 2 million people in 2020 through a Do Your Part With Pick TN campaign. This effort was coordinated by TDA Business Consultant Will Freeman, who presented during the NAAMO competition. "The Marketing Excellence Award is the highest honor a member organization can receive," NAAMO President Kerry Wefald said. "This award is voted on by provincial and state agricultural marketing peers, and we are so proud to recognize Will and the Tennessee team's visionary strategy and impressive digital marketing efforts woven perfectly within a nicely packaged Pick Tennessee Products campaign." "This is the first time Tennessee has received the Marketing Excellence Award, and we are honored to be recognized for our effective marketing methods," Commissioner Charlie Hatcher, D.V.M. said. "I'm proud of our Business Development team, which continues to work diligently to support our farmers, producers, and manufacturers." Even Exchange by Donna Pettman

Each numbered row contains two clues and two 6-letter answers. The two answers differ from each other by only one letter, which has already been inserted. For example, if you exchange the A from MASTER for an L, you get MISTER. Do not change the order of the letters.

state employees are not to vaccinate children for Covid-19 without parental consent (subject to certain common law exceptions) nor is there to be marketing to minors, let me address various allegations related to bullying, bribing, shaming, coercing, or cajoling in order to entice or compel vaccines to either children or adults.

It is imperative that our county health departments, local education associations, universities, and vaccine partners understand that the administration of the Covid-19 vaccine must comply with additional federal requirements because it is an "unapproved product." In other words, the FDA considers it an unapproved product authorized only for use in emergencies. 21 U.S. Code §360bbb-3 "Authorization for medical products for use in emergencies" details the conditions of authorization of an unapproved product. Specifically, when an unapproved product is administered under emergency use authorization any of the following are violations of federal law per 21 U.S. Code §360bbb-3(e)(1)(A)(ii): failing to identify the significant known and potential benefits and risks of the vaccine, or failing to provide an option to refuse, or failing to identify alternatives that are available.

To anyone bullying, bribing, shaming, coercing, or cajoling an individual into taking the vaccine, I strongly urge you to consult with your legal counsel for potential violations of federal law.

It is not appropriate for a state employee to use their influence or authority to coerce a student into receiving the vaccine. Here are some examples of what we consider unacceptable behavior:

A football coach must not coerce players into being vaccinated by demanding that they wear masks and be tested weekly at their own expense until they are vaccinated.

A band director must not suspend marching band members from a half-time show unless they get vaccinated.

A teacher must not shame children by segregating the vaccinated children from the unvaccinated ones in the classroom.

A county health department must not pay or incentivize parents to vaccinate children. Entering a parent into a drawing for a car if they vaccinate their child is reprehensible, immoral, and likely illegal.

Our six independent county health departments failing to align with the position of Tennessee Department of Health on these issues.

Before closing, I want to reiterate the only two concerns Chairman Ragan and I expressed were vaccinating children with an unapproved product authorized for emergency use only without parental consent and marketing to minors. Interpreting those two concerns as being anti-vaxxers is intellectually dishonest and wrong. We have not discouraged Tennesseans from being vaccinated nor have we discouraged Tennesseans from having their children vaccinated.

Further, it has been widely misrepresented that all children's vaccines have come to a halt. To be absolutely clear, Tennessee's efforts on childhood vaccinations are unchanged. The only exception is administering a Covid-19 vaccination without parental consent.

In closing, I want to thank Dr. Piercey and the governor's team for responding so quickly to the committee's concerns. This is an exceptionally difficult topic with many Tennesseans pushing for a vaccine mandate and many more Tennesseans pushing back - and many, many more in the middle. Chairman Ragan and I enjoy an excellent relationship with both the Department of Health and the governor's office and we will continue working together for the citizens of the Great State of Tennessee.

TDH, Communities Participating In Red Sand Project To Raise Awareness Of Human Trafficking

The Tennessee Department of Health and community partners across the state join together for the third consecutive year to participate in the Red Sand Project during Human Trafficking Awareness Week, recognized July 26-31.

The Red Sand Project is a participatory art installment designed to shed light on human trafficking. The red sand is used to draw attention to the human trafficking victims that fall through the cracks of our society every day. Although Tennessee has been nationally acknowledged for our continuous efforts and improvements, human trafficking continues to remain a major public health concern in our communities. In 2019, the National Human Trafficking Hotline identified 11,500 trafficking situations, with 180 cases reported in Tennessee.

Counties across the state will be participating in the Red Sand Project by pouring natural, nontoxic red sand in sidewalk cracks, creating yard signs, and many other creative demonstrations throughout their communities. To find a Red Sand Project event near you, please reach out to your local health department or visit your local Welcome Center.

"Addressing human trafficking is a priority in Tennessee," said Tennessee Department of Health Commissioner Lisa Piercey, MD, MBA, FAAP. "It is important we raise awareness of human trafficking through initiatives such as this because victims can experience significant trauma that has lasting impacts on them and their families."

According to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation, human trafficking is a demand-driven crime that involves exploiting a person for labor, services, or commercial sex acts, particularly targeting women and children. Human Trafficking is also one of the fastest growing criminal industries in the country, with cases reported in all 50 states.

"Human trafficking must be stopped," said Tennessee Department of Health Family Health and Wellness Division Deputy Medical Director Denise Werner, MD. "By increasing awareness of this hidden crime that can happen in our own communities Tennesseans can make a difference in the lives of victims of human trafficking."

If you know someone who needs help to escape trafficking, contact the Tennessee Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-855-558-6484.

If you suspect you have come into contact with a victim of human trafficking, you may call the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888 or text 233722.
