

Plan Approved To Reduce Insurance Premiums

Following a reorganization in January, the Granville Fire Department has raised $85,000 of $125,000 required to fund a plan that is expected to lower fire insurance premiums by 15-20% for Granville residents and businesses. The plan includes recruitment incentives for up to seven volunteer firefighters who will receive a $1,000 stipend upon completion of a rigorous 12-week, 94-hour training program, a $25 stipend for any Jackson County firefighters responding to fire calls in the Granville fire district and purchase of essential equipment. Included is a $40,000 "dollar for dollar" matching grant to close the gap on required investments.

58 New Members Since January

Since the January reorganization, 58 residents and businesses have paid $100 to become voting members of record. This represents about 11% of homes and businesses in the Granville Fire Department fire district. If only half of the approximately 550 property owners joined as members, that would raise $27,500 a year for the Granville Fire Department.

Becoming a member is not required for a Granville resident or business to be served by Granville Fire Department. Membership is a way to financially contribute to the Fire Department and to participate in the election of directors at the Annual Meeting each January. Regardless of membership status, any residence or business in the Granville Fire Department service area will be responded to in case of fire or request for emergency services.

Early Fundraising Success

Since the January reorganization, the Granville Fire Department has raised $5,800 in Membership Fees, $1,500 from its annual grant from the Jackson County Government, and $8,500 in private donations and government grants. In addition, Wildwood Resort and Marina has made a grant in the amount of $70,000 over three years, including $10,000/year for three years ($30,000 total) to fund firefighter training and call pay stipends and a one-time gift of $40,000 which represents a 50% matching grant for the purchase of essential equipment. "Having a well-resourced fire department in Granville is a paramount concern of everyone in the Granville community," said John Deane, Owner of Wildwood. "We hope this will inspire others in the community to contribute knowing every dollar they give will be matched by this grant."

Recruiting Volunteer Fire Fighters

To support and encourage qualified volunteers to become trained firefighters, the Wildwood grant provides for up to seven (7) firefighters to receive a $1,000 stipend upon completion of the required 94-hour training course as well as a $25 stipend for each Jackson County firefighter responding to fire calls in the Granville fire district. A lower stipend ($500) is available for fire truck pump operators who complete 16 hours of training. This grant is for three (3) years and applies to the existing three Granville Fire Fighters that have already been trained as well as new recruits.

Interested volunteers should contact Chief Scott Nicholas at 931-310-5824 or via email at Granville-FireChief@gmail.com for more information and an application.

GFD Plan Expected to Positively Impact ISO Rating

Insurance Services Office, Inc. (or "ISO"), is a provider of the underwriting rating of local fire departments that, in turn, drives home and business owner fire insurance rates with major insurance companies. Fire Departments are rated by ISO which directly impacts fire insurance rates charged to Granville area residents and businesses.

The current ISO rating for the Granville Fire Department is nine (9). Improvement in the ISO rating has the effect of lowering it. Expansion of the GFD firefighter capabilities along with the addition of essential equipment is expected to lower the ISO rating to six (6) or lower which would have the effect of reducing Granville residents' and businesses' fire insurance premiums by 15-20%.

Jackson County Mayor Randy Heady represented the State of Tennessee on an Appalachian Regional Commission event last week.

Heady was one of several panelists for the ARC's Appalachia Envisioned Roadshow, a virtual event the commission is using to highlight tourism and development for rural communities in Tennessee, Kentucky, North Carolina, and West Virginia.

The second in a series of five stops highlighting the ARC's strategic plan, last week's event focused on building regional culture and tourism.

During the event, Heady took part in a conversation on the importance on connecting culture and tourism to local economies. He highlighted the work Jackson County has done to attract tourism to the community, including the revitalization of Gainesboro's downtown area and activities around the Cumberland River.

The event came on the heels of the ARC making a commitment to invest $12.3 million in 23 tourism and culture projects in the next year. At the conclusion of event, ARC co-chair Gayle Manchin announced a $225,000 grant to the New River Gorge Regional Development Authority to hold plan for a project to create a roadmap for bolstering the growing outdoor industry sector in the Appalachian region.

According to ARC, the travel and tourism industry in Appalachia is

Other participants included Governor Roy Cooper of North Carolina, Governor Bill Lee of Tennessee, Governor Jim Justice of West Virginia, and tourism professionals and community leaders from North Carolina, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia about their successes in leveraging tourism and culture to fuel economic growth.

are driven by several factors on a 100 point scale: Emergency communications systems (10 points); Firefighter capabilities, training & equipment (50 points); Water supply (40 points); and Community risk reduction (extra credit of up to 5.5 points. "I am gratified by the steps being taken by our new Board to strengthen Granville Fire Department," said Fire Chief Scott Nicholas. "Funds flowing from new member fees, grants and other donations will enable us to lower our ISO rating which will result in a lower cost of insurance for both Granville residents and businesses. The Board and I are most appreciative of Wildwood Resort and Marina for making a significant commitment to Granville Fire Department including a 50% match grant which will go a long way toward enabling us to achieve our goals and,

hopefully, encourage others to contribute financially as well." Essential Equipment Required to Lower Area Insurance Rates The Board of Granville Fire Department has identified a list of essential equipment required to achieve a lower ISO rating that will effectively lower area fire insurance rates. These include various size fire hoses, nozzles, adaptors and clamps, a generator, a ladder, as well as a "turbo draft system" that will facilitate water access from Cordell Hull Lake. A significant piece of equipment required is a replacement fire engine tanker with a 3,000-gallon water capacity. The current fire engine tanker only holds 1,000 gallons of water. "Our ability to deliver large quantities of water to the fire means everything in terms of the fire department's ability to limit fire damage to homes and businesses and merits a large number of points on the ISO scale that drives community fire insurance rates," said Chief Nicholas. Become a Member of GFD Today To become a member, Granville area residents and businesses are encouraged to mail the annual dues along with your name and address to: Granville Co-op Fire Department, 6754 Granville Hwy, Granville, TN 38564 The Granville Fire Department would like to double the number of members (from 58 to 116) or more in the coming months. Donations, Member Fees & Government Grants Matched Dollar for Dollar Donations of any amount can be mailed to the same address above. Member fees, donations and government grants will be matched dollar for dollar for essential equipment which means for every $1.00 donation to the Granville Fire Department, the department will receive $2.00, up to a total of $40,000.00.

Let Us Never Forget Our Solemn Pledge

JOSEPH REAGAN
special to the Sentinel

On Memorial Day, 1945, the war in Europe had ended but the fighting in the Pacific continued, Lt. Gen. Lucian Truscott voiced remarks at the Sicily-Rome American Cemetery at Nettuno, Italy. Turning his back on the assembled VIP’s he faced the rows upon rows of headstones and apologized to the 20,000 fallen Americans who had been laid to rest far from home. He was quoted as saying, “All over the world our soldiers sleep beneath the crosses. It is a challenge to us – all allied nations – to ensure that they do not and have not died in vain.”

Fast forward to Memorial Day 2022, and the familiar voices of brothers in arms begin to call one another on the phone. People usually think of reconnecting with former military buddies as a joyous happening. However, for this Memorial Day, the topic of conversation was not an armistice, a promotion, or even a daughter’s wedding or new addition to a home, it was about the latest in a string of suicides that silence the voice of our brothers but brought renewed connections from other familiar voices. One desperately said, “Sir, I needed to call someone who could understand this.”

Everyone in the greatest generation understood war. At home they experienced rationing, schoolchildren collected scrap, and women took up factory jobs while overseas the troops endured combat and were witness to some of the largest and most brutal atrocities in the modern age. When the war was over, they followed the lead of Lt. Gen Truscott and committed their lives to ensure that they “have not died in vain.” The shared sacrifice of a generation united them and helped them solve tough problems.

In subsequent wars, such as the Korean and Vietnam era, Veterans did not experience the same level of understanding and thus either turned their voice inward or used their voice to fight for one another on subjects that varied from Agent Orange, PTSD, and other once-silent conditions.

The War on Terror introduced a unique time in our nation’s collective history as acts of war played out in real-time on our media devices. Although only one percent of Americans served post 9/11, it seems 100 percent of the country used their voice to express their opinions of this shared history as it unfolded.

For Korea and Vietnam Veterans, war was not a shared experience and therefore various voices having various opinions helped further the national conversation regarding the treatment of veterans leading to safer and more thoughtful approaches. Unlike the veterans of Korea and Vietnam, the veterans of the last several decades did not return home to the voices of dissent that could be addressed directly, instead, they returned to a polite nation that creates media of dissent and very little opportunity for honest, open dialog.

This new era of media, learning, and personal discussions bring rise to the question, “Do people really remember why we hold our veterans in a place of honor?” For years, voices saying meaningless phrases like “the enemy gets a vote” or “there’s nothing you could have done” were meant to comfort those of us who have held the heavy responsibility of leading troops in combat. However, many people seem to lack the understanding that our hearts have been forever scarred by the invisible wounds of war, scarred by guilt and grief, and by the longing for forgiveness that will never come. Even if forgiveness was offered, it would be hard to accept as no mere words can undo a life experience and because of this, we often feel isolated, misunderstood, and undervalued therefore our voices remain silent.

As conversations with the voice on the other end of the phone come to its inevitable conclusion, I am reminded that to remain silent is a betrayal of my obligation to those who made the ultimate sacrifice. As Horace Bushnell once said, the best thing for us to do is to remember “what they have put it on us to do for the dear common country to which they sold their life.” As we gather as one nation this Memorial Day, my hope is that instead of directing shallow words of gratitude at each other, we do as Lt. Gen. Truscott did and direct our gratitude directly towards those who made the ultimate sacrifice. In both our words and actions, let us all commit ourselves to serve the country to which they gave their lives.

While there is still much work to be done, the generation of Veterans from this century have access to vast resources, life-saving technology, and increased information. This same generation of Veterans is just now starting to define our post-service legacy and like our grandparents, return home with a deep commitment to service, and a desire to address the many problems that we face.

One such issue needing to be addressed is helping Veterans find purpose in their post-service lives. Truscott’s apology to the dead are not empty words, but a strong voice reminding us that we have an obligation to choose resilience and purpose when faced with guilt or grief. As an example, Gold Star Families, who have experienced tremendous loss, continue to serve their communities to maintain the legacy of the loved one they lost. I often recall a colleague of mine responding to the question “why do you do so much to help Veterans?” he simply held up his finger, choking back tears he responded, “for the one I couldn’t save.” By choosing to use his voice to advocate for other veterans, he not only helped them find their purpose – he found his own.

It’s often said that for those who have served “every day is Memorial Day,” a traditionally silent observance in the Veteran’s mind that can best be described as an impossible trinity made up of an overwhelming sense of guilt, grief, and grit. Usually, a moment of silence on this day is a welcomed and solemn way to honor the voices from our past, but for myself, after losing three former soldiers to suicide in the past few months, silence is no longer an option and the freedom to use our voice is the greatest gift that our veterans have to offer this Memorial Day.

Second Chances For Incarcerated Veterans

by Freddy Groves

We recently had Second Chance Month, courtesy of a presidential proclamation. Its goal was to “provide meaningful redemption and rehabilitation for formerly imprisoned persons.” It requires, per the proclamation, a holistic approach that eliminates long sentences, and provides job and education training during incarceration plus opportunities to enter the workforce after release.

What that means for veterans is that the Department of Veterans Affairs is taking action to help vets rejoin society after they’ve been in prison. In a mutual help program, the Bureau of Prisons, the Social Security Administration and VA benefits will work to ensure that the VA is notified within 30 days of release.

Help for imprisoned veterans includes:

-- Expanding outreach into prisons to let veterans know about the services they can use and hook up with while still in prison.

-- A web-based program that prison staff can use to identify veterans who will need VA services when they get out. The prison staff will need the veteran’s name, Social Security number, date of birth and so on to access the site: Veterans Reentry Search Service.

-- Finding “justice-involved” veterans (through outreach by specialists) and encouraging them to access VA services. Those can include pre-release assessments and links to care for social, mental, medical and employment services.

To learn more about the health care services available to veterans released from prison, check the VA website at www.va.gov/homeless/reentry.asp. Scroll down to watch videos about supporting and assisting incarcerated veterans, second chances for incarcerated veterans and suicide prevention. Further down the page are email links for the specialists in each state.

Once they’re released from prison, veterans are at risk for homelessness, death from drug overdoses and suicide. Per a U.S. Sentencing Commission study, 67% of incarcerated veterans had mental health problems, and 55% had served in a combat zone. Of those, 41% reported post-traumatic stress and 67% had used illegal substances ... yet 62% had separated from the service with an honorable discharge.

Tips On How To Catch Cancer Early

Cancer is most treatable and beatable during its earliest stages. But how does a person detect cancer early, when he or she may not even realize cancer is present? There are a few steps to take.

Screening Tests
Scheduling screening tests for common cancers, even if there are no symptoms present, is an effective way to detect cancer in its early stages. The American Cancer Society recommends the following tests.

Breast Cancer
Women between the ages of 40 and 44 can begin to schedule annual breast cancer screenings if they so choose. The ACS recommends women between the ages of 45 and 54 schedule annual screenings, after which mammograms can occur every two years.

Colorectal Cancer
Regular screenings for colorectal cancers can begin at age 45 with stool-based or visual exams that look for signs of cancer.

Cervical Cancer
This cancer screening should begin at age 25 and continue until women are 65. Pap tests and human papillomavirus tests are recommended at various intervals, typically between three and five years for healthy women.

Skin Cancer
All people regardless of age are advised to check their skin regularly for any changes that may indicate the presence of skin cancer.

Screenings for prostate cancer, lung cancer, endometrial cancer, and some others may be important for those with a family history of these cancers or those who are at higher risk due to various behaviors. People are urged to speak with their physicians about cancer screenings and any additional steps they can take to lower their risk for cancer.

Looking For Microvesticles

To detect cancers earlier, doctors may employ blood tests that examine the presence of microvesticles in the blood. Harvard Medical School says cells shed microvesticles, but the amount shed by tumors is substantial. However, finding these very small particles requires a powerful device and complicated lab process. Newer innovations at the Center for Systems Biology at Massachusetts General Hospital have led to the development of a handheld device that uses a nanotechnology sensor to detect tumor microvesticles in a drop of blood in roughly two hours. This technology has the potential to diagnose cancer much earlier, according to Dr. Ralph Weissleder, director of the center and developer of the technology.

Feeling “off”
Individuals are their best advocates for early cancer detection. Any symptom that is out of the ordinary and persists should be treated as a red flag. Lumps, pains, the presence of blood in stool or urine, persistent coughs, fatigue, abnormal vaginal discharge, sores that do not heal, and a loss of appetite all could be early signs of cancer. People are urged to schedule appointments with their primary care doctors to discuss any abnormalities.

As cancer spreads, it can affect the effectiveness of treatment. This also may affect chances of survival. The earlier one detects cancer, the greater his or her chances of surviving the disease.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE BIBLE HAS BEEN THE WORLD'S "BEST SELLER" FOR MANY YEARS. ONE CAN TRAVEL TO THE FAR CORNERS OF THE EARTH AND STILL FIND A COPY OF THE BIBLE WAITING FOR HIM THERE. IT HAS BEEN TRANSLATED INTO 195 DIFFERENT LANGUAGES AND MILLIONS OF COPIES ARE SOLD EACH YEAR. IN A SINGLE YEAR, ENOUGH COPIES ARE DISTRIBUTED TO AVERAGE 47 FOR EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY HOUR, NIGHT AND DAY. WITH 60 MANY EDITIONS AND SO MANY PRINTINGS OF THIS GREAT BOOK, OVER THE YEARS, SMALL WONDER THAT THERE HAVE BEEN OCCASIONAL ERRORS MADE IN ITS PRINTING! HERE ARE A FEW:

THE BREECHES BIBLE: IN 1560 AN EDITION OF THE BIBLE SAID ADAM AND EVE "SEWED FIG LEAVES TOGETHER AND MADE THEMSELVES BREECHES."

THE VINEGAR BIBLE: IN 1717, AN EDITION HAD THE 20TH CHAPTER OF LUKE HEADED AS "THE PARABLE OF THE VINEGAR" INSTEAD OF "VINEYARD."

THE WICKED BIBLE: IN 1631, A PRINTER WAS FINED 300 POUNDS BECAUSE HE LEFT OUT "NOT" IN ONE OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS SO THAT IT APPEARED IN EXODUS 20:14 "THOU SHALT COMMIT ADULTERY."

THE TREACLE BIBLE: AN EDITION IN 1568 HAD JEREMIAH 8:22 READING "IS THERE NO TREACLE IN GILEAD" INSTEAD OF "BALM."

THE PRINTERS BIBLE: IN 1702 THE 19TH PSALM, VERSE 161, READ: "PRINTERS HAVE PERSECUTED ME WITHOUT CAUSE" INSTEAD OF "PRINCES."

NOTWITHSTANDING THE ERRORS, THE BIBLE, IN THE THOUSANDS OF EDITIONS PUBLISHED AND THE MANY MILLIONS OF COPIES THAT HAVE BEEN DISTRIBUTED, CONTINUES TO BRING TO HUMANITY THE SPIRITUAL AND MORAL VALUES SO NEEDED BY THE WORLD AT LARGE!

Canner Dial Gauge Testing Available

Rebekah Melton

Family and Consumer Science Extension Agent

Dial gauges should be checked for accuracy and overall condition every year prior to canning season. During general use such as handling and bumping can cause problems with the calibration, so it is recommended to test annually. The gauge can be tested while attached the canner cover or separately. You do not need to bring the entire canner to the office. Gauges that read high cause under-processing and may result in unsafe food. Low readings cause over-processing. This is a free service offered by the Jackson County-UT Extension office each year.

Contact FCS Extension Agent, Rebekah Melton at 931-268-9437 or email tmelton9@utk.edu to have your dial gauge tested.

Upper Cumberland Women’s Club Honors Co-Founder

The Upper Cumberland Women’s Club (UCWC) celebrated Co-Founder Andrea Burckhard’s 60th birthday last Tuesday, taking the opportunity to recognize her extraordinary dedication and commitment to the organization and our community. The luncheon, which was held at 1091 Rooftop Restaurant in the Holiday Inn on Willow Avenue in Cookeville, was organized by Lynn Scuderi, a home loan originator at US Bank. UCWC Co-Founder Linda Brooks Jones, proprietor of the Grey Gables Inn in Rugby, TN, gave a short message on the 3 P’s of owning your own business – Perseverance, Perspiration, and Prayer.

The honoree was crowned “Queen for the Day” by Cindy Schueman of IMPACT Leadership who presented her with a crystal tiara as well as a royal purple robe donated by Casey Clark Jackson at Habitat For Humanity. During her presentation Schueman noted, “Leaders pay close attention not only to how they lead but how their leadership is perceived, by the impact their leadership manifests. You have cultivated care, concern, compassion and competence, collaboration, and community.”

Andrea was showered with gifts, including a plaque from Terri Curran and Linda Jones displaying UCWC’s old and new logos to demonstrate the organization’s growth and impact over the past 12 years, a commemorative slide show developed by Holly Bikakis from Hometown Digital Solutions, a gift certificate for a private retreat, a bouquet of orchids and a cake. Special guests at the luncheon included her son, Grant, and two friends Elaine Eisner from Ohio and Joyce Yoo from Chicago who are part of her New York Life study group.

“I am so touched by the outpouring of love and friendship here today,” said Andrea. “When we formed the Upper Cumberland Women’s Club, Linda and I wanted to inspire ladies from all walks of life, all ethnicities, and all careers to get together for networking, friendship, and fun. Over the years, we have experienced laughter and tears, and have supported each other through life’s ups and downs with professionalism and integrity. I urge you all to pay it forward.”

Founded in 2010, the Upper Cumberland Women’s Club is the fastest growing networking and service organization for professional and retired women in the Upper Cumberland. Serving five counties – Cumberland, Putnam, Overton, Pickett and White – the organization is committed to networking and learning about issues that concern the women of the Upper Cumberland. We also endeavor to assist with various projects in the region. UCWC is proud to give back to charities who best serve the women in our communities. The organization currently supports the Stephens Center in Cookeville. A plaque from the Stephens Center honoring UCWC for its specific contributions for Healthy Moms and Families of the Upper Cumberland was presented at the luncheon by Deborah Goodwin and Tiffany Maynard who both work for the Center.

Argument Ends In Death For Jackson County Man

An argument between two men over a volleyball has resulted in the death of George M. (Boo) Haney, 39, of Rt. 1, Bloomington Springs. Charged in the shooting death of Haney is A. B. Murphy, also of Rt. 1, Bloomington Springs.

According to a statement issued by Jackson County Sheriff Carsey Lynch, Jr. the shooting occurred at approximately 7:00 p.m. Sunday evening in the Bullet Hole Community of Jackson County. Haney died at Cookeville General Hospital after being shot in the stomach with a .22 rifle.

Sheriff Lynch stated that Murphy turned himself in at the Jackson County Jail following the shooting incident Sunday night. The two men’s homes are located about 100 yards apart.

Murphy remains in Jackson County Jail where he is awaiting a preliminary hearing in General Sessions Court today, Thursday, May 1 on charges of first degree murder.

TBI Agent Don Clark of Carthage and officials of the Jackson County Sheriff’s Department conducted the investigation.

Four Area People Injured In Wreck

Eleven people, four of them from Bloomington Springs, were injured in a two-vehicle crash on Highway 141 just inside DeKalb County Tuesday, April 22.

The head-on crash at 2:40 p.m. Tuesday injured the following:

Gary W. Howard, 19, and his wife, Tanya Howard, 20, of Route 1, Bloomington Springs; Myron Fox, 20, and his wife, Jeanette Fox, 19, also of Route 1, Bloomington Springs; Dennis

W. Solomon 22; Mark Eikens, 16, Debbie Eikens 14, Vernon Eikens, 18, all of Woodbury, Tenn.; and Cliff W. Bogle, 20, Donna Lopez, 16, and Diane Potter, 17, all of Bradeyville, Tenn.

State Trooper Robert Holmes, who investigated, said Gary W. Howard was driving a 1971 Ford van east on Highway 141 near Center Hill Dam, and Dennis W. Solomon was driving a 1973 Chevrolet pick-up truck west when Solomon’s truck apparently crossed the center line on a slight curve and hit the van head-on.

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR DRINKING WATER

Areas Include: Aarons Branch, Big Bottom, Celina Hwy, Gainesboro to Granville, and past Stone to North Springs.

Jackson County UD #3 water System recently violated Federal Drinking water standards. Although this situation does not require that you take immediate action, you as a customer, have a right to know what happened, what you should do, and what was done to correct this situation.

During the January 1, 2022 through March 31, 2022 compliance period, Jackson County UD #3 exceeded the Locational Running Average (LRAA) Maximum contaminant Levels (MCL) as indicated below.

Jackson County UD #3 fourth quarter 2022 LRAA for Total Haloacetic Acids has exceeded the MCL of 0.060 mg/L at one Stage 2 monitoring site. The LRAA at Site #101 at GEORGE GREEN-MAX PT has been calculated to be 0.06253mg/L. This value exceeds the Maximum Contaminant Level of 0.060mg/L.

Some people who drink water containing Haloacetic acids in excess of the MCL over many years may have an increased risk of getting cancer. Some people who drink water containing trihalomethanes in excess of the MCL over many years may experience problem with their liver, kidneys or central nervous systems, or may have an increased risk of getting cancer.

During the January 1 through March 31, 2022 compliance period the water system's Locational running Annual Average (LRAA) at site #101 George Green- Max PT, for Total Trihalomethanes (TTHM) has been calculated to be 0.09015 mg/l. This value exceeds the Maximum Contaminant Level of 0.080mg/l set for this parameter.

The actual risk has been identified as 1 out of 10,000 people may get cancer if they drink 2 liters of water each day for 70 years.

You do not need to boil your water or take other actions. However, if you have specific health concerns, consult your doctor.

Haloacetic Acids and Total Trihalomethanes are disinfection byproducts resulting from our chlorination of the water to minimize risk of microbial life in the drinking water. The EPA considers microbial contaminants as the greatest risk to the public. We are evaluating the results of the required disinfection and will continue making an effort to reduce the disinfection byproducts without increasing the microbial risks.

We are increasing our normal Flushing procedures in an effort to reduce the levels of the Haloacetic Acids and total Trihalomethanes.

I Tammy Chapman Clouse have already announced my candidacy for the office of Register of Deeds. At this time, I want to inform the public that I may not have a chance to go door to door as I would like due to the fact of working in the Registers office. I have been working with Kim for the past 5 years and have gained the knowledge to run the office as it has been run for the past 20 years. Communication is a very important part of the job along with other duties that is required to run the office to the best of my ability. I would love for you to stop by the office with any questions you may have for me. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated in the upcoming election. Thank you for your time!

Tips On How To Catch Cancer Early

Cancer is most treatable and beatable during its earliest stages. But how does a person detect cancer early, when he or she may not even realize cancer is present? There are a few steps to take.

Screening Tests
Scheduling screening tests for common cancers, even if there are no symptoms present, is an effective way to detect cancer in its early stages. The American Cancer Society recommends the following tests.

Breast Cancer
Women between the ages of 40 and 44 can begin to schedule annual breast cancer screenings if they so choose. The ACS recommends women between the ages of 45 and 54 schedule annual screenings, after which mammograms can occur every two years.

Colorectal Cancer
Regular screenings for colorectal cancers can begin at age 45 with stool-based or visual exams that look for signs of cancer.

Cervical Cancer
This cancer screening should begin at age 25 and continue until women are 65. Pap tests and human papillomavirus tests are recommended at various intervals, typically between three and five years for healthy women.

Skin Cancer
All people regardless of age are advised to check their skin regularly for any changes that may indicate the presence of skin cancer.

Screenings for prostate cancer, lung cancer, endometrial cancer, and some others may be important for those with a family history of these cancers or those who are at higher risk due to various behaviors. People are urged to speak with their physicians about cancer screenings and any additional steps they can take to lower their risk for cancer.

Looking For Microvesticles

To detect cancers earlier, doctors may employ blood tests that examine the presence of microvesticles in the blood. Harvard Medical School says cells shed microvesticles, but the amount shed by tumors is substantial. However, finding these very small particles requires a powerful device and complicated lab process. Newer innovations at the Center for Systems Biology at Massachusetts General Hospital have led to the development of a handheld device that uses a nanotechnology sensor to detect tumor microvesticles in a drop of blood in roughly two hours. This technology has the potential to diagnose cancer much earlier, according to Dr. Ralph Weissleder, director of the center and developer of the technology.

Feeling “off”
Individuals are their best advocates for early cancer detection. Any symptom that is out of the ordinary and persists should be treated as a red flag. Lumps, pains, the presence of blood in stool or urine, persistent coughs, fatigue, abnormal vaginal discharge, sores that do not heal, and a loss of appetite all could be early signs of cancer. People are urged to schedule appointments with their primary care doctors to discuss any abnormalities.

As cancer spreads, it can affect the effectiveness of treatment. This also may affect chances of survival. The earlier one detects cancer, the greater his or her chances of surviving the disease.

Be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE BIBLE HAS BEEN THE WORLD'S "BEST SELLER" FOR MANY YEARS. ONE CAN TRAVEL TO THE FAR CORNERS OF THE EARTH AND STILL FIND A COPY OF THE BIBLE WAITING FOR HIM THERE. IT HAS BEEN TRANSLATED INTO 195 DIFFERENT LANGUAGES AND MILLIONS OF COPIES ARE SOLD EACH YEAR. IN A SINGLE YEAR, ENOUGH COPIES ARE DISTRIBUTED TO AVERAGE 47 FOR EVERY MINUTE OF EVERY HOUR, NIGHT AND DAY. WITH 60 MANY EDITIONS AND SO MANY PRINTINGS OF THIS GREAT BOOK, OVER THE YEARS, SMALL WONDER THAT THERE HAVE BEEN OCCASIONAL ERRORS MADE IN ITS PRINTING! HERE ARE A FEW:

THE BREECHES BIBLE: IN 1560 AN EDITION OF THE BIBLE SAID ADAM AND EVE "SEWED FIG LEAVES TOGETHER AND MADE THEMSELVES BREECHES."

THE VINEGAR BIBLE: IN 1717, AN EDITION HAD THE 20TH CHAPTER OF LUKE HEADED AS "THE PARABLE OF THE VINEGAR" INSTEAD OF "VINEYARD."

THE WICKED BIBLE: IN 1631, A PRINTER WAS FINED 300 POUNDS BECAUSE HE LEFT OUT "NOT" IN ONE OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS SO THAT IT APPEARED IN EXODUS 20:14 "THOU SHALT COMMIT ADULTERY."
