Kirksville City Council approves lot split to allow communication company to build

By Marty Bachman
Daily Express

The Kirksville City Council met for its regular meeting on Monday, April 18. The council approved an ordinance authorizing a lot split at 707 W. Northtown Road. According to Code Enforcement Director Reid Yardley, the lot is a large one that will used for a communications building. He said the request meets all criteria for approval with the exception that the fire hydrant is farther than code allows. He said that the lot owners are willing to bring the hydrant into compliance with the code.

Councilman John Gardner said that he was appreciative that the owners were willing to bring the hydrant into compliance and that it was an opportunity to develop the lot.

Kyle Rogers of NEMR Telecom, told the council that the goal was to improve internet services to the Kirksville community. He said the company would test the waters in small sectors of the community and slowly expand. Ultimately, he said, the company would provide another option for service. He said the company will provide fiber-optic services to homes beginning in rural areas and then digging from subdivision to subdivision in order to not overload the city with disruptions.

The council unanimously approved the ordinance.

A second ordinance approved by the council granted a 12-month extension to a special use permit to allow a mini-warehouse and self-storage facilities at 2104 and 2206

S. Baltimore Street. According to a staff report, the council approved the original request on Dec. 27, 2021.

“The buyer was not able to move the project forward as quickly as they had hoped, and the buyer does not believe they can complete the purchase of the property and the necessary renovations by June 27, 2022,” the staff report states.

Assistant City Manager Ashley Young told the council that the climate-controlled facility was in the former J.C. Penney building and Goldman's, and that with the council's approval, it would facilitate the purchase of the entire Kirksville Renaissance Shopping Center and allow for its continued redevelopment.

OBITUARIES

David Lewis

Mar. 18, 1951 – Jan. 14, 2022

He went to sleep, to be with his Lord and Savior on January 14, 2022, surrounded by those who loved him fiercely, in a battle with the COVID19 virus. For those of you that knew David, you knew his sense of humor, laughter, strong work ethic and faith in God.

David Leon Lewis of rural southeast Putnam County was born to Adrian E. Lewis and Elizabeth A. Lewis on March 18, 1951 in Kirksville, Missouri. The first ten years of his childhood were spent north of Kirksville, where he attended the one room school, Bryant. In 1961, he and his family moved to rural southeast Putnam County where he lived until he joined the U.S. Navy in 1969, serving until 1973. Prior to joining the Navy, David attended Martinstown Grade School and on to graduate from the Putnam County R-1 High School in 1969. Growing up he spent his summers riding his bike, riding the family horses, spending quality time with his grandparents and traversing the many acres of timber with his sisters, Ellen Gordon (Tom McDonald) and Connie Michael (Nick) as well as helping his dad with the many farm and livestock responsibilities.

After spending four years in the US Navy on the USS Floyd B Parks DD 884, he returned to northern Missouri where he spent a lifetime farming and thirty years in the construction industry. In 1973 he and Delores Claybrook were married—with this union they had two daughters, Linda Lewis of Kirksville, Missouri and Teresa Pothier (Jade) of Kearney, Missouri.

David and Diana Lynn (Wright) enjoyed fourteen years of marriage. They had a very special and fun relationship, enjoying many USS Floyd B Parks ship mate reunions across the country, motorcycle rides and just being together. David enjoyed, with pride, watching Diana create her beautiful award winning quilts. On the cold and snowy days, he was content to read a good western. David and Diana resided on their farm in southeast Putnam County.

David was blessed to have three wonderful grandchildren who wish they had had his laughter/teasing, strength, guidance and love a little longer. He will continue to look upon, Devin Lewis, Parker Pothier and Olivia Pothier.

David leaves behind many friends and family that will miss him. In addition to his wife, daughters, grandchildren, and sisters, he leaves behind a stepson, Jason Wright (Heidi) of Hammond, IN, and four nephews—Joshua Rennells, Mike Rennells, Dustin Gordon and Tanner Michael. As well as, eight great-nieces and nephews.

David was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Herman and Maggie Lewis; his maternal grandparents, Albert and Marie McKinley; his parents, Adrian and Betty Lewis.

David can be remembered as someone that would, at the drop of a hat, help his neighbors, friends, family or strangers, day or night. He was a natural born “fix it” guy. No matter what was broken he could fix it! He had a passion of restoring old tractors and anything else he thought needed to be improved. Most importantly to David, he was baptized into the Church of Christ in 1969 and was active in the Parkview Church of Christ in Unionville, Missouri.

Being a proud US Navy veteran, his wish was to be buried at the Veteran's Memorial Cemetery in Jacksonville, MO. There will be a public military burial service for David at Jacksonville on April 29th, 2022 at 11:00 a.m.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

CANCER (June 21-July 22) -- Expand your interests and push forward. Take the initiative to use your imagination. Working with someone you love will bring you closer. Shared expenses are favored.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) -- Be a friendly observer, and learn from those with experience. Hone your skills, be open to suggestions and prepare to turn your goal into a reality. Leave nothing to chance personally or professionally.

budget, and take care of time-sensitive matters. Maintain integrity.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) -- Put your plan in motion, then proceed. You can get things done your way if you refuse to let others meddle in your affairs. A change of heart will help you make a decision that sets you free.

SUDOKU

Here's How It Works: Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

“Its one piece of an overall plan there,” Young told the council.

An extension was approved by the planning commission last Wednesday. The extension will be in place until June 2023.

The council unanimously approved the ordinance.

The council passed a resolution appointing City Manager Mari Macomber as representative and John Gardner as alternate representative to the General Membership of the Northeast Missouri Regional Planning Commission (NEMO RPC), a regional planning commission organized to promote future development in the region. The appointments will be for four-year terms.

“Our participation allows us to have input into the things that happen within the region and for us to also benefit from other activities and things the regional planning commission provides to communities,” Macomber told the council, which passed the resolution unanimously.

A second resolution was also passed by the council, that authorized the purchase of three dispatch workstations from Sustema Corporation using the National Cooperative Purchasing Alliance (NCPA) cooperative purchasing program.

According to a staff report, the existing 911 Dispatch Center has two operator positions. Additional workspace is necessary to accommodate training needs, and times when additional dispatching services are needed.

“The existing workstations are in excess of 15 years old, no longer produced, and are not adaptable to the new space,” the report states. “Adding three new consoles will streamline the transfer of operations from the old dispatch center to the new space, ensuring continuity of operations during the transition.”

With the dispatch center moving into another room, the total cost of the project is $61,586, which Fire Chief Jon Cook said was a little over budget but was a cost he could accommodate through other budget adjustments. He said that the move and upgrades were made possible by a grant the department received from NEMO RPC.

“It will make the transition by far the most straightforward and reduce downtime and that sort of thing by being able to install them, move everything over and then flip the switch, so to speak when the time comes to move into the adjacent room,” Cook told the council.

The council unanimously approved the motion.

The council then approved a resolution authorizing the purchase of asphalt cement oil from Marathon Petroleum through Oct. 31. According to a staff report, AC oil is the oil that is used to make asphalt at the asphalt plant. The city solicited bids for AC oil and Marathon Petroleum was the only bid received. The Public Works Department is expected to produce between six and seven million pounds of asphalt in 2022.

City Manager Mari Macomber told the council that because it is a petroleum-based product, the pricing fluctuates, so the exact costs to the city will be difficult to calculate. She said there is $140,000 in the budget that transportation sales tax revenue will be paying for the material.

Councilman John Gardner said that he appreciates seeing the city’s asphalt plant being put to work and that every mile the city gets out of the plant is cheaper than having to contract it out.

“This year, more than ever, that’s very, very important,” he said. “I appreciate the effort put into that and I’m glad we’re able to continue doing that. I hope the prices don’t get too high.”

The council passed the resolution unanimously.

The next resolution passed by the council authorized the mayor to execute a letter of support encouraging the Northeast Missouri Regional Planning Commission Transportation Advisory Commission (TAC) to support the addition of a safety study along Highway 63 within the city limits of Kirksville.

According to a staff report, the city partnered with the Missouri Highway and Transportation Commission to construct the alternate Highway 63 project that includes overpasses at the north and south ends of the roadway and three at-grade crossings at State Highways 6 and 11 and Route P.

“Since this roadway opened in the fall of 2010, numerous vehicular accidents have occurred resulting in loss of life, bodily injury, and property damage,” the report states. “The Missouri Department of Transportation has added flashing lights, rumble strips, and additional signage along this stretch of roadway, and the Kirksville Police Department has stepped up patrol and visibility to encourage safer driving. Despite these efforts, incidents have continued, and concerns from the general public have increased.”

Macomber told the council that they’re asking for letters of support from various city and regional entities to encourage the Missouri Department of Transportation and the Highway Commission to allocate funds and move it up on the list of priorities to evaluate the safety and determine what needs to be done to improve the safety of the Hwy. 63 corridor.

Councilman John Gardner said that his wife was in a significant accident at the Hwy. 11 intersection years ago and that he considers it be very unsafe.

“She fortunately was able to recover from her injuries,” Gardner told the council. “But it’s a really dangerous intersection. We don’t travel on the bypass at all as a family. We just don’t think it’s safe.”

Mayor Zac Burden said that a safety study was more than warranted in the community to see what the possibility is and the Missouri Department of Transportation had a responsibility to ensure safety on their passageways.

“I’m in great support of this,” Burden said. “I’m glad to hear that there are a lot of other entities that are taking a look at this.”

He said that he hoped other groups and even private citizens would want to get involved and help support the initiative as it goes through its various stages.

“I think this is something that our entire community can and should rally behind starting with the safety study and going from there,” Burden said. “I hope this is the start of something very big for our community.”

The council unanimously approved the motion.

April 13 Kirksville R-3 School District regular school board meeting

By Kirksville R-3 School District

The following is a quick summary of discussion and action items from the most recent school board meeting. The full minutes of this and other meetings are available on the district website once they have been approved, typically at the next following board meeting.

School Board Reorganization

The School Board’s April meeting started with presenting John McConnell, Dr. Adam Moore and Gayla McHenry with gifts for completing their terms on the school board. McHenry will fulfill the one term that remains after Dr. Moore’s resignation.

The school board invited a special guest, Judge Matt Wilson, to swear in McHenry for her one year term, Mikey Bishop for a three year term and Julie Sneddon for a three year term. The school board then reorganized electing Dr. Jeremy Houser as school board president, Nan Davis as vice president, Angela Caraway as school board secretary, Nick Billington as school board treasurer, Bishop as MSBA delegate and McHenry as MSBA alternate.

Good Things

James Alter, Brian Wilcox and Shana Stremel presented the school board with the wrestling team, 10 of whom were state qualifiers, four that were medalists and one, Jaden Ballinger, a state champion. The district was able to finish 3rd place as a team in Class 2. Out of four medalists, two were recognized as Academic All-State, by medaling at the state tournament and maintaining a 3.5 or higher GPA. They were Colton Hannah and Hunter Tarr.

The class of 2022 has won district titles three out of their four years with the program. Kevin Crooks told the board he was one of 50 students to be chosen in the state of Missouri to the Ultimate Leadership Program in Jefferson City. Crooks had the opportunity to spend the day with District 2 Representative J. Eggleston, tour the Capitol Building and the Governor’s mansion. Crooks had the opportunity to observe a floor meeting and said it was a lot of bickering but a wonderful experience.

Crooks helps in Ms. Bevill’s kindergarten class and has decided to become a kindergarten teacher. He has also won a state award that is very hard to win and he will be featured on posters throughout the state.

Student Council Report

Cruz Mendez, freshman class president, presented the student council report to the school board and updated the board on the April 19 blood drive. He reported that the high school vending machine is doing well and the top seller is fruit snacks but there is currently a fruit snack shortage. The second most popular snack is the baked potato chips.

Last week student council hosted a Coin War and they collected $695 to donate to the Food Pantry. Next week will be Spring Sports Spirit week so look for that on social media. Mrs. Eitel praised Cruz for his wonderful leadership skills as freshman class president.

Update

Dr. Jeremy Houser read a letter from the attorney general’s office in response to two complaints filed by Ethan Gabel and Ryan Miller against the Kirksville R-III School Board. The school board was found not guilty of any Sunshine Law violations. Anyone interested in reading the full response can email Kristy Panos at kpanos@kirksville.k12.mo.us.

Action Items

The school board approved the general teacher job description to be used as a template for principals when hiring teachers. The board approved seven new individuals for substitute positions in the district. This brings the total to approximately 195 persons.

Chiefs gather with Mahomes in Texas to begin offseason

By Dave Skretta
Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The new faces of the Kansas City Chiefs offense are getting to know each other in the warm Texas sun, rather than the cold Kansas City rain, after Andy Reid decided to make voluntary offseason workouts a virtual exercise this season.

In a departure from his previous three decades of offseason work, Reid said Monday that he's encouraging his players to Zoom into voluntary meetings — rather than attend in person at the Chiefs practice facility — so that they can continue their workouts from anywhere in the country ahead of more formalized team activities next month.

"There's a number of guys here lifting," Reid said, "but again, these are all voluntary camps, all three phases."

That hasn't stopped a number of players from congregating around Patrick Mahomes in Texas, where the star quarterback spends the offseason. Many of them are new faces that the Chiefs have added to the offense after trading three-time All-Pro Tyreek Hill to the Dolphins and losing wide receivers Demarcus Robinson and Byron Pringle in free agency.

Marquez Valdes-Scantling and JuJu Smith-Schuster are the biggest names that Chiefs general manager Brett Veach has landed to help fill Hill's void in the offense. The Chiefs also have signed Ronald Jones II to help at running back, and there are several other players that have been signed to compete for a spot on the roster next season.

The work toward that goal began this week in the virtual meeting room with Reid and his coaches, and on the Texas practice fields with Mahomes, who knows the foundation for a successful season begins long before kickoff in September.

"The biggest thing for the work we've been getting in Texas is to build those relationships," Mahomes said by Zoom. "That's what has made us great the last few years, the bond of our team, the chemistry we have, so we can be who we are. I wanted to get everybody together so they can meet each other, get to know each other and build those friendships."

There are always new faces, even for the most successful of franchises, but the near-total revamp that the Chiefs have had this offseason is rare for a club so stable that it has hosted the past four AFC championship games.

Hill was the biggest departure, shipped to the Dolphins for a slew of draft picks that could further remake the offense next week. It was a move that made eyebrows raise across the league both for the value that Hill has had for Kansas City and for the record contract that Miami gave him the moment he arrived in South Florida.

Smith-Schuster, who showed flashes of stardom in Pittsburgh, and Valdes-Scantling, who must be living right to go from Aaron Rodgers to Mahomes as his quarterback, are high-upside players that Veach believes can balance Hill's production.

"Myself and Brett keep it wide open with Patrick. There's a pretty good chance change will take place throughout your career. That's all part of it," Reid said off the offseason maneuvering.

"It's important that they see that it's part of this game, and change does take place, and I think you beat around the bush on it, I don't think that's good, either."

The change hasn't been solely on the offensive side of the ball, either.

Veteran safety Tyrann Mathieu, who was so important in setting the defense the past three seasons, remains on the free-agent market. The Chiefs also released linebacker Anthony Hitchens, who often relayed the defensive plays.

The Chiefs signed Justin Reid, formerly of the Texans, to take over Mathieu's spot in the secondary. The linebacker group is being turned over to second-year pro Nick Bolton and Willie Gay Jr., a pair of younger players with higher ceilings.

"In this day and age, unfortunately, you can't just pay everybody," Reid said. "It's hard thing to do to extend contracts. You're going to lose a guy here and there. There's how it works."

The result is a team that is certain to look very little like the one that lost in the AFC title game to Cincinnati, and even less like the one that went to back-to-back Super Bowls and won the Chiefs' first championship in five decades.

"I don't need them here right now," Reid said. "We've played a lot of games the past four or five years, maybe more than anybody in the National Football League. I think some time away and bonding with new players is important. And when they get here, they'll be revved up, and we'll be here for quite some time. So these next two weeks they can work and get to know each other away from here and I think that's important."

Truman Athletics Hall of Fame to enshrine two national teams

By Truman State Athletics

The 1997 Truman State Men's Soccer Team and the 1972 Men's Track & Field Team will be inducted into the Truman State University Athletics Hall of Fame in April.

The Bulldog soccer team will be honored on Friday evening during a spring scrimmage with Quincy University at Stokes Stadium followed by an alumni game on Saturday at the Truman Soccer Park. The Track & Field team will be recognized at the Truman Twilight Meet on April 28-29.

1997 Men's Soccer (16-6 – NCAA Final Four)

The Bulldog Men's Soccer team in 1997 advanced to the NCAA Final Four after winning their sixth Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association title and fourth straight. Dennis Sweeney's team went 14-5 during the regular season and was selected to their fourth NCAA Division II tournament in the past seven years.

Round one was a match again rival Southern Illinois Edwardsville in frigid conditions. The Cougars struck three minutes into the match to take the early lead. Senior Jimmy Duran deflected a shot off the post from Adrian Marrero for the equalizer. Now late in the match, Marrero scored the winner off a pass from Jeremy Jackson to give Truman their first postseason victory.

The Bulldogs returned home and faced East Stroudsburg (Pa.) University with a ticket to the Final Four on the line. It was Marrero again getting the lone goal as his header off a corner kick in the 14th minute stood up for the win.

Truman traveled to Boca Raton, Florida for the Final Four and faced California State-Bakersfield in the national semifinals. The Roadrunners scored a first half goal off a corner kick. The Bulldogs thought they tied the match early in the second half but Jimmy Duran's goal was waved off due to a foul. Bakersfield would score with 20 minutes left to seal the victory and they would eventually win the national title two days later.

Marerro finished with a team-high 15 goals. He was one of six Bulldogs to earn First Team All-MIAA honors along with Matt Berry, Make Quante, Heine Anderson, Lee Letourneau and MIAA Most Valuable Player Steve Wilhuesen. Scott Meis, second team, and Jimmy Duran, honorable mention, were also listed for the Bulldogs.

Andersen, Marrero and Quante were all named to the NSCAA All-Region team, Andersen was a first team selection.

1972 Men's Track & Field Team

Legendary coach Kenneth Gardner led the Bulldogs to sweep both the indoor and outdoor Missouri Intercollegiate Athletics Association track and field championships and along with eight All-American's to a third place finish at the NCAA College Division Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

Tom Geredine and Larry Jones brought home individual national championships that year with Geredine winning the triple jump and Jones taking the 440-yard run. In addition, Geredine earned all-America honors in the long jump. The Mile relay team of Bob Gonzales, Jones, Rob Nelson and Wayne Ventiling earned all-American honors as well as Don Allbritton in the Pole Vault and Dennis Littrell in the High Jump.

Jones still holds the Truman indoor record in the 400-meter dash with a time of 47.44 set in 1974 while Albritton is the record holder still in the indoor and outdoor pole vault, clearing over 16 feet as well as the decathlon. Geredine owns the Stokes Stadium triple jump record of 15.32 (50-03.25) meters and the Bulldog indoor long jump record of 7.67 m (25-02.50).

Gardner was a Bulldog through and through as he captained the football team in 1946, coached track & field from 1952-1981 and served as the Director of Athletics from 1974 until his retirement in 1988. The track at Stokes Stadium was dedicated in his honor in 1996. Gardner led six teams to top 10 NCAA finishes with his 1972 team placing the highest of any squad. His teams won 34 MIAA Track & Field Championships, with 42 Bulldogs earning All-America honors.

Newly married Pablo López shuts out Cards over 7 innings

By AP

MIAMI — Pablo López pitched three-hit ball over seven dominant innings days after getting married and the Miami Marlins beat the St. Louis Cardinals 5-0 Thursday night.

Jesús Sánchez and Jazz Chisholm Jr. homered for the Marlins, who snapped an eight-game losing skid against St. Louis. The Cardinals swept two series last season and won the first two games in Miami.

López and wife Kaylee were married during Miami's day off Monday, and López (2-0) celebrated with one of his best starts.

He struck out nine, including Cardinals star Albert Pujols three times. The right-hander retired his final 11 batters and extended Miami starters' scoreless innings streak to 15 innings after Sandy Alcantara threw eight shutout innings Wednesday.

"That was really exciting having the opportunity to face him," López said of striking out Pujols. "I grew up watching him and all the amazing things he did."

López lowered his ERA to 0.52 through his first three starts of the season.

"You want to make your pitches and stay ahead,"

Local athletes smash meet records at Truman State track invite

Tuesday had to be the day for Knox County's Jen Hinkle. After several windy track meets, she went into Tuesday's Truman State High School Invitational anticipating strong results in the javelin since there was no breeze. She wanted to hit 40 meters so badly and knew she had that power somewhere deep inside her. Her first two throws were well short. Her third came in just under at 39.71 meters. "On my last one, I was like, 'I haven't hit 40 yet, I know it's in me, I've got to do it,'" said Hinkle, who finished fourth in javelin at the Class 1 state track meet last season. "That's when I went to work and got it done and over."

That fourth and final throw went 44.42 meters, giving her first place in the event by nearly a full 10 meters. It continues to bump up her own school record and also smashed a meet record, which was previously set at 34.19 meters. "After I threw and I heard the number, I just started crying," Hinkle said. "Because I just felt so accomplished, and it was really emotional, and I didn't know I set a meet record until (it was announced). Then it was going through my head again, 'Oh, I did it.'"

In total, 11 new meet records were set Tuesday, with local athletes doing the bulk of that damage. Green City's Asher Buggs-Tipton and Scotland County's Hayden Long each broke two. Buggs-Tipton set new marks in the 110m and 300m hurdles, and Long claimed records in discus and javelin. Kirkville's Jersey Herbst and Owen Fraser set new records in the girls 100m hurdles and shot put (16.09 meters). And Putnam County's Jake Rouse broke the pole vault record (3.50 meters). Buggs-Tipton, who won four state titles last spring, has hit a stride as of late. He dealt with a strange injury to start the year, where his knee would lock up. That issue popped up at Kirkville's Snowshoe Classic a few weeks ago, but it hasn't re-emerged since then. So to get good times Tuesday without dealing with any wind, he was in great spirits.

Kirksville girls soccer settles in for overtime win against Moberly

By Austin Miller
Daily Express

Kirksville girls soccer just needed a breather Thursday.

After 80 minutes of regulation, where the Tigers were locked at 2-2 against Moberly, Kirksville had a chance to reset before starting overtime. Sometimes the breather is metaphorical, but coach Shawn Meintz felt it was needed literally. After screaming “calm down” for most of the match — and realizing the contradiction there — Meintz spoke calmly and told all the players to take a deep breath in, then exhale slowly.

“We really went with more of a psychological approach to that overtime piece because I knew if we went out the same way, we’d have the same result. And we needed something different,” Meintz said. “So it was an opportunity to try and calm them down, because we’re a good team when we play our way. We need to be able to play our way, even when under pressure.”

He got his desired outcome as a more calm Tigers squad took the pitch for overtime — and made that time brief. The Tigers only needed 71 seconds for sophomore Lucy Tiedemann score and grab a 3-2 win.

“In that part of the game — that was definitely the best possession we played throughout the game,” Tiedemann said. “We were just calm, we were seeing all the open passes.”

“The anger and rush of it didn’t cloud our vision,” said senior defender Kelsey Bird.

The Tigers started strong with a Frida Ramirez goal five minutes into the match. Riley McLain broke through and had a clear shot, but it bounced off the bar. Ramirez grabbed the rebound and put it away for an early lead.

But soon after that, Moberly took over the match with a ton of ferocity and physicality. The Spartans charged at every ball, beating the Tigers to almost every one. This was a more aggressive team than the Tigers saw back on March 28, where Kirksville (9-4) won a 2-1 game. The Spartans (6-7) were out for revenge.

Moberly’s Zaylee Heaton tied the game around the 12-minute mark. Then Macy White put Moberly ahead with a long shot near the 20-yard-line that just lobbed over Kirksville goalie Catherine Freeman.

The Tigers were out of sorts most of the game due to Moberly’s pressure. Not getting a chance to settle and think about a pass, the Tigers were left kicking the ball around aimlessly a lot of the time. Or good passes were a touch too strong because they just wanted to get rid of it.

“I think we fought well this game. That’s a good team Moberly’s got. They put us under a lot of pressure. Physical and emotional pressure,” Meintz said. “It’s really the first time we’ve had to respond to something quite like that. It was like a frenzy, like playing in a storm or something.”

McLain tied the game at 2-2 about 14 minutes into the second half. Kirksville had a great chance to go ahead a few minutes later when McLain found an open Tiedemann. Tiedemann only had Moberly goalie Laine Ross to beat, but her shot missed to the left by about one foot.

Kirksville had a tough time keeping possession, but they picked a good time to have their best one of the night. Ramirez, who moved to center back for most of the game after Riley Pinkerton departed with a hyperextended knee, came away with a loose ball on Kirksville’s side of the field early in OT. She dished to McLain, who marched up the field with the ball. Recognizing all the space in the right corner, she sent a through ball for Tiedemann to collect. Tiedemann had one defender to get around, which she did.

Still, Tiedemann had a tough angle to shoot from on the right side of the field, but her shot was dead on the money.

“I didn’t think it was going in,” Tiedemann said. “... But right when I saw it go in, I was so excited, and it was pretty fast, too. I was so excited and happy. Moberly played really well tonight.”

The players don’t believe there was any placebo effect with Meintz’s breathing exercise.

“(Moberly’s) kind of pressure is to just sprint at the ball — sprinting at them so they know, ‘Oh, there’s a person coming after me,’” Bird said. “That freaks us out sometimes. With our calmness in overtime, that changed how we thought.”

Moberly prevented Kirksville from playing the style of soccer the Tigers want to. For 70 or so minutes, the Tigers were frazzled.

So the main takeaway from victory is how they found a way to persevere and get the job done in spite of that.

“I think we struggled with the pressure a bit, but it was a good test for us. They really did work us in a way we hadn’t been worked before,” Meintz said.

TRACK

After winning both hurdles races, against tough competition, he celebrated afterwards since he knew he ran well. He finished the 110m hurdles in 14.85 seconds and the 300m hurdles in 39.09 seconds, which was a new PR for him in that race. Those meet records were previously owned by former Gopher Cameron Conner.

“Just a confidence booster for the next couple of meets,” Buggs-Tipton said. “I’ve worked really hard for this stuff. It’s been in my head, on my achievement list, and I achieved it today.”

“All those practices in the cold are paying off.”

As the calendar quickly flips through the spring, postseason track meets aren’t that far away. If Buggs-Tipton wants another decorated run at state, now is the time to start ramping up.

“It’s kind of telling me to get it together, start getting extra focus for these next couple meets,” Buggs-Tipton said. “I don’t have too many left to get practice in, get conditioning in.”

Much like Hinkle, Long continues to break his own throwing records at Scotland County. He keeps topping his own marks as the season rolls along.

He took rolls in discus with a throw of 50.02 meters. He then won javelin with a throw of 52.08 meters. For him, those two events have meshed well for him. As he focused on his technique for discus, he found he needed to do the same for discus. He broke down his throw into pieces to make sure his body worked in unison. Now, it’s a matter of repetition to keep throwing farther. But discus, which set a new PR for him, did surprise him a bit.

“It kind of came out of nowhere,” Long said. “It was one of those things where things clicked, I hit a 50-meter throw and broke the school record. I was really happy with disc today.”

At the starting line for the girls 100m hurdles race, Herbst heard what the meet record was. It was a win for Green City’s Katelyn Conner in 17.32 seconds in 2018. Herbst thought to herself that she might as well try to break it.

When she crossed the finish line and saw her time of 17.18 seconds, she was excited.

With more results like that and wins like she had Tuesday, the sophomore Tiger is building confidence in herself. She got her own introduction before the 300m hurdles race as a state medalist in that race.

“It makes me feel like, yeah, I can do this. Whenever I hear my name, it’s like, yeah, I went to state ... but I’m here to do what I’m supposed to do,” Herbst said. “I went to state, so I have to show people that my name was said for a reason, and I have to try my best and run my hardest.”

The Kirksville girls came away as the team winner for the meet after accumulating 149 points. Highland came in second with 141 points.

López said. “Being able to stay ahead today was huge.”

Sánchez raced home from third on Paul DeJong’s throwing error in the second to give the Marlins a 1-0 lead.

Miami increased its advantage in the fourth after St. Louis catcher Yadier Molina’s passed ball from reliever Drew VerHagen’s sinker allowed Sánchez to score again from third.

Sánchez drove reliever Aaron Brooks’ changeup into the seats in right-center for his third homer. Moments after being hurried into the batters’ box by plate umpire Phil Cuzzi, Chisholm hit a two-run shot against Brooks in the seventh.

“When he was trying to rush me in, I said wait, so I had to lock in quick,” Chisholm said.

Tanner Scott pitched a scoreless eighth and Anthony Bass closed.

“To get this win is big because you don’t know where a streak starts,” Marlins manager Don Mattingly said. “You don’t know where you get on that roll where you’re able to win eight out of 10 or 10 out of 15, whatever it is. That has to start somewhere. To be able to stop what was going on the last couple of night, we feel good about ourselves.”

Converted reliever Jordan Hicks (1-1) made his first career start for St. Louis, working three innings on 46 pitches. Hicks, who has appeared in 114 relief outings with the Cardinals, allowed one run, two hits, struck out two and walked two. He threw 14 pitches at least 100 mph.

“The only thing I would say is different is the routine before the game,” Hicks said. “Just getting the fluid in, going on the mound and making that walk. But besides that, it’s not too much different. I liked a lot about it, what I didn’t really like were the walks.”

The Cardinals plan to moderately extend Hicks’ workload as he adapts to his new role.

Nolan Arenado had three of St. Louis’ five hits while Tommy Edman went hitless in three at-bats, ending his 12-game hitting streak dating to last season.

“He had a good feel for his changeup, located it all night,” St. Louis manager Oliver Marmol said of López’s outing. “It was a good pitch for him, Made it difficult for us.”
