Tomahawk Area Historical Society taps longtime printer Louie Heuser as luncheon guest speaker

FOR THE TOMAHAWK LEADER

TOMAHAWK – Longtime printer Louie Heuser was the guest speaker at this year's Tomahawk Area Historical Society Speaker Luncheon, held on Tuesday, Aug. 15 at Inshalla Country Club in Tomahawk.

Heuser recently retired after running his own print shop in the Town of Nokomis. Prior to that, he worked at the Tomahawk Leader for many years.

During the luncheon, Heuser shared stories about his experiences and local history through displays, including Letterpress print blocks of old business logos, people and buildings. Bound volumes of the Tomahawk Leader and one of the books of clippings of local business histories, compiled by local historian Elaine Koth, were available to view.

Those in attendance were also shown a video about linotype machines, which Thomas Edison referred to as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." Heuser still operates one Historical Society members hope Heuser's antique printing equipment can be saved and showcased in a local museum one day.

Summer Knights Car Club sponsors new bench in Veterans Memorial Park

BY JALEN MAKI
TOMAHAWK LEADER
EDITOR

TOMAHAWK – A group of local car enthusiasts recently sponsored a new bench that was placed in a Tomahawk park.

Art Moritz, Founder and President of the Summer

Knights Car Club, said the proceeds to install the bench came from the several annual car shows the club is involved in, including the club's own Father's Day weekend event.

Each year, the 80-plus-member club chooses area charities to make donations to. In years past, the Summer Knights Car Club has contributed to the Tomahawk Food Pantry, Our Sisters' House homeless shelter and the Lincoln County Humane Society.

This year, the club decided to donate funds to the Fredrick Place homeless shelter in Rhinelander, along with sponsoring a bench in Veterans Memorial Park in Tomahawk.

Moritz said the club plans to donate a similar bench elsewhere in the near future.

"Our donations (are) of no less than $500.00, which seems like not much, but it all helps in different ways," Moritz stated, noting that as long as the club's shows continue to be popular among automobile fans, the club will be able to continue its community involvement.

Moritz said he is appreciative of the Tomahawk community.

"When we go out for sponsorship, the Tomahawk businesses are very generous and have supported our club each and every year," he stated. "We would like to thank them all, who keep our efforts and mission on track."

OBITUARIES

Obituary updates are posted at www.tomahawkleader.com

Terry L. Scholz, 62, of Tomahawk, passed away Sunday, Aug. 13, 2023 at the Aspirus Tomahawk Hospital after a long and courageous nine-year battle with cancer.

Terry was born June 23, 1961 in Tomahawk, the daughter of Phillip Kleinfeldt and Janet (Jaecks) Rysdon. She was the oldest of three children. Terry was employed as a janitor at the Tomahawk School District for 19 years and dearly enjoyed all students and faculty that she served. She was a member of the Vineyard Church. Terry enjoyed working with her husband on the family farm raising chickens, beef cattle and pigs. She enjoyed watching the birds fill their bellies, campfires, fishing, gardening and canning. Terry was an exceptional baker, a cook who would leave your mouth watering and craving those meals for days. Her Faith was so strong and she would pray for anyone at the drop of a hat. She was a wonderful friend, an exceptional mother and would bend over backwards to help anyone. Her grandchildren held such a special place in her heart; she loved spending time with them doing crafts, telling stories, sharing the Love that God has for them, laughing and showering them with hugs and kisses.

She was united in marriage on Oct. 6, 1979 to Arthur Scholz and he preceded her in death Feb. 13, 2019. Surviving are her daughters, Christina (Todd) Copiskey; Jennifer (Matthew) Derleth; son, Eric Scholz; brother-in-law, Gerald "Jerry" Kottke; and four grandchildren, Caden, Alison, Avery and Emmett.

She was preceded in death by her parents; step-mother, Jane Kleinfeldt; husband of 40 years, Arthur; sister, Lisa Kottke; and a brother, Carl Kleinfeldt.

Services were held at 11 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 18, 2023 at Northwoods Vineyard Church, Tomahawk, with Pastor Ross Nelson officiating. Visitation was held from 9 a.m. to time of services at church. Burial followed at Spirit Falls Cemetery. Krueger Nimsgerm Funeral and Cremation Service cared for the family. You may view the obituary and share online condolences at www.kruegerfamilyfuneral.com.

WE PLAN – GOD LAUGHS

This has been the year of class reunions for both my wife and me. She celebrated her 55th, and I, my 63rd. One of the things that I always find interesting is how many of us ended up in careers that were different than what we had planned in High School. There is an old Yiddish proverb that says: "man plans and God laughs." I think that is based on Proverbs 16:9 which says: "the human mind plans the way but God directs the steps."

As I visited with classmates, they would tell me that they had one plan but God had another and God was right! Most were very glad that God had directed them to a different career. Jeremiah 29:11 says "I know the plans I have for you says the Lord..." God is reminding us of Who is in charge.

The other insight has to do with the concept of reunions themselves. We can have a reunion with Christ every day. He is always ready to listen to our concerns, our joys, our sorrows and he promises to give us that rest and peace of mind that we so often seek (Matt 11: 28-30).

The beautiful thing about a reunion with Christ is that it doesn't matter how long we've been gone – we're always welcome to return.

Do you need a reunion with Christ? If so, just return to him in prayer. He'll be listening and you won't even have to leave home as I did to attend my reunion in New York. I know you will be welcome and you will feel right at home.

So, if you need a reminder of who's in charge of your life – go to a class reunion. You made plans – God laughed...and led you down the path He designed for you!

Class action lawsuit filed against Ahlstrom-Rhineland, 3M seeks to recoup PFAS-related costs

BY EILEEN PERSIKE
MMC STAFF

RHINELANDER – A class action lawsuit has been filed against Ahlstrom-Rhineland paper mill and 3M for their alleged roles in "contaminating private well drinking water in Oneida County" with PFAS chemicals in the area around the Town of Stella east of Rhineland.

The website www.businesswire.com reports a law firm based in Dallas, Tex., is handling the case, which was filed on behalf of six residents on Wednesday, Aug. 9 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin.

The lawsuit alleges the application of waste from the paper mill onto farmland in the county caused the contamination in nearby private wells. These PFAS chemicals were produced and sold by 3M Company.

"It is Ahlstrom's policy not to comment in detail on open litigation," Addie Teeters, head of marketing communications and public affairs for Ahlstrom North America, told the Northwoods Star Journal. "While we are still reviewing the complaint, it appears to focus on activities that are alleged to have occurred prior to Ahlstrom's acquisition of the mill in 2018."

According to the Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources (DNR), more than half the private wells tested for PFAS in Stella have come back positive for what are called "forever chemicals."

Per- and polyfluoroalkyl substances are man-made chemicals used to create non-stick, stain resistant and water-proof products. They are called forever chemicals because they don't break down and spread easily, contaminating groundwater, surface water and soil.

Some of the highest levels of PFAS in the country are found in the Stella area. The Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS) says anything more than 20 parts per trillion (ppt) is unsafe; some of the wells tested in Stella were as high as 35,000 ppt.

The lawsuit seeks to recoup costs associated with remediation/access to clean water, past and future water testing, loss of use and enjoyment of property and decreases in property value.

Ronald (Ron) Harold Nicklaus passed away on Monday, Aug. 7, 2023, at the Aspirus Hospice House in Wausau. He was born on Feb. 9, 1936, in San Jacinto, Calif. Son of Elmer Nicklaus and Jessie (Cottrell) Nicklaus.

Ron's parents moved from Irma, Wis., to San Jacinto, Calif., in 1934. Jessie had family living in California. They returned to Wisconsin in 1937 and purchased a dairy farm from Henry Magnuson in 1942 where Ron was raised along with his sister, Jeanette Jensen. It was their first home that had electricity and real Christmas lights. Ron attended Tug Lake School, a one-room school with 12 students, grades 1st through 8th grade. The school was just up the hill from the family farm where his father, Elmer would make the fire in the morning every winter before milking the cows. Ron graduated from Merrill High School in 1954. He attended the University of Wisconsin Marathon campus for two years and worked at Weinbrenner Shoe Company in Merrill.

In 1958, he was drafted into the Army and received basic training in Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., and trained in the army at Fort Knox, Ky. In 1961, Ron had to report to Fort Lewis, Wash. While stationed at Fort Lewis, Tacoma, Wash., he would come into Seattle, where he met Ellen (Kay) Delmore on a blind date. They fell deeply in love and later married in Duluth, Minn., on Nov. 16, 1962. They traveled the world together.

Ron was a dreamer, visionary, and entrepreneur. He founded a custom bean harvesting business, Nicklaus Enterprises in 1956, that supplied green beans for the canning industry. Ron convinced his parents to sell the 30 head of cattle that they owned and borrow as much as they could against the farm to start the business. This business grew into a company that harvested over 36,000 acres of beans a year in nine different states. Most of the harvesting was done in Wisconsin. As he grew the harvesting operation, he developed 6,000 acres of irrigated land in central Wisconsin near Coloma. The business made him the largest supplier of green beans in the world. He also grew potatoes, corn, cucumbers, sunflowers, and rye.

Banking played a huge role in the growth of Ron's business, and as a result, he became very interested in the banking industry. In 1982, he sold the harvesting business and land he had developed and bought controlling interest in River Valley State Bank in Rothschild, Wis. He also acquired New London National Bank and Farmers State Bank, both located in Wisconsin. His philosophy was that every customer, business, and community is unique, which allowed his banking business to grow and flourish along with the communities they served. The bank was changed to IncredibleBank in 2019 and is currently the fourth largest privately owned community bank in the state.

Ron loved his family and loved life. This was evident in the time he spent with his children and grandchildren, making up games, telling stories, fishing, hunting, golfing in Florida, going to the Fair, and just about anything else a kid would love to do. All who knew Ron were aware of his passion for birds, flowers, the farm, old tractors and cars, and Old Camp 2 (hunting camp). The last 10 years, on any given day during summer, you can find him at the farm tending to the crops, visiting his crew for lunch, fixing equipment, and making connections with all the generations that worked at the farm. He was most proud that all the produce from the farm was given away to employees, customers, neighbors, food pantries, and other organizations in need. Ron loved to give and he was so proud he could do this.

He served on numerous business and community boards: Greenheck Group (27 years), Weinbrenner Shoe Company (33 years), Rainbo Lodge, Dealer's Credit, Good Samaritan Hospital (Merrill), Aspirus Healthcare System, Wausau Benefits, IncredibleBank, River Valley Bancorporation.

Survivors include his wife, Kay (Delmore) of more than 60 years, two sons, Todd (Camille), and Gregory (Darcey), and six grandsons, Steven (Elizabeth), Michael, Christopher, Tanner, Connor, and River, and nephews, Nicky (Lisa) Jensen and Mark (Cathy) Jensen, and brother-in-law, Wilhelm Jensen. He was preceded in death by his parents, Elmer and Jessie (Cottrell) Nicklaus, and sister Jeanette Jensen.

Aspirus Hospice House was a huge gift to our family. The care Ron received was tender, gentle, and joyful. The nurses and volunteers were angels, and we are so thankful.

A visitation will be held at Waid Funeral Home, Merrill, on Friday, Aug. 25, 2023, from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. A visitation will continue on Saturday, Aug. 26, 2023 at St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, N6537 Old Hwy. 51, Irma, at 10 a.m. with a church service at 11 a.m. Rev. David J. Sutton will officiate. Due to the space being limited at the church, there will be both indoor and outdoor seating for those who wish to attend. Interment will take place at Woodlawn Cemetery in the Town of Rock Falls immediately following the service. Military honors will be performed by the VFW Post 1638 and the U.S. Army.

Donations can be made in Ron's memory to the Merrill Historical Society, Merrill Public Library, and Aspirus Hospice House, Wausau.

Waid Funeral Home & Cremation Service of Merrill is assisting the family with arrangements. Online condolences are encouraged and may be made at www.waidfuneral.com.

TOMAHAWK - The Tomahawk Community Theater offered its first Children's Theater Workshop last month.

PINE CREST

asking Lincoln County taxpayers to support Pine Crest operations and maintenance or exploring the sale of the facility to a privately-owned, skilled nursing home care provider.

With the proposed referendum resolution's failure, Pine Crest's future remains uncertain.

Public comment period

A large portion of last week's roughly two-and-a-half-hour meeting was focused on Pine Crest.

The meeting was well-attended by members of the public, with several individuals holding signs with messages in support of the proposed referendum.

Prior to the vote on the resolution, about a dozen people utilized the meeting's public comment period to voice their support for Lincoln County's continued ownership of Pine Crest and the proposed referendum.

Dr. Laurie Wolf said she and her husband each had more than 30 years of medical experience in the area. Her husband was previously employed at Pine Crest.

Wolf called Pine Crest a "local treasure where community members have been diligent and caring for patients from their own community, and sometimes their own families."

Judy Woller told the board she had spoken to residents of each of Lincoln County's 22 Supervisory Districts.

"I have not found anybody who wants to have Pine Crest sold," she stated.

Woller said she hoped the board would "vote for what's good for the people in Pine Crest and what's good for the people in Lincoln County."

"They deserve nothing better than that," Woller said. "That's why they elected you to represent them."

Irene Mehlos told the board that if Pine Crest were to be sold to a private, for-profit entity, "the county and the people will lose any say over what happens to it in the future."

"There is no guarantee it will remain a skilled nursing home, much less a five-star rated one, when it does not bring the desired profit," she said.

Mehlos said area seniors "are not for profit."

"If you ask them, if you ask us, the people here care about what happens to our seniors, and we care about each other," she stated.

"This referendum is how you ask them. If you choose to support it, I believe history will look favorably on you as a county board who faced difficult challenges, listened to the people and responded to their needs. If not, if it's just about finding the easiest path forward to get in the black for the short term, the problem will only grow as our population ages. To sell Pine Crest is to sell out on the people."

Todd Frederick voiced his support for the proposed referendum, saying the roughly $85.00 tax impact for $100,000.00 of assessed value over the course of ten years is "a small price to pay if it means Pine Crest will be here for generations."

"This is too big for just the board to make the decision," Frederick stated. "The citizens should have the right to decide this issue. Let them vote, and then we will all know the direction people want."

Discussion, vote

The board's discussion on the resolution, authored by District 6 Supervisor Norbert Ashbeck and co-sponsored by District 22 Supervisor Greg Hartwig, began a little over an hour into the meeting.

In providing a brief overview of the resolution, Ashbeck said he originally looked at a 20-year plan. Ashbeck explained that Lincoln County Maintenance Director Patrick Gierl estimated that maintenance costs over that period of time would total around $20 million. Most of the work would need to occur within a decade, leading to Ashbeck crafting a ten-year proposal.

Ashbeck said that after taking care of necessary improvements over the ten-year referendum, there would "hopefully" be less capital outlay "because most of the stuff would be newer."

"I feel the people should have a voice to vote," Ashbeck stated.

By voting in support of the resolution, Ashbeck added, the board itself would not be raising taxes.

"A 'yes' means we're giving the people in Lincoln County the choice to vote whether they want to raise taxes or not," he stated.

A proposed amendment seeking to raise the referendum request from $3 million per year to $4.5 million per year failed after receiving an 11-11 tie vote.

Another proposed amendment, which sought to hold the referendum later this year rather than next spring, was also rejected. Lincoln County Clerk Chris Marlowe said the earliest the county could have held the referendum would have been around mid-November, under State statutes. Marlowe estimated this would have a carried a roughly $30,000.00 price tag for the county.

Upon returning to discussion on the original resolution, District 21 Supervisor Eugene Simon said that although he "(doesn't) like the idea of Pine Crest going away," maintaining county ownership of the facility is a "losing proposition" from a fiscal standpoint.

"If the referendum fails, Pine Crest closes," Simon stated, adding that in regard to a potential referendum, "you're playing with fire, in my opinion. ... Remember, that if the referendum succeeds, there will be more referendums down the road. ... I'm willing to tell you that $85.00 a year is a pipe dream. It is not going to stop there, because costs are increasing."

Simon opined that the county's best course of action is to sell Pine Crest.

"This is way too early, in my estimation, to run a referendum," he said. "Power to the people, but be careful what you ask for, because I think other voters, those not here tonight, are probably not going to be real happy about their taxes going up, nor are the developers or the businesses."

District 13 Supervisor Calvin Callahan said he was "a little wary of a referendum" because he was "not satisfied with the $3 million number."

"We have heard why that number is not sufficient, and I feel as if we are going to be in the same boat ten years down the road, making this decision again," he stated.

Callahan said his goal is to "keep the services that Pine Crest offers here in Merrill, to keep the doors open for all citizens to use when that time comes and to keep the people that are employed under Pine Crest employed for hopefully longer than ten years."

Callahan added that he believed the board's decision would be "based on those three pieces of criteria."

"You may not be happy with it, but I know what I'm going to be voting to do, and that's because I know it's going to be the right choice to ensure that all of you who are residents at Pine Crest can remain there and the people that need to go there in the future have a place to go," he stated.

District 14 Supervisor Brian Hafeman noted that

Spirit-Hill-Ogema 4-H holds 81st annual fair

FOR THE TOMAHAWK LEADER

TOWN OF SPIRIT – A total of 19 youths took part in the 81st annual Spirit-Hill-Ogema 4-H Fair earlier this month.

The fair was held at the Spirit Town Hall on Friday, Aug. 11 and Saturday, Aug. 12, where members of the Hillbillies, Happy Hoboes and Hamburg Hawks clubs exhibited more than 300 entries.

Twenty-plus volunteers served as department superintendents and judges at the fair.

Spirit Historical Society members offered tours of Our Yesterday House throughout the day Saturday, and Historical displays about previous fairs were set up in the hall.

A release from the clubs said many community members viewed the indoor exhibits, watched the live animal judging and enjoyed the brat fry-style lunch, along with popcorn and ice cream served up by club members and parents.

“Adults and children participated in afternoon games, including tug-of-war, nail pounding and bicycle stop-on-a-dime,” the release stated. “An evening program included entertaining skits from the participating 4-H clubs, presentation of trophies and acknowledgment of merit winners, and announcements of game winners.”

LINCOLN COUNTY SHERIFF'S REPORT

As reported by the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office Wednesday, Aug. 16:

On 08-10-2023 a deputy on patrol stopped a vehicle in N. 4th St. in the City of Tomahawk for operating without tail lights. When attempting to stop the vehicle the driver turned his tail lights on. When stopped the deputy made contact with the driver, a Rhinelander man, 24. The driver advised that he was on probation, didn't have a valid driver's license and was supposed to have an ignition interlock device on his car, but did not. The deputy detected the odor of intoxicants and as such placed the driver through field sobriety tests. As a result of those tests, he was placed under arrest for second offense OWI, along with a probation hold and other criminal charges. The driver was later transported to the Lincoln County Jail.

On 08-11-2023 a deputy on patrol stopped a vehicle for speeding on E. Main St. near Big Eddy Rd. in the City of Merrill. Upon making contact with the driver, a man, 22, from Bowling Green, Ohio, the deputy noticed an odor of marijuana. The driver than admitted to the presence of marijuana in the car and the fact that he had been smoking before driving. A deputy with special training in performing drug-related sobriety tests was called to the scene and did an observation and sobriety tests on the driver, and as a result, he was placed under arrest for OWI drug-related. He was later transported to the Lincoln County Jail. There were six reported car-deer crashes this week.

in the event the referendum would fail, the county would still have the option to “look for possible buyers” for Pine Crest or extend the county’s contract with Marcus & Millichap, which runs through early next year but expires before the Spring Election.

“I just don’t see why wouldn’t give this every opportunity,” Hafeman said.

Friske pointed out that Lincoln County’s population has remained stagnant over the last roughly 40 years, while the county’s property tax rate is $5.47 per $1,000.00 of valuation, among the highest in the state. The state average is $3.80 per $1,000.00 of valuation.

“If we’re feeling the pinch, it’s because we have not grown,” Friske stated. “We are sitting on ascending expenditure requirements and no additional population or revenue. You can’t continue to function and provide for things that are not mandated by the state.”

Lincoln County’s sales tax revenue is around the state average, while the property tax levy per capita was above the state average in 2021, Friske added.

“We tax our people enough,” he stated. “It isn’t about how much money we bring in, folks. It’s about how much money we spend.”

Friske said the previous iteration of the board, at the recommendation of the county’s Finance Committee, voted to reduce Pine Crest’s bed count by 40 beds. The facility is able to hold 160 bed licenses.

“We only have 120 bed licenses,” Friske stated. “The best you can do is to have it two-thirds full. ... We’re operating at 80. We’re only half full, and we’re only staffed for 90. The ability for us to continue to operate the way it is, we don’t have the capacity to do that.”

After further discussion, the original resolution was ultimately defeated by a 13-9 vote.

Voting in favor were Ashbeck, Hafeman, Hartwig, District 1 Supervisor William Bialecki, District 2 Supervisor Lori Anderson-Malm, District 3 Supervisor Elizabeth McCrank, District 5 Supervisor Don Wendorf, District 7 Supervisor Greta Rusch and District 19 Supervisor Julie Allen.

Voting against were Callahan, DePasse, Friske, Simon, District 4 Supervisor Steve Osness Jr., District 8 Supervisor Laurie Thiel, District 10 Supervisor Jesse Boyd, District 11 Supervisor Randy Detert, District 15 Supervisor Marty Lemke, District 16 Supervisor Dana Miller, District 17 Supervisor James Meunier, District 18 Supervisor Ken Wickham and District 20 Supervisor Angela Cummings.

Next county board meeting

The next meeting of the Lincoln County Board of Supervisors will be held at the Lincoln County Service Center in Merrill on Tuesday, Sept. 19 at 6 p.m.

Thomas Hensel recently donated $10,000.00 to the Lincoln County Humane Society. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Residents of Lincoln County will ultimately pay the price

Last week, Lincoln County's board rejected voter choice regarding Pine Crest's future. Credit goes to the nine members who listened to the 100 plus present in support of keeping Pine Crest, along with the hundreds of signatures, a multitude of phone calls and contacts, and voted for the referendum.

The referendum offered a brief overview of projected costs. One testimony calculated that the annual tax impact of $85.14 per $100,000 of equalized value works out to less than $8.00/month on a property of that equalized value.

Supervisor Calvin Callahan felt compelled to personally point out that he is not a "Pine Crest Killer", but supports the nursing home. One can understand the confusion over his statement when Supervisor Callahan has consistently voted to sell Pine Crest and against a voter referendum.

The claim that supplemental state subsidies all went to Madison nursing homes and not to us because of Governor Evers is false. Lincoln County simply did not qualify for those funds because of an earlier county decision regarding projected deficits.

Certain supervisors tried to muddy the issue by claiming that the annual cost should be $4.5 million rather than the proposed $3 million. When pressed about the source of that higher figure it was determined that the higher figure was based on older, outdated COVID projections.

One supervisor apparently felt that since three accountants were involved, (credentials not offered), we should just accept that higher projection. No disrespect intended, but too many bookkeepers become bean counters who do not excel at solutions but can only see the sky falling.

As one supervisor pointed out, that much higher figure was thrown in to put off voter support. And indeed, fear was used. At one point the claim was made that if the referendum was voted down by the electorate, the county would be forced to close Pine Crest. No, if a referendum to keep Pine Crest failed, the board could return to the option to sell.

The question of placing more taxes on the taxpayers was brought up. But not the fact that all taxpayers, and some donors, have consistently contributed to Pine Crest over the decades and have a vested interest in continuing ownership. Unfortunately, throughout the entire process, neither the board nor its ad hoc committee spent much time on solutions to keep Pine Crest. It became painfully evident that the intent to sell was present from the very beginning with little to no effort on keeping it a county service.

If Pine Crest is sold, what will happen to the Social Services/Health Department building and their services?

And that is the crux of this issue – county services. Since this board was seated in 2022, their obvious agenda was to eliminate as many county-supported services as possible. The old saying of "penny wise, but pound foolish" applies to many of this board's decisions.

Unfortunately, we, the residents of Lincoln County, will ultimately pay the price.

Town of Cassian Adolescent Recovery & Wellness Center

Proposed location for the Great Lakes Inter-Tribal Council (GLITC) Adolescent Recovery & Wellness Center, for substance abuse and mental health issues:

As a resident of Cassian, that lives about one mile from the proposed site on North Pine Square, many residents and I share multiple concerns regarding this Adolescent Recovery & Wellness Center.

Bryan Bainbridge, CEO of GLITC says he wants to be a good neighbor/partner and have transparency. That has not occurred up to this point. Bryan did not have any answers at the July 24 township meeting, however stated that the plan was to break ground Oct. 2023.

Items of concern are:
1. Overall Security – would there be guards or fencing or both?

2. Infrastructure – Impact on roads (Swamp Lake and the two gravel roads of East and North Pine Square) Concerns regarding construction trucks, semis for delivery of goods, additional traffic from employees/visitors. Who will maintain these roads? Or pave East and North Pine Square?

3. Employees – the number of employees needed and where would they come from? Where would housing be? We have a housing deficiency in Oneida County along with an employee shortage already.

4. Emergency Services – Police? Closest is Rhinelander or Tomahawk, roughly 20 minutes away. Fire Departments? Also 20 mins away.

5. Taxes – How does this impact the homeowners close to facility, as well as Oneida County on a whole?

6. Are there assurances from GLITC that this property will stay a for youth only facility?

7. How does this facility benefit the residents of Oneida County? Priority will be (but not exclusive to) Urban Native American Youth.

8. We can all agree there is a necessity for a facility of this nature; however, the disagreement is in the location and the effect it will have on the homeowners, many of whom are raising families or are elderly.

Though these are valid concerns from the residents of Cassian, GLITC does not seem to have the answers.

GLITC received at least $15 million dollars from the State of Wisconsin, via grants, plus monies for a feasibility study ($200K) architectural plans ($640K) and construction approval ($350K).

Thank you,
Chris Turnbull

PUBLISHER'S LETTER

Amity

Dear Reader,

There is a certain amount of joy in reuniting with a group of old friends to reminisce about cherished memories while also creating new ones together. We emphasize the value of friendship, the power of shared experiences, and the warmth of nostalgia.

There is an excitement of gathering with these familiar faces, recounting past adventures, and laughing over shared stories. These encounters, however frequent, provide a sense of comfort and belonging, as they bring back memories from earlier days, reminding everyone of the bonds with the passage of time and the changes that life brings. The connections formed with old friends remain enduring and special and enrich the bond further.

So, cherish your friendships, celebrate the past, and seize opportunities to make new memories with those who have been a part of your lives for a long time. It serves as a heartwarming reminder of the value of friendship and the joy of sharing moments with the people we care about.

Hatchets open season with close loss to Hodags

FOR THE TOMAHAWK LEADER

TOMAHAWK - The Tomahawk Hatchet football team opened its season with a close home loss to Rhinelander on Friday, Aug. 18.

A one-yard touchdown run by Rex Reilly gave the Hatchets a six-point lead in the first quarter. After a punt by each team, Tomahawk's Jonah Dickens picked off a Hodag pass in the second quarter, and a 58-yard touchdown pass from Reilly to Brayden Larson, with a successful two-point conversion, gave the Hatchets a 14-0 lead.

Tomahawk scored again in the second quarter, this time on an 88-yard touchdown reception by Larson. The Hatchets made the extra point, and the Hodags responded with a touchdown of their own. Tomahawk took a 21-6 lead into the half.

The second half was all Rhinelander offensively, as they scored 16 more points while holding Tomahawk scoreless for the entire half. The Hodags would seal a 22-21 win on a 19-yard field goal with just over three seconds left in the game.

Reilly completed four of nine passes for 175 yards and two touchdowns. Reilly also led the Hatchets on the ground, racking up 101 yards on 16 attempts. Larson, Landyn Seymour and Caleb Dickens also contributed to the Hatchets' rushing attack. Larson was Tomahawk's top receiver, hauling in three catches for 166 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Caleb Dickens had one catch for six yards and one interception.

The Hatchets are scheduled to hit the road to take on Lakeland this week. Opening kickoff is slated for 7 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 25.

Fishing Report: Slowing lake traffic is good for anglers

FOR THE TOMAHAWK LEADER

Water temps have been in the mid 70s - great swimming on a hot day! The traffic on the lakes is slowing a bit now, which bodes well for daytime fishing, and the mosquitoes and flies seem to have backed off a bit. All in all, this is a great time of the summer.

Walleye fishing has stayed consistently good for numbers on all lakes. It seems harder to find some big fish at this time of year, but you can always catch some fish at the weed edges or off gravel points in 15 to 20 feet of water. All bait types have been working very well, so minnows or leeches or half crawlers are all even in production. Evenings are best.

Fish deeper during the daytime on the bigger lakes. Try weed edges at about 20 to 25 feet or drop-offs outside of weeds in nine to 15 feet. Leeches are definitely better on bigger lakes.

Bass are hitting well in the area. Smallies are on the rocks, with the majority of them from six to 15 feet. While leeches are working, we are finding any crayfish imitation plastics to be working best for these fish. Hard bottom is the key for these fish. Rocks in the boulder size seem to be the best holding areas, but gravel bottoms will also hold fish. Largemouth are hitting very well on plastics, with worms in darker colors the best producers. Try any shallow holding areas like piers or weeds. The great thing about bass is that they are hitting all day long, so you can go out whenever you feel like. Try some surface baits for the largemouth.

Panfish action is good, with bluegills leading the way. Good action has been reported daily in the deep weeds on all lakes, but you can try shallow cover, too. Crappie action has held up very well this year. Look for deeper weeds and brush piles for these guys and use crappie minnows. Perch are in the deeper weeds also.

Northerns are hitting well in the weeds. Anglers aren't catching a lot of real big ones, but good numbers of these fish have been reported. Noisy flashy baits work best. If you have some kids, try some northern suckers or chubs over weeds with slip bobbers for best action.

Musky action has been ok in the area, with some nice fish starting to be caught. They seem to be moving around with the weather, with some of the fish deeper, so you can fish both weeds with spinners and surface baits or deeper with plastics for the bigger fish. Night action has also been good, so if you are not getting fish at all on your lake, you might think of night or evening fishing. The sunlight penetration and the heavy water traffic often cause these fish to change their feeding patterns at this time of year.

Good luck and good fishin'!

Natural Connections: Community Science

BY JILLIAN FINUCANE
SUMMER NATURALIST/
GEOLOGY INTERN,
CABLE NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM

Jillian Finucane (right) looks for butterflies in the Museum's pollinator gardens while Kali Sipp (left) stands ready to record sightings. They spotted two monarch butterflies and contributed that data to the Wisconsin Statewide Community Science Project.

Jillian Finucane is from Madison, Wis., and is currently studying Geological Engineering at University of Wisconsin-Madison. As a lover of the outdoors, she spends her summers hiking, camping, and rock climbing; she adores Wisconsin's Northwoods. Jillian is a Summer Naturalist/Geology Intern at the Cable Natural History Museum.

A light breeze brushed through the pollinator gardens surrounding the Museum. Happy children and singing birds filled the Museum courtyard with sound. All this noise didn't bother me; I zoned into the pollinator garden. I was completing my weekly butterfly survey as a participant in the Wisconsin Statewide Community Science Project.

Despite having finished the Master Naturalist course my second week at the Museum, I am still far from considering myself a pro at any plant or insect identification. My specialty lies with the rocks. As a senior studying Geology at University of Wisconsin - Madison, I have spent the last several years honing my rock identification skills. With all the time spent on that, I'd neglected my interests in learning about living nature. When Mollie Krebs-Mertig, Museum Curator, asked me to help with a butterfly survey in partnership with Milwaukee Public Museum, I was a little nervous. Would I be able to identify down to the family, let alone genus or species? Was I qualified enough to participate in a community science project? Community science is defined as a scientific project undertaken by members of the general public. As someone who is a part of the Northwoods community, I am perfectly qualified to participate. Mollie prepared me by covering the basic butterfly families and a few important survey protocols.

With Kali Sipp, my co-intern, as my scribe, I felt a lot more comfortable starting my first survey. A peer into the sky and a check with my weather app helped me gather all of the environmental data needed to start the survey. At a here-comes-the-bride pace, I began my short 0.2 mile walk that would take me 20 minutes. I slowly gazed between the pollinator garden to my right, and the open courtyard to my left. Much to my delight, I spotted a brushfoot. I snapped a picture and tallied it on my clipboard. By the end of the survey, I had identified a few brushfoots and even a couple monarchs!

What I have come to appreciate most about these community science projects is how they force me to slow down and truly appreciate nature. I don't usually meander through a pollinator garden or drive out to isolated forest roads just to observe some critters. But when forced to "stop and smell the roses," I find myself appreciating even the smallest things.

So, when invited to a DNR Mink Frog survey by a local naturalist, I was excited to

Ask the PASTOR

Readers are invited to submit questions about God, the Bible, and religion. I shall try to answer them for you, using the Bible as the authority for my answers.

Today, I would like to begin a short series on the idea that happiness is a character issue more than it is a situation issue. Central to this is the Bible's teaching that God created everything. The first words of the Bible, which may be the most important, are: In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth (Genesis 1:1). Everything the Bible teaches about our relationship to God and our relationships to each other are tied to those words.

The Bible teaches that when God made mankind, He made us in His image and likeness (Genesis 1:26, 27). One aspect of the image of God in us is our conscience, something the Bible teaches that God has placed in each of us (Romans 2:14, 15). Even those who seem to have no conscience, they still have one; it is just that they refuse to listen to it and have become insensitive to it (1 Timothy 4:2, Ephesians 4:17-19). But even though they appear to have no conscience, it is still there and troubles them (see Psalm 38 and its description of the physical and mental turmoil of a guilty conscience).

The Bible defines the nature of sin as turning off the path (Romans 3:12, Psalm 14:3) and going astray (1 Peter 2:25, Isaiah 53:6). The word translated sin in the New Testament means to turn off the path.

The Bible teaches that God designed us to live in a world where we do what is right and good, like God does (we were made in His image, Genesis 1:26, 27). When we sin, we leave God's design for us in creation - every selfish act is a departure from the design of our Creator. The Bible teaches that it is for this reason that our sins make life hard for us (Proverbs 4:19 and 13:15), bringing trouble (Romans 6:23) and death (Isaiah 48:22).

When we sin, we are choosing to live outside of our Creator's design. In a sense, we would be like a whale who breaths air and says, I breath air like land dwelling animals, so I think I will live on land from now on. We all know that the whale would be able to live out of the water for a short time, but that short existence on land would be difficult and lead to its death because it was not designed to live on the land, even though it breaths the air like a land animal. The Bible teaches that the same principle holds true to us. God designed us to be like Him in our character, but by our choices to sin and act in selfish ways, we are trying to live outside of the environment God designed for us to live in. It is for this reason that there is sorrow, disease, and death (Romans 6:23). We were not designed to live in that environment.

In the issue of happiness, character is important. Character is really about conformity to God's design for us in creation. We can have everything the world offers us, but still not be satisfied. Or we can have very little of what this world offers us and be content in life. Happiness - a character issue.

In May, Tomahawk Girl Scout Katelyn Austin received the Girl Scout Silver Award, the second-highest award a Cadette can earn. Austin was honored for her project focused on creating a map, brochure and signage for the trails behind the Tomahawk school complex.

Tomahawk High School senior and Girl Scout Genevieve Gleisner's "Take Action" project involved creating first aid kits for seniors and providing a presentation at the Tomahawk Senior Center.

As part of a community service project, Cadette Scouts made walker bags and delivered them to area seniors. The Scouts worked with Cindy, formerly of Tomahawk Sew & Vac, making more than a dozen bags and presenting them to the Tomahawk Area Interfaith Volunteers (TAIV) to be distributed to clients. Pictured is Girl Scout Shyann Boos, presenting a walker bag and a box of Girl Scout cookies to Dorothy Kind. The Girl Scouts offer numerous of membership opportunities for youth from grades K-12. Troops typically meet each month and take part in a variety of activities, including this year's Applefest pie-making event, scheduled for Saturday, Oct 21; and Craft Day, slated for Saturday, Dec. 2. SCIENCE FROM PAGE 14 tag along. Unlike the bright and colorful butterfly surveys, frog surveys occur in the dark, after night has completely settled in. Visiting 10 different survey locations, the naturalist and I stepped outside into the mosquito-infested air.

For five minutes, we stood in silence waiting for frog calls in the black night. A cool wind bristled through the trees. Something cracked a branch in the woods. Two wolf packs howled back and forth at each other. But that wasn't what we were listening for. Then we heard it. The call sounded like two pieces of wood being clanked together, but we knew it was the mink frog looking for a mate.

Using a code rating how frequent calls are (1 - individual calls are heard, 2 - some calls overlap, 3 - full chorus of overlapping calls), surveyors track the size of populations in different ponds. By mid-July, the only frogs making noise are the bullfrog, green frog, and mink frog. Most calls we heard during our stops were ranked as a 1, with an occasional 2.

Now, you may be wondering why data like this can be useful. For the annual DNR frog surveys, data is analyzed to estimate frog species abundance, determined by the presence of their calls. This helps wildlife biologists monitor frog populations in different parts of the state.

The butterfly surveys serve a different purpose, as they track migration patterns and populations of butterflies in specific areas. Milwaukee Public Museum, our partner organization, has been notified that researchers in Europe have been using Pollardbase, the butterfly database, to track migration patterns!

Community Science has taught me a new way to appreciate the finer details of the Northwoods. If you're also itching to learn more about the natural world, or hoping to use your knowledge for the greater good of a project, consider getting involved in community science. Contact Mollie Kremertig at mollie@cablemuseum.org here at the Museum for more information about getting involved in our surveys!

Emily Stone's award-winning second book, Natural Connections: Dreaming of an Elfin Skimmer, is available to purchase at www.cablemuseum.org/books and at your local independent bookstore, too.

For more than 50 years, the Cable Natural History Museum has served to connect you to the Northwoods. Our exhibit: "The Northwoods ROCKS!" is open through mid-March. Our Fall Calendar of Events is ready for registration! Follow us on Facebook, Instagram, YouTube, and www.cablemuseum.org to see what we are up to.
