Clearview keeps traditions alive with food, fun & Old Fashioneds

The historic Clearview Supper Club, located on the north shore of Big St. Germain Lake, is one of the most scenic year-round destinations for dining in the North Woods.

This iconic Wisconsin supper club continues to build upon an already deep reputation for fine food, drinks and service.

With a knack for old-fashioneds and martinis, along with a true North Woods supper club menu, the club attracts guests to their St. Germain-area restaurant whether it be summer, spring, winter or fall.

Established in 1918 in what was then called the town of Farmington, Clearview Lodge consisted of one main lodge and four cabins. Guests who stayed in the vacation cabins would have all their meals served at the main lodge.

Over the next 100 years, the resort gained popularity, and trip to Clearview became an annual tradition for many families. The increase in demand led to more cabins being built, along with the expansion of the lodge to accommodate the growing number of guests.

In the fall of 1985, Bob and Monica Fath purchased the resort, which is now known as Fath's North Shore Rentals.

Then in 1996, they also purchased Clearview Supper Club. The full-log restaurant that overlooks Big St. Germain Lake is open year-round and accessible by car, boat, snowmobile, and ATV or UTV.

Monica Fath still has a hand in managing the supper club along with her daughters, Kris Nielsen and Connie Nell, and an amazing staff. They have enjoyed serving guests from near and far.

"Over the years, our guests have enjoyed Clearview as their destination for great food, and creating memories

While it might seem like you're stepping back in time, the bar at Clearview Supper Club offers some of the most prominent and traditional drinks in the area.

with friends and family," said Nielsen, who manages the bar at Clearview. "And our family carries on the tradition today."

Nielsen can be found behind the bar nearly every night, welcoming guests with a smile and preparing expertly mixed cocktails. The restaurant offers a full dinner menu with steaks, seafood, ribs and chicken prepared several different ways.

And do not forget about their famous brandy, whiskey or bourbon old-fashioneds.

"Guests are sure to find a dish to satisfy most desires," said Nielsen. "We encourage reservations."

Nightly specials are offered Wednesdays through Saturdays.

Wednesday's special is a rotating and seasonally-fresh Chef's choice. Thursdays feature is liver and onions for $15.99, or homemade pot roast for $19.99.

Friday specials are the traditional Wisconsin supper club fish fry and Bourbon Street catfish, which is served with American fries, Cajun cream sauce, and bourbon Guests can order bluegill, lake perch, baby walleye or a shrimp basket. Prices continue to be competitive.

If you want to keep the fish coming, Clearview oftentimes, if supplies allow, offers an all-you-can-eat option as well, alongside a menu of other fresh-catch options.

"Our chefs have brought fresh seafood to the North Woods, such as halibut, grouper and more," said Nielsen.

On Saturdays, the culinary team features a slow-roasted prime rib with king and queen cuts. Clearview Supper Club also is a popular gathering place for groups, special occasions and meetings.

"We strive to provide the best experience for group events with customized menus and seating arrangements for up to 80 guests," said Nell, who manages the dining room at Clearview Supper Club. "Popular dates fill up fast, so we suggest calling as soon as possible."

The restaurant opens daily at 4 p.m., but is closed Sundays through Tuesdays.

Clearview Supper Club is located at 8599 Big St. Germain Drive, and is accessible from Highway C west of St. Germain, or Highway 155 north of town. Carry- outs are welcome.

For more information, call 715-542-3474, or see Clearview's full menu in the North Woods Trader Dining Guide at vcnewsreview.com.
