LP’s Pizza + Pasta brings “new vibes” to downtown Eagle River

There is a new vibe in downtown Eagle River on Wall Street as LP’s Pizza + Pasta has rebranded what once was Buckshot’s Downtown.

Owners Dan and Tammy Ullsperger purchased the mainstay business, what is now Buckshot’s Saloon & Eatery, in 2015. That restaurant has continued to be a popular go-to for diners who’ve raved about the food, drinks and atmosphere.

With the downtown location at LP’s, Ullspergers wanted to also bring their passion of food and family to the downtown scene, and have reinvigorated what was a second Buckshots location with pizza, pasta and much more.

They purchased what was then BBT’s downtown in 2019, and have been improving the second location where most recently opened LP’s. Along with the restaurant, there is also an arcade featuring 10 different games to keep the children entertained.

“We couldn’t ask for a better location than the middle of downtown Eagle River,” said Dan Ullsperger, owner. “As Buckshot’s is a family-run business, we put family first. Bring the kiddos in for a grilled cheese, chicken tenders, or let them explore the rest of the menu.”

Appetizers include homemade garlic bread dipped in real butter, walleye fingers, onion petals, cheese fries, zucchini strips and more.

Soups and salads available to go with a made-to-order cheeseburger, cheese steak sandwich and Italian melt. Pizzas are made to order or can include a supreme, Buffalo chicken or Philly cheesesteak.

Pasta dishes can start with something as simple as spaghetti, or can get as diverse as an eggplant parmesan, chicken alfredo or lasagna.

LP’s offers a full menu, serving from 11 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. They serve Thursday through Monday. Sunday they close at 3 p.m. The restaurant is closed Tuesday and Wednesday.

For more information on LP’s or to order to go, call 715-337-2209.

The restaurant is located in downtown Eagle River at 207 E. Wall Street.

Buckshots Saloon & Eatery on Hwy 45 N

When the Ullspergers came to the North Woods, they had no idea how much the restaurant industry was going to change their lives.

Concentrating then on only the Buckshots North location, they completely transformed the building, restaurant and bar, starting over and turning it into a modern, spacious and handicap-accessible food haven in Eagle River.

Shortly thereafter was the addition of the Leinie Lodge which is available now for private events, and has hosted parties, luncheons, rehearsal dinners and even wedding events.

With Dick Leinenkugel’s permission to use the name, a 700-square-foot four-season addition was built along the north side of the building and opened in the summer of 2019. The reviews were in, Buckshot’s became a hit with locals and visitors alike.

“Booking your birthday, corporate event, fantasy sports league, or any other event is easy and gives you access to our mouth-watering menu, outdoor patio, and so much more,” said Ullsperger. “Let us host your next event, you won’t regret it. We are family owned and operated, and we wouldn’t have it any other way.”

Buckshots was voted Business Of The Year in 2021 by the Eagle River Chamber of Commerce, and firmly believes in the values of family as they’ve hosted numerous fundraisers, charity events and donated tirelessly to special causes for area residents and visitors alike.

The Food

What has continued to grow the popularity of Buckshot’s is their food.

Ullsperger has dedicated himself and the staff at his North location over the years to being innovative and prudent about the changes in the culinary tastes of his guests.

Adding not just one, but two in-house AltoSham smoke-n-hold ovens has allowed them to bring in-house smoked meats including pulled pork, brisket, chicken and Prime Rib each and every week.

And their famous pizzas are what people continue to rave about, said Ullsperger, as they pump out more and more in flavor, toppings and offerings each and every day.

They always feature fresh hand pattied ground chuck burgers with toppings to order. Their sandwiches, wraps and appetizers bring a taste almost any guest can enjoy.

For a full menu, or for more information on Buckshots North, go online to buckshotseagleriver.com. To place orders or for questions, call 715-479-7468.
