LP's Pizza + Pasta brings "new vibes" to downtown Eagle River

There is a new vibe in downtown Eagle River on Wall Street as LP's Pizza + Pasta has rebranded what once was Buckshot's Downtown.

Owners Dan and Tammy Ullsperger purchased the mainstay business, what is now Buckshot's Saloon & Eatery, in 2015. That restaurant has continued to be a popular go-to for diners who've raved about the food, drinks and atmosphere.

With the downtown location at LP's, Ullspergers wanted to also bring their passion of food and family to the downtown scene, and have reinvigorated what was a second Buckshots location with pizza, pasta and much more.

They purchased what was then BBT's downtown in 2019, and have been improving the second location where most recently opened LP's. Along with the restaurant, there is also an arcade featuring 10 different games to keep the children entertained.

"We couldn't ask for a better location than the middle of downtown Eagle River," said Dan Ullsperger, owner. "As Buckshot's is a family-run business, we put family first. Bring the kiddos in for Appetizers include homemade garlic bread dipped in real butter, walleye fingers, onion petals, cheese fries, zucchini strips and more.

Shortly thereafter was the addition of the Leinie Lodge which is available now for private events, and has hosted parties, luncheons, rehearsal dinners and even wedding events.

With Dick Leinenkugel's permission to use the name, a 700-square-foot four-season addition was built along the north side of the building and opened in the summer of 2019. The reviews were in, Buckshot's became a hit with locals and visitors
