PUBLISHER'S LETTER

The Gift of Life And The Inevitable Abyss

Dear Reader,

One of God's greatest gifts is the gift of life. But that gift comes with an expiration date. In the grand scheme of eternity, our time on this earth is just a speck—here today, gone tomorrow. No matter who we are, where we come from, or what we accomplish, the end awaits us all. And when our time runs out, we disappear into the abyss of humanity, fading away into the vast ocean of those who have come before us.

We all leave our mark—some big, some small. Some build empires that echo through the ages, while others quietly tend to their families, neighborhoods, or communities. No matter the scale, each mark has value. But eventually, every empire crumbles, every accomplishment is forgotten, and every individual falls into the same great oblivion. It's a humbling reality and a universal truth.

So, knowing this, the question remains: What do you want to do with your life?

Will you spend your days chasing material things that rust and decay, or will you invest in moments that last beyond your time here—moments of kindness, love, and connection that ripple through the lives of others? Will you lift up those around you, plant seeds of goodness, and be an instrument of peace, or will you let your days slip away, consumed by the trivial?

Life is fleeting, and none of us know how much time we have. But within this brief window, we all have a choice. What legacy will you leave? What will you do with your gift of life? Will you simply exist, or will you dare to make your mark?

Our moments are few, and our time is short. But even a small spark can light up the darkness. So let's make it count. Before we vanish into the abyss, let us live with purpose, gratitude, and a commitment to make the world just a little bit better for those who will follow.

The Verve Pipe coming to Crystal Theatre in May

CRYSTAL FALLS - A premium event has just been added to Crystal Theatre's 2025 season. The Verve Pipe, a popular rock band formed in East Lansing in 1992, will take the stage Saturday, May 17 at 7 p.m.

Having achieved multi-platinum success with hits like "The Freshmen" and "Photograph" in the late '90s, The Verve Pipe has been evolving for nearly 30 years. The group has released critically acclaimed music as both a major-label act and an independent band, creating a sound that transcends genre and generation.

Rooted in pop hooks, alt-rock guitars and the songwriting front man Brian Vander Ark, the band is committed to forward-thinking rock and roll with albums like 2021's Threads. Co-written by Vander Ark and backup vocalist Channing Lee, Threads marks a collaborative peak for The Verve Pipe. The album turns everyday experiences of modern existence - love, loss, abuse, addiction, romance, anger - into songs that are both celebratory and cathartic. If "The Freshmen" introduced The Verve Pipe as young, melody-fueled Michiganders, then Threads positions them as pop/rock graduates who honor their musical past while also moving beyond it.

Crystal Theatre's mana-ging director says, "If you were a fan of The Verve Pipe in the '90s, come and enjoy them in 2025 as they introduce their first album since 2021. This is an unexpected premium event at Crystal Theatre and one we think everyone will enjoy. So if you saw them 'back in the day' like I did, come make new memories at Crystal Theatre in May."

This bonus, premium event is not part of Crystal Theatre's "Gem of a Season" ticket package. All seats are reserved and prices are tiered. Tickets are now available online at thecrystaltheatre.org, by phone at 906-875-3208 or at Stage Left Mon. - Fri., 9 a.m. to noon.
