

SEEKING NOMINATIONS

Missouri Photojournalism Hall of Fame

The Missouri Photojournalism Hall of Fame endeavors to recognize those people who have made outstanding contributions to Missouri photojournalism, and to provide an exhibit venue to showcase these visual reporting pioneers and the work of current photojournalists. The nomination process is open and nominees may be living or deceased. The nomination packet should include a statement explaining the nominee's contributions to Missouri photojournalism. Additional letters are encouraged, as are other supporting materials (portfolio or examples of work).

Chris Cannella, KC Star, is asked to leave the locker room after a game. She was the first female photographer to venture into the Royal's locker room following a lawsuit brought by Melissa Ludtke and Time, Inc.

Inductees will be recognized for one or more of the following: outstanding photojournalism achievement; long-term photography for a Missouri newspaper or other publication/journalism outlet; leadership in education; ethical values and integrity; contributions to community.

Send nominations by May 13 to:
Missouri Photojournalism Hall of Fame
C/O Missouri Press Foundation
802 Locust Street
Columbia, MO 65201

Judging will be conducted by a committee headed by Brian Kratzer, MU School of Journalism. Nominees not selected will remain under active consideration for two more years.

Inductees will be recognized this fall at a ceremony in Columbia, Mo., and examples of their work and a summary of their contributions will be display at the Missouri Photojournalism Hall of Fame exhibit.
