13. HISTORY

Founded in 1984, North Country This Week has grown to become the most-read paper in the Greater Potsdam-Canton area. Today, 80% of readers say they frequently purchase products or services advertised in North Country This Week, according to a recent survey conducted by the Circulation Verification Council. The Massena-Ogdensburg Edition began publication in May 2013. Area residents turn to us to find out what is going on in their communities, and read our helpful day-by-day calendar listings, popular Sound Off and Letters columns, and to view photos of their friends and neighbors. Our staff is the most experienced in the market, and can help businesses and organizations develop cost-effective ad campaigns, budgets and layouts. North Country This Week has received numerous awards for design excellence and news reporting from the New York Press Association and also hosts NorthCountryNow.com, St. Lawrence County's most-viewed website for news and information.
