Seniors: Brayden Boehle, Jake Clarke, Connor Zegar

Additional returning letter winners: Hayden Frank,

Colt Reiling, Maddox Meyer, Luke Schmidt

Strengths: We have a good group of returning seniors. They really push the younger players and make sure they are doing the little details correctly. We have some younger players that are working hard and pushing for some varsity playing time.

Holes to fill from last year: This will be the first year we are just "Malcolm" as a high school team. Our numbers will be lower than a majority of the teams we play. We will have to play around with line ups to make sure we have the best nine players out there every game.

Seward golf

Coach: Jim Placke

Years coaching: 30

Seniors: Jordan Biggs, Dane Conner, Bryce

Piskorski, Ashton Koetter, Maddox Else, Dalton Leibhart, Christian Fields, Jakob Gray, Andrew Marshall, Jace Nuttleman

Strengths: We have four players with varsity experience coming back from last year. It looks like we will have a lot of competition for the five varsity spots. Jordan Biggs has the most experience of the players we have coming back. I will be looking forward to our qualifying early in the season to see if we can establish a top three or four players. We may have one of those years where we switch off players in the early season tournaments.

Holes to fill: We have big holes to fill from last year. Ty Wehrs was the state runner up in Class B last year, and Ander Axthelm was another top performer.

Top teams: York, Aurora, Norris and Beatrice will be the top teams.

Years coaching: This is our ninth year of golf at Centennial.

Seniors: Lance Haberman, Reiden Fowler,

Noah Jensen

Additional returning letter winners: Micah Richters, Dillon Tonniges

Strengths: We have a few new kids out that may give us more depth than we have had in the past, which will lead to better competition in practice which hopefully sharpens our game.

Holes: Experience. Lance, Reiden and Micah have played in tournaments before, but we are going to be counting on some guys this year that have never played a competitive round of golf. We will try to peak for the Bronco Bluejay cup. We have lost, I think, the last four, and our guys want to get the plaque back to Centennial this year.

Seward boys' soccer

Seniors: Riken Koinzan, Collin Warren, Owen Krahulik, Leighton Limback, Nick McCormick, Ian Johnson

Additional returning letter winners:

Nolan Stanton, Josh Ringler, Dominic Torres, Kaydon Mueller

Strengths: Riken, Collin, Leighton, Dominic,

Josh and Nick played a lot of good soccer last year. We will rely on their leadership this season. Leighton Limback has our record for saves in a season last year with 95. We will rely on his knowledge and experience in goal.

Holes to fill: We will have some holes to fill and are looking for some younger players to fill those roles this season. We are looking forward to these young and inexperienced players developing and getting better each week.

Teams to watch: Crete is a team to watch in our conference.

Seward girls' soccer

Coach's name: Nick Holmes

Years coaching: Second year

Assistants: Kyleah Bowder, Dan Fisher

Seniors: Jordyn Collins, Bethany Gebhardt, Ava King, Myka Smith, Jayden Fernau, Claire Geidel, Ellissa Sagehorn, Alivia Hartmann

Additional returning letter winners: Aly Conde, Sofia Heaston, Ava Fisher

Strengths of this year's team: The biggest strength is experience. We return all but one starter from last year. One year older and one year wiser, the seniors have shown a maturity that will help push the program forward. I am very excited to see what we can accomplish this season.

Teams to watch in conference/district: Norris is the team to watch, state runner-up and still very young; they are the bar as far as qualifying for state.

strongest group this year. Seniors Morgan Craig and Drew Kratochvil, juniors Eden Shultz and Vicki Wang, and sophomore Coral Collins look to build from the success of last season. They will be helped by senior Catarina Ruiu, junior Ava Krahulik and sophomore Libby Kratochvil, who will be taking on bigger roles this year.

ence discuss with a personal-best throw of 167-8 last season and won districts with a throw of 157-11. Jake Barga finished fourth in the conference in the high jump at 6-0, fourth at districts at 6-1 and tied for seventh at state at 6-2. The throws are deep with talent, and middle to long distance should be strong. We have a lot of answers to find in the sprints and hurdles. Underclassmen will need to step up in the sprints, where we are short on depth.

Girls – Underclassmen will be key for us. Many will get better with meet experience.

Savannah Horne came on strong at the end of last season to break the school record in the 100m dash at 12.73 seconds and placed eighth at the state meet. Molly Prochaska qualified in two events last year (3,200-meter relay and 800-meter run). She looks to be even better this year and will do well in the 400. Lillian Butzke returns as a qualifier in the 3,200 relay and looks to be better.

Savannah Horne in the sprints, and the middle and long distances are good for us. We will need to find a couple more to make a really good relay.

We have a lot of answers to find in the sprints, hurdles and jumps. Underclassmen can really help us as we have a good core of freshmen and sophomores. Just not a lot of race experience.

Wilber-Clatonia and Milford always have good track teams and depth. Districts include Malcolm and Lincoln Lutheran. Like every year, I expect our kids to work hard and show improvement. Every year it's exciting to see kids improve throughout the season.
