

SALUTING OUR VETERANS

A SPECIAL SUPPLEMENT TO

Seward County

SCI MT
Independent Milford Times

Veterans small business week highlight:

Veteran makes mark with graphics biz

BY HANNA CHRISTENSEN
sciporter@sewardindependent.com

Dan Gross was born and raised in Lincoln but moved to Seward in 2008 after his first boots-on-the-ground deployment overseas.

After working in the car accessory business for a while in Seward and returning from his third deployment, he decided to open his own business so he could be his own boss.

He debuted Mustang Graphics, then called Dan's Custom Works, in 2013. Mustang Graphics specializes in screen printing, embroidery, vinyl lettering, sublimation, laser engraving and more.

Prior to his business ventures, Gross enlisted in the Navy in 1991 and was commissioned as a naval officer in 1989. He was on active duty until 2000. He became part of the reserves but was spending time with his four kids and did not drill.

Two years later, he remarried and was ready to go back to drilling.

"My wife was like 'Hey, do you miss it?' and I said 'yes,'" he said. "So, I went back."

Gross went on three deployments to the Middle East. His first was in 2007, when he was stationed in the Middle East as an operations officer for about 750 people and worked in customs and cargo handling. His second deployment was in 2009, and he was an officer overseeing more than 100 people doing customs inspections for those returning home.

In 2012, he had his final deployment and did foreign security for ships coming into Dubai.

Gross was promoted to commander in 2013 and began working in Navy Casualty in Milligan, Tennessee. Navy Casualty assists Navy families when a soldier dies, is seriously ill or injured, is a prisoner of war or missing.

"We did a lot of updates with families across the country on where their loved ones were at and what we were trying to do to bring them home," he said.

One of his most memorable moments was traveling to Hawaii and picking up the remains of a soldier who died on the USS Oklahoma during the bombing of Pearl Harbor. He said he was honored to be able to bring him back to his family in Wisconsin.

Gross said he has helped with more than 1,500 Navy funerals, most of which were held in Nebraska. His role was in playing Taps and folding and presenting the flag to families.

He was also involved in coordinating the flyover for Captain Wendell "Wendy" Rivers, a Seward native who spent more than seven years as a POW in Hanoi. On Memorial Day of this year, he went to Fort McPherson where he worked his final funeral.

Gross officially retired from reserve and active duty on July 1, 2023, after 32 years in the Navy.

After owning a business for a decade now, he said he loves the freedom it gives him to balance his personal life and work.

"It's fun. I enjoy it," he said. "It's always something different every day."
