TOWN CLERK/REGISTRAR:

The Board received the Town Clerk's October 2024 report, Clerk Pfister introduced the new Deputy Town Clerk, Lori Hunt Cunningham to the Board. Clerk Pfister shared how nice it has been to have help in the office again and Lori has been a big help. Clerk Pfister advised that the County has been in touch about the tax bills and everything looks good so far with what had been over from them, the Clerk advised that the County was requesting re-levees earlier than they have been done in the past so the sewer re-levy was done earlier than normal but the totals were in line with the last few years.

TOWN HALL:

Code Officer Osborne informed that the rear portion of the roof had been replaced by Marchuska Brothers Construction, they had run into a small problem when they removed the old shingles discovering that the plywood underneath needed to be replaced but the foreman had explained that it was most likely the cause for the shingles blowing off.

Code Officer Osborne let the Board know that the mason had come out last week and provided the Town with what was needed to submit for the remaining grant money from Broome County and was trying to get started on our project this week or next and he will work until the weather does not allow.

Supervisor Odell announced that the Broome County Purchasing Alliance has scheduled a meeting and sent invites to the retirees for an Insurance Q&A on Thursday November 14, 2024 at 2:00 P.M. in the Town Hall Board Room

WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT: The statement of unpaid sewer rents for re-levy were given to the Board for the Towns of Windsor $47,300.68 and Kirkwood $6,294.97 totaling $53,595.65 which will be forwarded to the County for the tax bills.

YOUTH & RECREATION: None

ZONING, PLANNING & CODE ENFORCEMENT:

The Board received the October 2024 Zoning Report, there were no questions.

Code Officer Osborne wanted to follow up on previously discussed changes to various items in the zoning and asked how the Board would be proceeding. Attorney Spinner suggested to do all at once since a local law will be required so a Public Hearing will need to be scheduled

PUBLIC SAFETY: The September and October Operation Updates were given to the Board along with the 2023 tax filing, nothing of significance to note. Councilman Harting shared that Eastern Broome Emergency Services would be relocating

Attention Private Employers: Paid Prenatal Leave Began January 1st, 2025

Beginning January 1, 2025, New York's Paid Prenatal Leave law went into effect. This first-in-the-nation law will require private employers to provide pregnant employees with 20 hours of paid prenatal leave, ensuring that pregnant employees can take time off for medical appointments related to pregnancy without the fear of losing income.

Paid Prenatal Leave is applicable to both full-time and part-time employees.

Pregnancy-related health care includes physical examinations, medical procedures, monitoring, testing, and discussions with a health care provider related to the pregnancy.

This personal leave time may be taken in hourly increments, and compensation provided must be at the employee's regular rate of pay or the applicable minimum wage, whichever is greater.

Employers are not required to pay an employee for unused prenatal personal leave at the time of separation from employment.

With Paid Prenatal Personal Leave, businesses can help expectant workers focus on their health needs without financial worry while providing them with the peace of mind that comes with knowing they work in a place that puts their needs first.

Everyone should be able to access the care they need, especially when they are expecting. Paid Prenatal Leave is another shining example of how New York State and New York State businesses are committed to supporting the health and safety of all workers.

For more information about Paid Prenatal Personal Leave, please visit ny.gov/prenatal.

REMINDER: New York State Minimum Wage Increased On January 1st

Governor Kathy Hochul has announced that on January 1, New York's minimum wage will increase to $16.50/hour in New York City, Westchester, and Long Island, and $15.50/hour for the rest of the state. Raising New York's minimum wage to keep pace with inflation will benefit hundreds of thousands of minimum wage workers across the state.

"In this current era of inflation and rising costs, every cent counts for all New Yorkers, especially workers who earn the minimum wage. By gradually increasing wages for the lowest earners, we are ensuring businesses can adjust to the change while also helping more families make ends meet," said NYSDOL Commissioner Roberta Reardon.

This increase is the continuation of the historic multi-year plan to increase the minimum wage to 2027 and beyond. Looking ahead, the minimum wage will increase by $0.50 in 2026. In 2027, it will increase annually at a rate determined by the Consumer Price Index.

If you have any questions about how New York State's minimum wage laws impact your business, please reach out to the NYSDOL at 1-888-4-NYS-DOL (1-888-469-7365).

Photos By Chandelle Loren

The Windsor wrestling program is hosted the 67th Annual Windsor Christmas Wrestling Tournament, the oldest wrestling tournament in the state on Friday, December 27th, and Saturday, December 28th at Windsor Central High School.

This year's tournament featured 41 teams from New York, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, including Amsterdam, BGAH, Blue Ridge, Burnt Hills, Cazenovia, CBA/JD, Chenango Forks, Copenhagen, Corning, Deposit, Fairport, Gouverneur, Greene/Oxford, Homer, Honeoye-Falls Lima, Horseheads, Indian River, Ithaca, Johnson City, Lansing, Lowville, Manhasset, Marathon, Newfane, Norwich, Sackets Harbor, Saratoga Springs, Southwestern, Spencer-Van Etten/Candor, St Francis, Susquehanna Valley, Tioga, Towanda (PA), Union Endicott, Walton/Delhi, Waverly, Wellsville, and Windsor.

Dozens of state place winners and a handful of New York and Pennsylvania state champions are part of this year's tournament.

"The Christmas Tournament has long held the tradition of attracting the toughest competition. Many athletes go on to place and win at the highest levels of the sport thus making the event 'The Tournament of Champions,'" said Windsor wrestling coach Jeff Nolan.

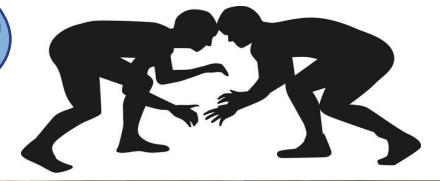

Friday's schedule featured a special appearance by former Windsor wrestling coach Jim Howard, who founded this tournament in 1957. It's the first time in over a decade that Howard has visited the tournament

"This school wasn't here (when we started). We were down below," said Howard. "Jeff (Nolan) gave me a tour the first time I came back. It's good to see."

Governor Hochul Announces New CDPAP Partnership With Independent Living Centers as Part of Plan to Strengthen Home Care Services for New Yorkers

By Governor NY

Governor Kathy Hochul today announced that New York State and Public Partnership LLC (PPL) are partnering with 11 Independent Living Centers (ILCs) as part of the State’s plan to strengthen the Consumer Directed Personal Assistance Program (CDPAP) for New York’s home care users. New York’s ILCs are among more than 30 community-based partners who will work closely with PPL to ensure the CDPAP program continues to deliver high-quality home care services for New Yorkers, including a successful transition by April 1. Governor Hochul also highlighted that CDPAP consumers across New York can now begin registering with PPL to ensure their continued service as part of this transition process.

“Our statewide partnership will protect CDPAP and ensure continued access to high-quality home care for New Yorkers across the State,” Governor Hochul said. “I’m pleased that independent living centers will play an important role as partners in this effort, as we create a better and stronger CDPAP for home care users and caregivers.”

State Health Commissioner Dr. James McDonald said, “This is an important next step in our transition. Through this collaborative network of independent living centers, community-based providers and Public Partnerships LLC, we are ensuring the future of CDPAP for generations to come. New York State is demonstrating our ongoing commitment to protecting those who are served by this program.”

CDPAP consumers can begin registering now as part of this transition through one of these options:

- Option 1: Call PPL’s support center at 1-833-247-5346 or TTY: 1-833-204-9042 and a PPL team member will help you complete the process.
- Option 2: Access PPL@Home by going to PPL’s website at pplfirst.com/cdpap.
- Option 3: Work with PPL or another approved CDPAP facilitator, including ILCs, who can guide you through the process. A list of approved CDPAP facilitators can be found here: CDPAP Facilitators | PPL First

The New York State Department of Health is working closely with PPL to engage with consumers and facilitate a smooth registration and transition process. New York and PPL are committed to engaging stakeholders and building a diverse partnership as part of the ongoing transition that will take effect in April.

Partnership with New York’s ILCs
 The statewide partnership includes 11 Independent Living Centers, disability-led non-profit organizations who have long served as advocates and champions for New Yorkers with disabilities living independent and self-directed lives. As a part of this partnership, CDPAP consumers may choose to work with one of these Independent Living Centers as their CDPAP facilitator.

The following Independent Living Centers have joined New York’s CDPAP partnership:

- AIM Independent Living Center
- ARISE, Inc.
- Finger Lakes Independence Center, Inc.
- Independent Living, Inc.
- Independent Living Center of the Hudson Valley, Inc. (ILCHV)
- Long Island Center for Independent Living, Inc.
- Rockland Independent Living Center dba Bridges
- Resource Center for Independent Living
- Southern Tier Independence Center
- The Center for Disability Rights
- Western New York Independent Living, Inc.
- New York Association on Independent Living Executive Director Lindsay Miller said, “We commend the Governor’s commitment to ensuring that CDPAP consumers have access to the full spectrum of services Independent Living Centers provide, empowering people with disabilities to live independently in the community. As founders of the program, our commitment to advocating for the independence and dignity of people with disabilities will remain at the forefront of our efforts as we continue to champion the future of CDPAP.”

AIM Independent Living Chief Executive Officer René L. Snyder said, “We applaud the State’s acknowledgment of the essential role that Independent Living Centers play in the lives of New Yorkers with disabilities. AIM remains committed to the CDPAP program and the individuals who participate in it. In the spirit of partnership, we will work together with PPL to ensure that people retain autonomy and control over their lives while continuing to advocate for services promoting independence, dignity,

Town of Colesville Offices

The Town of Colesville lies in the northeast part of Broome County and is bounded on the north by Chenango County, on the east by the Town of Sanford, on the south by the Town of Windsor, and on the west by the Towns of Kirkwood and Fenton. The town was formed on April 3, 1821, from the Town of Windsor. Harpursville is the largest hamlet in the town although it is not incorporated.

Colesville derives its name from pioneer Nathaniel Cole, a revolutionary soldier. He settled here in 1795, on a hill south of Harpursville, known as Coles Hill. He built a tavern there which was in operation as early as 1800. It was the first tavern between Albany and Binghamton. Broome County's Nathaniel Cole Park was opened in the town in 1974 and is located about two miles from the site of its namesake's tavern.

Western New York Independent Living Inc. CEO Doug Usiak said, “The inclusion of the Independent Living Centers into this partnership is a recognition of the standard we expect from this program. Thousands of people with disabilities will be assured ILCs will continue to be available to support them as they transfer to the single FI.”

New York State's Chief Disability Officer Kimberly Hill Ridley said, “I have deep respect for the role the ILCs have played in both the creation of CDPAP in New York State, and in their continued dedication to preserving and protecting the rights of people with disabilities to live independently in their own homes and communities by delivering high-quality CDPAP services across the State. I applaud Governor Hochul for her deep concern about maintaining the mission and integrity of CDPAP and I have every bit of confidence in our ability to achieve this goal, especially now that 11 of our ILCs and many other disability-led community organizations are partnering with the state and PPL on this endeavor.”

Diverse Community-Based Partners
Through the new statewide partnership, Public Partnerships LLC (PPL) and a diverse alliance of community-based home care providers will deliver a stronger CDPAP and ensure New Yorkers in the program will receive the high-quality care they need.

The partners collectively operate nearly 100 offices with service to all 62 counties throughout the State and have experience providing home care to New Yorkers who speak dozens of different languages, ensuring multilingual, culturally sensitive home care is easily accessible for CDPAP users on a regional basis.
