

Students of the MONTH

Brooklynn Mattison is a senior at Wayne High School. Brooklynn is willing to help with anything at school for her peers or teachers. She is reliable, kind, and jumps right in to whatever we are doing. Brooklynn accepts challenges and feedback without complaint. She asks questions, advocates for herself, and is incredibly helpful in many different ways. She takes initiative and does her best. She was nominated by the Wayne High Faculty. Brooklynn is the daughter of Gena Mattison and Dan Mattison.

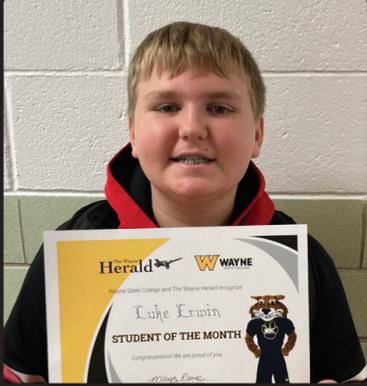

Sophia Petersen is a sixth grader at Wayne Elementary School. Sophia is a hard worker and she is always kind to everyone. She has a smile on her face every day and is a very positive role model. She was nominated by Joyce Hoskins. Sophia is the daughter of Amy Bloomquist and Dane Petersen. She is also a Blue Devil Branch teller and involved in dance and volleyball.

Francesca D'Agosta is a first grader at St. Mary's Catholic School. She is very kind to the students and staff. She shares her thoughts and faith with others. Francesca is a wonderful example for others.

Joe Grone is a senior at Allen High School. He is being nominated for recognition of hard work. Usually the first to be at functions and practices, and one of the last to leave. Joe has been very visible as an academic leader and student body leader. He was nominated by Dave Uldrich. Joe is the son of Jeff and Tricia Grone. School involvements include football, basketball, track, class president, Student Council, FFA, Science Club, band, and student mentor.

Luke Erwin is a seventh grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Middle School. Luke is a hard-working, insightful student. He does his best at academics and also gives his all to activities and athletics. Luke cares about the well-being of others and goes out of his way to be kind and considerate. Luke is an asset to LCC Middle School. He was nominated by Mrs. Jennifer VanMeter. Luke is the son of Josh and Carol Erwin.

Josh Tarno is a fifth grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Middle School. Josh is a spirited kid with a kind heart. He comes to school with determination every day. Josh is quick to notice the needs of others and willingly offers support and compassion. He is always respectful and models a positive attitude every day. He was nominated by Mrs. Jennifer Backer and Mrs. Amy Hill. Josh is the son of Robby and Lindsey Tarno. He is also in the fifth grade instrumental band.

Miley Gnirk is an eighth grader at Winside Public School. Miley is always incredibly respectful and kind to all! She always works hard on everything that is assigned to her and she never needs reminded about what to do or told to stay on task. She is a joy to have around and always has a smile to give. Teachers look forward to having her in their class. She was nominated by the Winside staff. Miley is the daughter of Matthew and Heather Gnirk.

Khloie Fuchs is a fifth grader at Winside Public School. Khloie is always sweet to all of her classmates in the Library. She always follows library expectations and she offers to help put books away every week! Khloie is a leader by doing what is expected of her in and out of the classroom. She is an excellent example to all and willing to go above and beyond lending a hand. She was nominated by the Winside staff. Khloie is the daughter of Jim and Brandi Fuchs.

Sponsored by WAYNE STATE COLLEGE The Wayne Herald

1111 Main Street | Wayne, NE | 375-7000 | wsc.edu