

Students of the MONTH

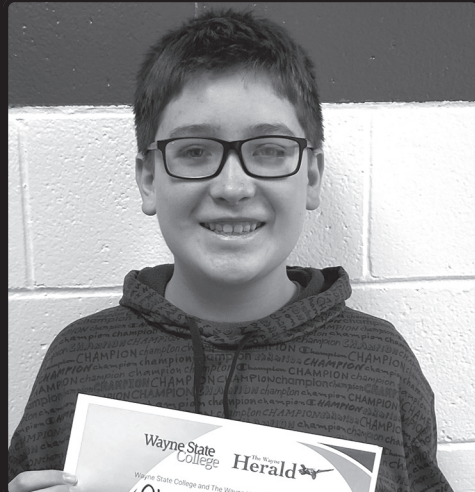

Jordan Sanchez is a freshman at Wayne High School. Jordan is a very outgoing and energetic freshman. His education is very important to him and because of this his work is always well done and turned in on time. He is a very social student and is willing to put himself out there to make new friends. He is a very thoughtful person and is willing to help others within the classroom when they are struggling. He is a supportive teammate on the wrestling team. And he is all around a good person! He goes out of his way to help support other students on their English learning journey while he learns English himself. He is reliable, kind, and has a passion for learning. He is the son of Elizabeth Rodriguez and Fernando Sanchez

Myka Metzler is a second grader at Wayne Elementary School. Myka is a caring and thoughtful classmate, who is always ready to help, if needed. She works to do her very best in all she does. Myka listens attentively to all and participates in class discussions to help others learn too. She was nominated by Mrs. Lutt, homeroom teacher. Myka is the daughter of Chad and Susan Metzler.

Alaina Braun is a first-grader at St. Mary's Catholic School. She was nominated by Mrs. Brady because she has made numerous strides in her work. Alaina has been working hard throughout the year, especially in reading. The desire to serve or help others is very apparent. She is always willing to go above and beyond for any teacher.

Michael Dickens is a junior at Allen. Michael leads quietly by example, good grades don't always come easily but he is one of the hardest working students I've ever encountered. He's had straight A's all year. He shows up, finishes up and cleaned up! Michael is the son of Rusty and Carla Dickens. He is also involved in football, basketball, track, student council, honor roll, FFA, National Honor Society and is a high school mentor.

Carter Korth is a sophomore at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge High School. Carter always greets other with kind words, a smile and enthusiasm. He is diligent in his school work and puts forth great effort in his extra-curriculars as well. He was nominated by Mrs. Jennifer Kesting. Carter is the son of Teri and Travis Korth. He is involved in FFA, SkillsUSA, Quiz Bowl, Cross Country, Basketball, Track and Student Council. Outside of school is plays baseball and is a member of Church Youth Group.

Carlie Kvols is an eighth grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Middle School. Carlie consistently demonstrates high quality character in and out of the classroom. She is hardworking, dependable and respectful to students and staff. Carlie puts great effort into her school work, making sure it is done on time and to the best of her ability. She is a great leader for our school. She was nominated by Mr. Eric DePew. Carlie is the daughter of Julie and Nick Kvols.

Shawn Thompson is a seventh grader at Winside Public School. Shawn is one of the first to always step up and help when needed. He even helped our principal out after school voluntarily one day. Shawn is the son of Shawn and Julie Thompson.

Parlei Grothe is a kindergarten student at Winside Public Schools. Parlei is a kind, caring and respectful kindergartner. She is always ready to help a teacher or a friend when needed. She has grown academically and socially while in my class. I can always count on her for just about anything! She was nominated by the Winside staff and kindergartner teacher. Parlei is the daughter of Landon and Malissa Grothe.

Sponsored by

WAYNE
STATE COLLEGE

The Wayne
Herald

1111 Main Street | Wayne, NE | 375-7000 | wsc.edu