

Students of the MONTH

Calvin Ankeny is a sophomore at Wayne High School. He has a positive attitude and friendly disposition every day. He doesn't look to blame others when he makes a mistake. He takes everything in stride and keeps striving to improve and do well. Calvin is conscientious and responsible. His positive attitude and disposition make him a joy to have in class. He is a great student academically and socially. He is willing to help or compete in anything. Calvin is the son of Dustin and Val Ankeny. He is also involved in FFA, football and baseball.

Lincoln Nelson is a second grader at Wayne Elementary School. Lincoln is a wonderful role model for others. He is kind, respectful, listens to others and follows the rules. He was nominated by Cheryl Suehl. Lincoln is the son of Matt and Dawn Nelson. He is also involved in Math Circles and Wrestling Club.

Blake Heithold is a fifth grader at St. Mary's Catholic School. He is a stand-out student because of his hard work ethic. Blake is willing to accept challenges. He also works hard to be a person who helps others with large or small tasks. We know he is a reliable student. He is a great disciple.

Alyza Leonard is a seventh grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Middle School. Alyza works hard at whatever is in front of her! She is focused, determined and persistent. She is a team player in the classroom and on the court. Alyza is kind and respectful and is a great example of all we hope for in our Middle School students. She was nominated by Mrs. Jen VanMeter. Alyza is the daughter of Mark and Deana Leonard. She is also involved in basketball, volleyball, track, Student Council, Quiz Bowl and Lego League.

Ruby Tasler is a fifth grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Middle School. Ruby stands out at the Middle School as a kind and helpful student. She has a respectful, responsible and dependable demeanor. Ruby has become a hard-working student who demonstrates a strong work ethic each day. Ruby is a true joy to have in my class! She was nominated by Mrs. Jennifer Backer. Ruby is the daughter of Nate and Natasha Tasler. She is involved in Teammates and the Student Council.

Emily Lubberstedt is an eighth grader at Winside Public School. Emily went out of her way to make one of our new students feel included. She willingly asked that student to join their table. She was kind and compassionate. This student needed that and Emily was very empathetic to that. She was nominated by the Winside staff. Emily is the daughter of Brock and Nicole Johnson.

Graciela Naeve is a fourth grader at Winside Public School. Graciela spoke up when no one else in the class would to say that a new girl in her class could be a part of their group. She displays so much kindness and compassion on a daily basis to all. She is so respectful of all staff and students. She shows excellent character in all aspects! She was nominated by the Winside staff. Graciela is the daughter of Mike and Sarah Naeve.

Sponsored by

1111 Main Street | Wayne, NE | 375-7000 | wsc.edu