

Students of the MONTH

Leah Perry is a senior at Wayne High School. Leah is compassionate in all of her activities. She is Vice President of the Wayne FFA chapter, a member of the National Honor Society, and a member of the She Devils Dance Team. She also has demonstrated excellent responsibility when it comes to activities, her teaching aide position, and her work experience. Leah is an outstanding role model for students as well as females in the Career and Technical Sciences. Leah is the daughter of Angela Hansen.

Kaye-Lynn Brunjes is a sixth grader at Wayne Elementary School. Kaye-Lynn is very kind and respectful to adults and students. She is always complimenting and including others. Kaye-Lynn is a role model for doing what is right in school. She was nominated by Mr. Belt. Kaye-Lynn is the daughter of Casandra and John Brunjes.

Israya McIntosh is a 2nd grade student at St. Mary's Catholic School. She has been making spectacular progress in her work. Israya is focused and excited to learn. She is a great example to the younger students and strives to do her best.

Dylan Boyle is a junior at Allen Consolidated School. Dylan has helped tremendously to organize the shop, get welders ready, cut metal and in general help anyone who needs a hand with anything mechanical. He is always willing to lend a hand and loves working on his motor in Small Engines class. He was nominated by Amber Horton, Ag Ed. Dylan is the son of Craig and Mandy Boyle. He is also in FFA, One-Act, football and mentoring. He is a member of St. Anne's Catholic Church.

Carter Korth is a junior at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge High School. Carter has demonstrated resilience, leadership skills and is a student of great character. Although he is injured and has not been running cross country, he actively shows up to practice and meets to encourage his teammates, staying positive and focusing on what he can do! Carter is a true leader and a good friend to others. He was nominated by Mrs. Brandi Settje. Carter is the son of Teri and Travis Korth.

Taelynn Settje is an eighth grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Elementary School. Taelynn is a positive, encouraging, uplifting middle schooler. She looks for ways to help others, whether in the classroom or on the volleyball or cross country teams. She works hard at whatever she is asked to do and she does it with a great attitude! Best of all, Tae is kind to everyone and wants the best for them. She was nominated by Mrs. Jennifer VanMeter. Taelynn is the daughter of Brandi and Grant Settje.

Kaylee Koepke is a fifth grader at Winside Public School. Kaylee is so kind to everyone. She excels in her academics. She is also respectful and responsible towards all adults and her peers! She was nominated by the Winside staff. Kaylee is the daughter of Joshua and Jamie Koepke.

Noah Pace is an eighth grader at Winside Public School. Noah has stepped up and volunteered to help with things when no one else would. He is incredibly kind and respectful to adults and his peers. He goes out of his way to do things for others. Noah is a great kid! He was nominated by the Winside staff. Noah is the son of Mamie Story and William Pace III.

Sponsored by

