The family of Nancy Meyer would like to thank Sgt. Swanson and Officer Marshal of the Wayne City Police, Scott Hasemann and son, Stuart, and Coroner, Amy Miller for their prompt and professional care of the situation. Also, thank you to Rev. Buchhorn for his support and the nice service at Grace Lutheran Church and the cemetery. Also, to the church ladies for the coffee and sweets after the service. Last, but not least, a big thanks to all of our friends who stopped by to offer support or food and kind words. All of the cards, flowers and memorials we received show how much she was loved. Let's all try to be like her and pay it forward with kindness to everyone, everyday.

*What's it like in Heaven, Mom?
You'll tell us after a while,
We've only had a glimpse of it,
From your tender loving smile.
In time we'll too meet with Jesus
Your now good and caring friend.
We'll all see heaven before us
What's God's beginning for us, not our end!*

This is what's beyond Heavenly gates.

Special thanks to Pastor Blanken for his comforting prayers and his presence during Mom's last days.
