Serving Pender, Wayne, Norfolk, Bancroft, Wisner, Emerson

The family of Connie L. Meyer would like to express their heartfelt gratitude for the memorials, cards, flowers, and condolences given in remembrance since her passing. Thanks to Pastor Rademacher from Our Savior Church for the wonderful service. Your words brought peace and solace to our hearts during this difficult time. Special thanks to Scott and his staff at Hasemann Funeral Home for their guidance and assistance during our time of need. Your attention to detail and empathy were a source of comfort during this challenging time.

With Gratitude,

Students of the Month

Taven Ocampo is an eleventh grader at Wayne High School. He is the son of Kimberly and Aaron Ocampo. Taven works hard to understand the topic. He comes up with ways to make things easier. He helps the people around him when they have questions and is not afraid to be a great leader and friend! Keep up the good work! Taven is involved in football, wrestling and track.

Henry Niles is a fifth grader at Wayne Elementary. He is the son of Tyson & Angela Niles and was nominated by Mrs. Phylis Trenhaile. Henry is an excellent student, a good friend and does what is right even when adults are not present. Henry is responsible for his actions and is always looking out for others. Henry is a leader among his peers academically and in peer activities. He is trustworthy and I feel Henry is an excellent candidate for the student of the month.

Boden Jackson is a senior at Allen Consolidated Schools. He is the son of Jay and Holli Jackson and was nominated by Kristin Smith. Boden is very involved in school. He is the FFA vice president, student council secretary, a student mentor and football player. He is very visible in our school and a great role model for our younger students!

Memphis Zarate is a first-grade student at St. Mary's Catholic School. He is a hard worker in all of his classes. When given directions, he listens well and wants to achieve. Memphis is a good model for other students.

Avery Stone is a tenth grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge High School. She is the daughter of Trista and Mike Stone and was nominated by Ms. Raegan Reifenrath. Avery truly gives her all and works hard at school every day. She is a good friend to others and is there to support and help other students who may be struggling. Avery is a positive role model for us all.

Lucy Huff is a sixth grader at St. Mary's Catholic School. She is always willing to help her classmates and teachers. We notice she puts a lot of work into her studies. Lucy also helps during Mass times.

Ruby Jonas is an eighth grader at Laurel-Concord-Coleridge Middle School. She is the daughter of Jennifer and Matt Jonas and was nominated by Mrs. Jennifer Backer. Ruby is a remarkable student who consistently stands up for what she believes in. She brings strength to our school and shows immense compassion and support for friends and classmates. Ruby is active in sports and school organizations. She exemplifies dedication and responsibility. Ruby is a fantastic role model!

Thomas Buchholtz is a second grader at Winside Elementary School. He is the son of Jalin Goodell and Keaton Buchholtz and was nominated by Mrs. Karol Stubbs. Thomas is always kind to others. He includes his peers during recesses and activities in the classroom. Thomas is a hard worker and is motivated to do well. He is involved in youth wrestling.
